CONVENIENT IN SEWING ROOM

Handy Apron Will Save Time for the Woman Who Has Much of This Work to Do.

A very convenient apron to don when in the sewing room is made of white lawn and white dotted swiss. This is cut 18 inches long and 27 inches wide. The swiss is placed over the lawn and both cut rounding on the lower edge. About nine inches from this edge the swiss is cut away in a sweeping curve toward the waist line and the edges are bound with narrow bias bands of lawn or narrow satin ribbon in some pretty light shade. This forms two openings like pockets, for the upper part of the swiss is caught into the waistband with the lawn; this band, by the way, may be of ribbon matching that which binds the apron. In this deep pocket can be slipped the spools of thread, scissors and pieces of material on which you are working. It solves the problem of sewing on the porch, for in it are held all the necessary materials, and it can be taken off and folded with the work inside, if you wish to discontinue your sewing for a little while.

Proud of Title of "Bulldog."

It has been said of Prince Leopold of Anhalt-Dessau, one of Frederick the Great's most able generals, "In everything a soldier and an oddity, he was a prince in nothing, save in his love of power." His soldiers called him the "bulldog." He liked the name, for it set forth the traits on which he prided himself—tenacity, courage and toughness.

Take Time for Breakfast.

Common sense indicates that breakfast should be a substantial meal. enough time should be allowed to eat the morning meal at leisure and enjoy it. The manner in which some people gobble down their breakfast is becoming only to an ostrich. It is one of the great reasons for the existence of what is sometimes called "American dyspepsia."

The Coughs of Children

They may not cough today, but what about tomorrow? Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine at hand. This cough medicine is especially good for children. No anodynes. No alcohol.

Many a child is called dull and stupid when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills, sugar-coated, will do such children a great deal of good. Ask him.

SCHOOL FIFTY YEARS AGO

Reminiscent Writer Tells of the Fashionable Girls' Academy of a Period of the Past.

The fashionable girls' school of fifty years ago was a most interesting place apparently. "Looking backward to those busy, shining hours," writes Julia C. R. Dorr, in Harper's Bazar, "my first thought is, how we all studied! How eager we were! What keen delight we took in construing an intricate sentence or in solving a hard problem!" There were about fifty scholars, or possibly seventy-five; and among them was a group of eight or ten bright young fellows who were fitting for college; preparing to enter as sophomores the coming autumn. What an ambitious lot we were, to be sure! I was the only girl in the "advanced Latin," and had the honor of a seat on one end of a long, narrow recitation bench, a little withdrawn, as was proper, from those stars of the first magnitude.

The problem of coeducation had not come up then. If a girl wanted to study with her brother and his friends, she did it—and that was all there was of it. How we sought for the derivation of words. How we revealed in the classical dictionary, brought by one of us and thrown into the common stock, passing from hand to hand, from desk to desk! The first word of greeting in the morning was a question about the coming lesson; the latest word at night was a reminder of the last one.

How many teachers did we have? Just one. I doubt very much if he was a marvel of learning, though I thought he was then. He was just out of college himself, and he had had no wide experience of books or men. But he had the rare gift of being able to stimulate and inspire his scholars, and kindle every latent spark of enthusiasm in their natures. Enthusiasm is a better word than ambition in this connection. Study was joyful labor, done for the pure love of it. It was its own end; not simply a means to some other end.

The village academy of that day taught concentration if it taught nothing else. Study and recitation went on in the same room and at the same time. We had but few iron-clad rules. Whispering inordinately was, of course, not allowable, but if there was real occasion for speaking we spoke, and no one was the worse for it. We had never heard the expression "good form." It was not in vogue then. But if it had been, we would have said with one voice that it was not good form to disturb others.

"Horny-Headed Romanry.

How a prominent Missouri farmer was "scratched" by the tillers of the soil in his race for governor of Missouri, shortly after the war, is told by one who was there and knew how it all happened.

"This man," said the narrator the other day, "was one of the most prominent farmers and cattle raisers in the state. I shall not use his name. He was running on the 'greenback' ticket. Some place he had heard the humble agrculturists referred to as 'horny-handed yeomanry.'

"This phrase was just to his liking, and he thought it would please the farmers to be referred to as 'horny-handed yeomanry.' And it might have done so had he not somewhat twisted the appellation in his attempt to use it.

"'There are no grander set of men in this great state of ours,' he said at his first big meeting of farmers' than you horny-headed romanry.'" But that was too much for the farmers. The candidate was scatched."—Kansas City Journal.

Couldn't Dazzle Mammy.

The young man of the house really was making good in a way that delighted his parents and brought him much flattery from friends and neighbors, but old Mammy, the family servant, remained unimpressed. One day when he had done a particularly brilliant piece of surgical work and delivered an especially profound address before a great convention, he said to Mammy: "I'm not a baby any longer, and I think you better call me Mr. Charles hereafter." The old darky snorted her indignation.

"Who—me?" she asked. "I ain't never is gwine call you Mister! You ain't no Mister any more'n I'se a Miss! You couldn't wiggle yo' fingers so pert a-cuttin' out folkses' insides ef I hadn't a-kep' 'em limber wid smackin, an' you couldn't hear de patient's heart a-beatin' ef it wa'n't for me forever washin' yo' ears so clean! You ain't nothin' but a measly little boy to yo' ole Mammy!"

Quick Business.

William Loeb, collector of the port of New York, was discussing the wondrous speed and simplicity used in the transaction of American business.

"In a banker's office the other day," he said, "I saw a door open, a head stuck itself quickly into the opening and a voice demanded:

"'Quarter?'

"'Yep,' the bank president replied.

"'Month?'

"'Yep.'

"'Four half?'

"'No, five.'

"'Right.'

"The head withdrew. I asked in wonderment:

"'What kind of a cipher is that you are talking?'

"'No cipher at all,' the president replied. 'That was one of Chicago's leading financiers, and I have just arranged to lend him a quarter million dollars for a month at 5 per cent.'"

Bracelet Watch.

To travel without having a timepiece in a place where it may readily be consulted, is generally acknowledged to be so great a nuisance, that nearly every woman or girl who is contemplating a journey of any extent, is providing herself with a bracelet watch to be worn on the left arm between the wrist and the elbow. This timepiece may be as expensive as the prospective traveler can afford. It may be of solid gold or silver; the mechanism of Swiss workmanship imbedded upon a bracelet formed of a band of metal or of a succession of links. Or it may be of enameled metal, of gun or or plated silver. Eminently practical bracelet timepiece outfits show the watch works imbedded in a pigskin, sealskin or morocco half-case that is cut in one with a broad band fastening at the under side of the forearm with a small buckle of the trunk type.

Lack of Proper Courtesy.

There used to be a time, not so very long ago, when if one borrowed anything from a book to a shoe lace one was expected to return it promptly and in good condition. WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

Murrayville, Ill.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a very bad case of female trouble and it made me a well woman. My health was all broken down, the doctors said I must have an operation, and I was ready to go to the hospital, but dreaded it so that I began taking your Compound. I got along so well that I gave up the doctors and was saved from the operation."—Mrs. CHARLES MOORE, R. R. No. 3, Murrayville, Ill.

An old woman walked into a bank in Inverness, threw down her deposit-book, and said she wished to draw all her money. Having got it, she retired to a corner of the room and counted it. She then marched up to the teller, and exclaimed: "Ay, that'll doe, ma man; jist pit it back again. I only wanted to see if it was a' richt."—Dundee News.

No Maltese Cats in Malta.

There are a few of the so-called Maltese terriers in Malta, but they are not of pure blood, and the puppies which the street hawkers offer for sale to tourists are more or less mongrel, with a strain of the old breed. The Maltese cat does not exist in Malta; at least not one has been seen here of the color called Maltese in the United States.

IMPORTANT!

For the protection of the public we have brought suit against a firm of dentists near our office, to prevent them from placing our name in large white letters on the front of their building. It has taken us 25 years of conscientious, painstaking and skillful work to make THE WISE DENTAL CO. known thru'out the Northwest as absolutely reliable and at the top of the profession. We will not allow our good name to be jeopardized by men who have no connection with this office. We have only ONE office, and that is in the FAILING building, southeast corner Third and Washington streets. The entrance is on Third St., and an elevator carries passengers to our floor.
