MEETS DEATH AT ORVILLE

While working near the mouth of the tunnel being constructed near Orville by the Oregon Electric, William Hartman was electrocuted last Thursday by coming in contact with a live wire. A number of workmen were close to him at the time of the accident and made a heroic effort to resuscitate him, but their efforts were futile.

HAD SLIPPERY FINGERS

Eleven cases of stolen goods were found in the home of William Martin, a mail carrier at Salem. A fray was required to return the loot found to the postoffice. He had been suspected for some time by the postal authorities and a trap was set for him. They were not long in finding out where the missing articles were going. Martin is now in the county jail at Salem and will no doubt serve a term of several years in the Federal prison. He has a wife and ten children.

If Independence is going to pave, and we hope it will, let us endeavor first to get the best kind of pavement and then determine how cheaply it can be done, guaranteeing the work to be durable and will stand the wear and tear of time. To avoid any misunderstandings, we should work in harmony with the city fathers. When we do this a better understanding can be had with one another, in which event the city will continue to expand and people from the eastern states coming here will admire its beauty and progressive spirit of its citizens. Flaming fault has put many a town on the dead list.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 1474, Chicago, Ill., have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50c package securely wrapped and prepaid absolutely free to any reader of The Enterprise. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day, old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. is an old reliable house, write to them today for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE NORMAL SCHOOL CITY

Monmouth was full of Gypsy beggars last Thursday, who came from the south, and people all over the town were required to watch their loose property. The report recently given out that chicken thieves are in town is said to be false, although many other criminals are here.

J. W. Livingston, principal of the Monmouth High School, went to Dallas Saturday and attended a meeting of the Polk County Principals' Club held in that city during the afternoon.

Since the high schools throughout Polk county refused to debate on the subject of "Compensation for Working Men Engaged in Hazardous Occupations," the cup offered three years ago by County School Superintendent H. C. Seymour, will fall into the hands permanently.

The lot directly south of the house of Mrs. C. Beckley on railroad street has been leased for a garden high school here.

Miss Elta Portwood has gone to a small town in Klamath county to teach school during the balance of the year. She is mid-year graduate at the Oregon Normal School.

Mrs. J. L. Murdock, of Portland, formerly of this place, was visiting friends in this city Thursday.

The Brotherhood Club formed at the Christian church recently by Rev. J. M. Orrick, has proven a success. Officers were elected at the last meeting to serve for the coming year.

At the Star Theatre Saturday night a special group of actors presented a pleasing program to the citizens of Monmouth. Since the management is now in the hands of J. S. Prime, some splendid plays have been secured.

This week the ditches for the heating pipes extending from the new heating plant and the new dormitory to the Normal building were finished.

and concrete was placed alongside all the ways in order to help conduct the heat and get the best possible results from the smallest fire.

An association of eighteen players has been formed at the high school here, which consists of the following: Clarence Daniel, Sumner Ostrom, Oak Wood, Harold Haley, Ranle Burkhead, Wilmer Powell, Standley Evans, Charles Powell, Howard Morlan, Perry Powell, Wallace Stevenson, Russell Quisenberry, Byron White, Dwight Quisenberry, Lucien Arant, Arthur Burkhead, Robert Thompson and Jennings Lorence.

Summer W. Ostrom and Victor Davis went to Falls City Saturday where they are employed on a hop farm of John Blyteu near that city.

R. M. Smith reports the loss of several of his fine goats to the severe storms last week in this section of Monmouth Heights.

An Easter dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Powell at their home in North Monmouth Sunday noon by the families of the aged couple.

C. D. Tyler, is director of the Independence Concert Band in connection with his work of instruction at Monmouth.
