What you need?

When a bit of sunshine hits ye,
After pushing of a cloud,
When a fit of laughter gits ye
And ye're again feelin' proud,
Don't forget to up and sling it
As a soul that's a-ling blue,
For the winds change sling it
It's a boomerang to you.
—Capt. Jack Crawford.

It is just as easy to go through life looking for the good and the beautiful, instead of the ugly; for the noble instead of the ignoble; for the bright and cheerful instead of the dark and gloomy; the hopeful instead of the despairing; to see the bright side instead of the dark side. To set your face always toward the sunlight is just as easy as to see always the shadows; and it makes all the difference in your character between content and discontent, between happiness and misery, and in your life, between prosperity and adversity, between success and failure.
