

The New Store's BIG SALE is on With a Plunge

Herzog's New Store at Independence is holding one of the biggest and best regulated merchandise sales ever held in Independence. The store has been Packed, Jammed to the Doors, with eager buyers supplying their wants with immediate and future needs. Never in the history of merchandising have you ever been able to buy goods at such low prices. We are shrewd enough to know the full merits of the Clothing and Shoe business from beginning to end and the public are well posted as to values. At no time has any merchant offered Clothing, Shoes, Furnishings, etc. at prices to equal what we have placed before you. On the opening day of the sale we advertised to give away a $20.00 Men's suit, we did as we advertised. The lucky man, J. M. Riggles, R.F.D. No. 1, Independence, Ore., got the suit. He had his pick of any $20 suit in the store. "Ask the Man."

A Squawking Competitor questioned our sincerity and methods regarding this matter. So its now up to the people to judge for themselves. If we undersell and it hurts our competitors, we are not to blame, everything is fair in war. If he undersells us, why we are merchants and will act accordingly. We will not belittle or ridicule any man's methods, nor will we give any prize packages in the pocket or in the package.

But We Will Undersell and Cut to The Core
