To Every Woman

Bring this advertisement to our Notion Department not later than one week from today and receive, absolutely free, a regular 10c card of

Wilson Dress-hooks

These popular new Dress-hooks are not ordinary hooks and eyes or snaps—they will completely overcome your dress-fastening difficulties. The free cards are not samples but the same value for which you would regularly pay 10c.

We make this most unusual and liberal offer as we are confident you will find Wilson Dress-hooks the very thing you have always wanted. They can't come unhooked or "pop" open accidentally. They hold securely without bulge or gap, though you can unhook them with perfect ease. Guaranteed not to rust or crush in washing and ironing, and to outlast any garment; perfectly flat and never show.

Don't neglect this opportunity to try the Wilson Dress-hooks you have seen so widely advertised in the leading magazines and style books. Used by fashionable women everywhere and endorsed by leading dressmakers.

CURRENT EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Doings of the World at Large Told in Brief.

General Resume of Important Events Presented in Condensed Form for Our Busy Readers.

The senate has agreed to a pension of $150 a month for the widow of Admiral Schley.

Reports of crop damage in Kansas and Nebraska have sent wheat prices soaring in Chicago.

Vice President Sherman signed the three-year homestead bill, and it is now up to President Taft.

Bond companies of Spokane will cancel the bonds of any employe caught at the race tracks.

The German battleships Moltke and Stettin are visiting the United States and are anchored in Hampton Roads.

The Harriman lines have placed orders with Puget Sound and Columbia River mills for 50,000,000 feet of lumber.

Canadians are enthusiastic over the plan to make the Columbia an open waterway from Revelstoke, B. C., to the sea.

A great fire swept over Stamboul, the Mohammedan section of Constantinople. Two thousand houses and several mosques were burned.

The body of Captain Stinson, of the Steamer Sarah Dixon, was found 20 miles below where the steamer blew up more than five months ago near Martin's Bluff, on the Lower Columbia river.

A burning oil well at Taft, Cal., is sending a column of flame 300 feet in the air and wasting about 7000 barrels of oil every 24 hours. Efforts will be made to extinguish the fire with steam jets.

Captain Rostron, of the steamship Carpathia, which brought into port the survivors of the Titanic disaster, was presented with a draft for $10,000, a fund subscribed by friends of the New York American.

Because of the warm winter many towns in Alaska did not get a sufficient supply of ice, and now the railroads are hauling in ice by the train-load from two great glaciers on their lines. The supply is considered practically inexhaustible.

The Mexican federal army under General Huerta is in danger of being cut off from its base of supplies.

Fire is destroying the timbering in the Chilkoot tunnel of the Western Pacific railway near Portola, Cal.

General Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, will be totally blind as the result of an operation for cataract.

The situation in the state of Sinaloa, Mexico, is reported to be absolutely chaotic, brigands roaming over the country and plundering at will.
