Wilson Dress-hooks

These popular new Dress-hooks are not ordinary hooks and eyes or snaps—they will completely overcome your dress-fastening difficulties. The free cards are not samples but the same value for which you would regularly pay 10c.

We make this most unusual and liberal offer as we are confident you will find Wilson Dress-hooks the very thing you have always wanted. They can't come unhooked or "pop" open accidentally. They hold securely without bulge or gap, though you can unhook them with perfect ease. Guaranteed not to rust or crush in washing and ironing, and to outlast any garment; perfectly flat and never show.

Don't neglect this opportunity to try the Wilson Dress-hooks you have seen so widely advertised in the leading magazines and style books. Used by fashionable women everywhere and endorsed by leading dressmakers.

TAFT AND SHERMAN RECEIVE NOMINATIONS

Roosevelt Followers Refuse to Vote and Organize "Progressive" Party.

Republican National Convention Adjourns Sine Die, After Completing Its Work in Accordance With Pre-arranged Program of Taft Managers.

Convention Hall, Chicago, June 22.—With 344 of the Roosevelt delegates declining to vote, and hastening away at adjournment time to tender to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt the nomination of a new party, the fifteenth Republican National convention at the end of a long and tumultuous session tonight renominated William H. Taft, of Ohio, for president and James Schoolcraft Sherman, of New York, for vice-president. President Taft received 561 of the 1078 votes in the convention, or 21 more than a majority.

The result of the ballot was: Taft, 561, Roosevelt 107, La Follette 41, Cummins 17, Hughes, 2, absent 6, present, but not voting, 344.

The result of the ballot for vice-president was: Sherman 597, Borah 21, Merriam 20, Hadley 14, Beveridge 2, Gillett 1, absent 71, present, but not voting, 352. The decision of the Roosevelt people, under direction of their leader, to refrain from voting, left no other candidate near the president. The announcement of the Taft victory was greeted with cheering from his adherents and groans and hisses from the opposition.

When it became absolutely certain early today that Mr. Taft would be nominated without great difficulty, the leaders in control of the convention decided to give him as a running mate his companion on the ticket in 1908. All others dropped from the race and Mr. Sherman was the only candidate regularly placed before the convention. A motion from New Hampshire to make the nomination by acclamation was declared out of order. There were many scattering votes on the roll call that ensued.

The convention, amid much confusion, adjourned sine die.

At no time was there any indication of a walkout of Roosevelt delegates. They expressed their revolt by silence.

Chicago, June 22.—Senator Root made chairman of the committee to notify President Taft. Thomas H. Devine, of Colorado, to head vice-presidential notification committee.

Women Head Mob.
Los Angeles—Spurred on by the shrieks of their women leaders, a mob of several hundred Mexicans and their sympathizers made what the police ascertained to be an organized attempt to rescue Ricardo Flores Magon, Enrique Magon Anselmo Figueroa and Librado Rivera, leaders of the recent revolution in Lower California against President Diaz, as they were leaving the courthouse for the jail after having been sentenced to one year and 11 months imprisonment on McNeil's Island, for violation of neutrality laws.

Film Shows to Be Fought.
New York—Aiming to win back from the motion picture houses to the "legitimate" theaters thousands of amusement seekers who have changed their allegiance in the last few years, a syndicate of big theatrical men, including the Shuberts, William A. Brady, Lew Fields, Marcus Loewe and others, have formed a circuit of theaters, in 30 cities in the East and Middle West, and will send out companies that will play at 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Roosevelt forces immediately begin their convention in Orchestra Hall. William Jennings Bryan cheered as he hastens from convention hall to Baltimore, to battle with reactionaries in the Democratic party.

Roll call on adoption of the platform showed 666 yeas, 53 nays, 343 not voting, 19 absent.

Massachusetts delegation causes scenes of wild disorder by refusing to vote on presidential nomination.

Temporary organization made permanent without a hitch, in striking contrast to the fight on the opening day.

Platform aims to include the best ideas demanded by all factions of the third party and the country at large, irrespective of party affiliations.

Army Aviator is Injured.
Washington, D. C.—Carl L. Hamilton, of Connersville, Ind., an instructor at the army aviation school, College Park, Md., was injured perhaps fatally in an aeroplane accident at that place. Hamilton was flying alone in a biplane and was at a height of 100 feet when the machine suddenly fell to the ground and was smashed to pieces. The aviator was pinned beneath the wreckage, but was quickly extricated. He was hurried to a hospital, where it was said his injuries might prove fatal.

National Primary is Plan.
Washington, D. C.—Government supervision of presidential primaries is proposed in a bill introduced by Representative Howland, Republican, of Ohio. A national board of five members would have charge of all primaries in the United States. A board of three members would have charge of primaries within the states. Candidates for president would be required to file declarations of candidacy with the board and pay a $1000 filing fee.

Vice-presidential nomination offered Governor Deneen, of Illinois, and Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, but both refuse. Former Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff announces his resignation as leader of the Republican organization in Brooklyn.

Indications are that the Cummins camp of progressives will join the Roosevelt third party.

Indications are that Governor Hadley will not follow Roosevelt in the third party plan.

Close of the convention marks a hasty rush by newspaper camps to Baltimore convention.

Railroad officials unable to get any definite understanding from Colonel Roosevelt as to when he will start back east.

Governor Hadley, of Missouri, and Senator Borah said to have declined to consider the vice-presidency.

T. R. ACCEPTS NOMINATION.

Progressives Begin Work of Organizing New Party.

Chicago, June 22.—Theodore Roosevelt was nominated tonight for president on an independent ticket. The nomination was made during the dying hours of the Republican national convention in which Mr. Roosevelt met defeat.

The followers of Colonel Roosevelt met in Orchestra Hall, and pledged their support to the ex-president. In accepting the nomination, Colonel

Roosevelt appealed to the people of all sections, regardless of party affiliations, to stand with the founders of the new party, one of whose cardinal principles, he said, was to be "Thou shalt not steal."

The informal nomination of Colonel Roosevelt was said to be chiefly for the purpose of effecting a temporary organization. Beginning tomorrow, when a call is to be issued for a state convention in Illinois, the work of organization will be pushed forward rapidly, state by state.

At a later time, probably in August, a national convention will be held.

Colonel Roosevelt, in accepting the nomination, said he did so with the understanding that he would be willing to step aside if it should be the desire of the new party when organized to select another standard-bearer.
