The spring weather has brought every automobile in use just and many new ones. At the be- ginning of the season we urge the practice of dimming your lights when passing any one, not only other cars, but teams and people walk- ing. If there is no law to compell drivers to be more careful, we suggest that the Secretary of State, printed some "safty first" and give one of these booklets each one when he secures a num- ber for his machine. If auto drivers will not heed the warning of safty suggestions, then something more drastic should be done.

God placed somewhere in the heart of each of us a tender memory, which enables us to touch with a gentle hand or soothing word the heart of the afflicted. What a comfort to know that for every heartache, there is somewhere in the universe a heaven inspired soul to comfort all those downcast. Let us make our words as dew from heaven, touching with gentle hand the withered flowers giving new vigor to the hardy.

The great American sin is profan- ity. The use of profane language is not confined to the street loafer, the thug and the sot; men who move in good society, business men of stand- ing and reputation, young men and old men, and even boys of tender age are addicted to this unexcusable hab- it and sin. There is nothing more disgusting than to hear a man pub- licly utter his every utterance with lurid oaths.
