Frank Van Camp has completed his engagement with the Astoria school and returned to this city.

A. Anderson was in Corvallis Saturday and purchased a motorcycle. He returned in the afternoon in less time than it takes to tell it.

E. W. Cochran, the congenial clerk at O. A. Kreamer's store is happy over the fact that his wife and two children, also his uncle, arrived here Sunday from Bushnell, Ill. They will make their home here and will reside in the Tharp house at the end of C street.

Pursuant to announcement in the Enterprise a couple of weeks ago, A. C. Moore made that long talked of visit to Portland Wednesday, and hereafter he will be able to comb his hair down over his face for whiskers without embarrassing the top of his head.

Wm. L. Cook, Prop. the Bee Hive Drug Store, Neilhart, Mont., says the Belt Canon running from Belt to Neilhart is the most picturesque spot in all Montana. He writes, "I recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to all my customers and am never disappointed. It gives the best results for coughs and colds of anything I sell. For sale by Williams Drug Co."

Walter Winslow, republican candidate for District Attorney, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Winslow is one of Salem's bright young attorneys, and has been acting as district attorney under Mr. McNary for several years. It will be fortunate if he is elected to succeed Mr. McNary.

C. L. Parsons, Sec'y and Treas. of the C. H. Ward Drug Co., Pasadena, California, writes: "We have sold and recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years. We believe it to be one of the most efficient expectorants on the market. Containing no opiates or narcotics it can be given freely to children. Enough of this remedy can be taken to relieve a cold as it has no nauseating results and does not interfere with digestion." For sale by Williams Drug Co.

Verd Hill has decided to become a candidate for representative on the democratic ticket. He filed his declaration just in time to get in the race. If he is successful in this undertaking Polk county will have a representative that we need not be ashamed of. While he is not identified with the party we support we must admit that he is a man of high honor and integrity.

U. S. Loughary of Dallas, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Loughary is one of the likely and deserving candidates for county judge, and, by the way, is the only republican candidate that Independence can lay claim to this year. Mr. Loughary was an Independence man before going to Dallas, and still calls Independence his home town although he sleeps and votes in Dallas.

MONSTER EGGS

Thomas Warren is responsible for the editor's Easter dinner this year. He brought in a half dozen eggs yesterday, and it was with difficulty that he convinced the force that they were not goose eggs. One measured eight and three-fourth inches in circumference one way and seven and one-half inches another. They were produced by his famous strain of Black Minorcas and will be devoured per his request on Easter Sunday. Mr. Warren invites anyone to produce six more eggs of like dimensions, and we naturally appreciate that invitation.

AT THE M. E. CHURCH

Easter program 10 a. m. by the Sunday School. Preaching at 11. This will be an Easter sermon on "Jesus Power Over Death." Epworth League 7 p. m., Evening service at 8 p. m., topic: "With What Body Shall We Come Forth?" Special music at all these services. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

F. N. Sandifur, Pastor.

REPRESENTATIVE

Republican Voters of Polk County. I am a candidate for Representative from this county, the only person from Independence whose name will appear on the Republican primary ballot. If nominated and elected shall stand for rigid economy in public expenditures. If deemed worthy your support will be appreciated.

E. E. PADDOCK.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE

To the republican voters of Polk County, Oregon. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the office of County Judge of Polk county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primary election, April 19, 1912.

My motto is: "Give every precinct in the county a fair deal." If I am nominated and elected I will see to it that this is carried out in every particular.

JOHN B. TEAL

To the Democratic voters of Polk county—I hereby announce myself as a candidate for county Commissioner on the democratic ticket at the primary election April 19th, 1912. If elected my aim will be lower taxes and better roads.—H. S. McElmurry, Independence, Oregon.

I beg to announce my candidacy for the nomination for county assessor subject to the will of the republican voters of Polk county, in the primary election to be held April 19, 1912.

W. A. Ayres.
