

WILSON IS ELECTED

National Democratic Candidates Sweep the Country; Change in Both House and Senate Sure.

ROOSEVELT RUNS SECOND

Democracy Captures Over Four Hundred Electoral Votes.

New York and Ohio Are for Wilson; Pennsylvania and Illinois Line Up for Teddy.

New York—With the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency and Thomas R. Marshall to the vice presidency assured by the earlier returns, the reports give indications polled by Roosevelt and Wilson in other parts of the state.

Many surprises were shown in the returns. The New York state assembly seemed to be overwhelmingly Democratic. In Illinois, indications were that Judge Dunne, the Democratic candidate for governor, had won notwithstanding the heavy Roosevelt victory. Former Speaker Cannon seemed to have been defeated for reelection to congress in Illinois.

In addition to Roosevelt's apparently certain victory in Illinois, the confident claims of the Roosevelt managers that Iowa, Michigan and Kansas would fall into the Roosevelt column seemed verified by the partially complete returns. The returns from California were meagre, but left the state in doubt between Wilson and Roosevelt. The uncertainty regarding Vermont was settled by the an-

Delaware—Wilson carries Delaware by good plurality.

Florida—Usual Democratic majorities.

Georgia—Usual Democratic majorities.

Idaho—Wilson leads on early returns.

Illinois—Roosevelt carries state by 15,000, Wilson second. Democrats elect governor.

Indiana—Democratic with Roosevelt apparently second.

Iowa—Seems to have been carried by Roosevelt; Wilson second.

Kansas—Roosevelt leads on early returns.

Kentucky—Carried by Wilson. No state candidates voted on.

Louisiana—Usual Democratic majorities.

Maine—Success of Democratic electoral ticket apparent from three-fourths count, Wilson having 5000 lead over Roosevelt.

Maryland—Democratic by about 40,000.

Massachusetts—State Democratic for president, first time in its history. Governor Foss re-elected. Democrats seem to have made slight gain in congress.

Michigan—Scattering and incomplete returns indicate Roosevelt has a good plurality.

Minnesota—Democrats claim state on early returns by 5,000.

Mississippi—Democratic majority indicated as 105,000.

Missouri—Scattering returns indicate Wilson has carried state.

Montana—Apparently Democratic.

Nebraska—Senator Hitchcock claims state for Wilson by 35,000.

Nevada—Returns give Wilson a good lead. Roosevelt second.

New Hampshire—Taft has slight lead.

New Jersey—Wilson carries New Jersey by a safe plurality. The count is slow.

New Mexico—No returns as yet.

New York—For Wilson by from 150,000 to 200,000.

North Carolina—Democratic, usual majorities.

North Dakota—Wilson leads strongly. Republican candidates for governor leads.

Ohio—Wilson leads in Ohio.

Oklahoma—Wilson has large majority.

Oregon—Long ballot makes returns extremely slow.

Pennsylvania—In doubt at a late hour.

Rhode Island—Taft leads on meager returns.

South Carolina—Democratic electors elected by usual majorities. Roosevelt electors seem to be second.

South Dakota—Wilson leads, with Roosevelt a close second.

Tennessee—Usual Democratic majorities.

Texas—Democratic by 170,000.

Utah—Seems to have been carried by President Taft.

Vermont—Taft wins by 924 votes over Roosevelt on final count. Wilson third.

Virginia—Democratic.

Washington—Polls closed late. Slow count makes returns late.

West Virginia—Wilson leads on meager returns.

Wisconsin—State goes into Wilson column.

Wyoming—Taft leads on meager returns. Mondell, representative for congress, has large lead.

QUEER BETS MADE.

One Man Will Have to Kiss Ten Horses if He Loses.

New York—The queerest of all strange bets that must be paid on the election is that of the man who agreed to kiss the first ten horses he met in the street if his candidate was defeated. But there are plenty of other odd forfeits to be paid in case of defeat and here are some of them:

A well-known Scotch resident of the Bronx agreed to wear his kilties to work for a month if Roosevelt was elected.

One man agreed to hug all the lamp posts on Broadway between Herald and Longacre squares if Sulzer was defeated.

A Brooklyn man must invite his mother-in-law to his house for the winter.

Several men will have to go swimming at Coney Island every Sunday for a month.

A Brooklyn girl had to give a gum drop to the first ten men she met.

A Staten Islander must live on oysters for ten days.

Roosevelt Second in Maryland.

Baltimore—Woodrow Wilson carried Maryland by from 20,000 to 25,000 plurality, estimated from figures received up to a late hour. Roosevelt ran second.

Nicholas Longworth Re-Elected, Cincinnati—Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of ex-President Roosevelt, was elected to congress from the First Ohio district.

Arkansas Wilson's By 60,000 Little Rock, Ark.—Wilson carried Arkansas by about 60,000 majority.

WILSON GETS BEAVER STATE

Washington Is Strong for the Doughty Colonel.

Democrats Lead in Idaho, With T. R. Second; Borah Certain of Re-election.

Portland, Or.—Woodrow Wilson, according to figures representing about one half the vote in Multnomah county and one fifteenth of the vote up-state, has carried Oregon, with Taft and Roosevelt contesting for second place.

For United States senator, Jonathan Bourne has suffered defeat.

According to early estimates he will run third, with Ben Selling and Harry Lane close contestants for first place.

The earliest returns indicated that Bourne would carry Multnomah county and that Selling would have the state outside, but later reports showed Lane making unexpected gains. In Portland it is a close race between the three candidates, but in the state at large the closeness is between only Lane and Selling.

Incomplete returns from 26 of the 34 counties in Oregon, including Multnomah, give Taft, 3721; Wilson, 5262; Roosevelt, 4055.

Returns from the same counties, though not so nearly complete, give the following vote on United States senator: Selling, 3440, Bourne, 2432; Lane 3630, Clark 918. In the foregoing figures Selling has overcome with his up-state vote Bourne's lead over him of 234 in Multnomah county.

In many counties no returns were available on measures, but those that reported on woman suffrage were almost invariably favorable. It is indicated by the meager returns that the measure will have an affirmative majority of about 8000.

Single tax has been snowed under. The returns uniformly show a decisive majority against the graduated tax amendment and the probabilities are that it has been defeated by 50,000.

Seattle, Wash.—Three hundred and ninety precincts out of 1903 in the state give Roosevelt 22,971, Wilson 17,203, Taft 14,032.

For governor, 238 precincts give Lister, Democrat, 10,450; Hay, Republican, 8559; Hodge, Progressive, 6962.

Roosevelt has carried Washington by probably 30,000 plurality over Wilson. The Progressive state chairman claims 45,000; the Democratic chairman concedes 20,000.

Roosevelt has carried with him to victory the two Progressive candidates for representatives in congress at large, J. A. Falconer and J. W. Bryan.

Robert T. Hodge, Progressive candidate for governor, may have been beaten in the race for governor. He made a remarkable campaign through the state. Toward the close of the campaign he was savagely attacked by Republican newspapers and speakers. It is believed that all the other candidates on the Progressive ticket have been elected.

In the race for governor, Lister, Democrat; Hodges, Progressive and Hay Republican, are running almost together and the result is in doubt.

One hundred and twenty-six precincts out of 1903 in the state give Roosevelt 10,143; Wilson, 6950; Taft 5574.

For governor 55 precincts give Lister, Democrat, 1896; Hodges, Progressive, 1893; Hay, Republican, 1855.

Boise, Idaho—Woodrow Wilson will carry the state of Idaho for president. Partial and incomplete returns, a reflection of the trend of the vote, places Wilson in the lead, Roosevelt second and Taft third. This is considered a remarkable showing, if the final vote verifies it, in face of the Supreme court decision forcing the writing of the names of Roosevelt electors off the ballot.

The total vote in the state on presidential will be approximately 90,000, divided as follows: Wilson 40,000, Roosevelt 30,000 Taft 20,000, with a small vote for Debs. The Prohibitionists will also have a scattering vote.

The legislature will, it is conceded on the showing made by the partial returns, be strongly Republican, assuring the re-election of Senator Borah and a second senator to fill the vacancy made by the death of the late W. B. Heyburn.

T. R. and Wilson are Close.

Baker, Or.—Roosevelt and Wilson are running close in Baker county from all indications, though as yet little more than a prediction is possible. Roosevelt is possibly the favorite by a slight margin. Lane and Clark are in the lead for senator, though neither is conceded victory. Reports are coming in slowly, especially from the outlying precincts. City reports will not be definite till late. A large vote was cast, and unusual interest manifested in the election.

"Wets" and "Drys" Break Even.

Seattle—The "dry" and "wet" issue in Washington was one of the most important local questions to come up. The victory is about even for the saloon and anti-saloon forces. Licensed saloons won out in several instances but the general tendency was to maintain prohibition. Kennewick, which has waged a bitter fight, voted to remain dry, and Vancouver, after a spirited contest, decided to stay wet.

WOODROW WILSON, OF NEW JERSEY.

that the electoral vote of the Democratic candidates will pass the 400 mark.

The size of the popular majority given the Democratic national ticket by the states outside of Illinois that might give electoral votes to either Taft or Roosevelt are matters of conjecture. It was certain, however, that Illinois would give an overwhelming majority to Roosevelt, while the race in Pennsylvania was so close as to bring all three candidates within range of success.

Early returns gave Woodrow Wilson and Governor Marshall the "Solid South" and the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, West Virginia, Indiana and Missouri. As the returns from the West began to come in, the earlier counts were confirmed and Montana, New Jersey and New Mexico were added to those that seemed certain for the Democratic candidates, while scattering returns from San Francisco and Los Angeles made it probable that California might join the Wilson-Marshall column.

Rhode Island also became a doubtful state on the first returns, and, based on the later votes reported, it seemed not wholly improbable that its five electoral votes would go to Wilson. The early returns gave an apparent victory to Taft in New Hampshire, but the Taft plurality dwindled as the count proceeded.

The vote in Utah as reflected in the first dispatches gave indications that that state would be carried by Taft. The vote in Pennsylvania was amazingly close, the returns from more than 1000 precincts embracing 185,000 votes giving each of the three leading presidential candidates more than 60,000 votes.

President Taft's lead in Philadelphia districts was offset by the heavy vote nouncement of the complete vote, which gave Taft a majority of 924 votes.

The Providence, R. I., Journal conceded that state to Wilson, and with the vote close in New Hampshire, it seemed probable that New England's entire vote, with the exception of Vermont, had gone over to the Democratic column.

Following is a resume in a nutshell of returns from various states:

Alabama—Usual Democratic majority.

Arizona—Wilson has good lead; woman suffrage appears to have carried state.

Arkansas—Wilson carries state by 60,000.

California—Wilson leads and his manager claims the state by 20,000.

Colorado—Reports indicate Wilson will carry state by 42,000 over Taft, with Roosevelt close third.

Connecticut—Wilson carries state.

Michigan Conceded to Roosevelt.

Detroit—Returns from 145 out of 2115 state precincts show Taft 12,347, Roosevelt 20,330, Wilson, 16,66. This does not include the incomplete count in many Detroit precincts. It is conceded that Roosevelt will carry the state.

Socialists Second in Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla.—Returns indicate that the entire Democratic ticket is elected by a majority of about 220,000. The Socialists apparently polled a larger vote than either the Republicans or Roosevelt Progressives.
