

THE CITY

Mrs. Larson of Suver, is a guest at the J McLeod home this week.

M. J. Krutz and family motored over from Salem Sunday and spent the day.

Walter Smith left for Salem on Thursday, where he will enlist in the Navy.

Walter Smith has come back from Alaska, to enlist in Uncle Sam's fighting forces.

Mark Hanna after graduating at Mt. Angel college, is at home helping the folks to get ready for their move to Portland.

Herman Allison, who has been in a naval training camp in Virginia for some time, is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. A. W. Klester, being out on sick leave.

Roy McFadden, with his wife, is here making his farewell visit with his mother, Mrs. Sherman Hays. Roy has been called for enlistment and will leave soon for American Lake.

Carl Bingman, the Y. M. C. A. secretary of Fort Casey, Washington, who is home on a visit, will give a talk at the close of the Bible School services next Sunday, telling about the work in the camp, etc. All should hear him as Carl in an unusually interesting speaker.

Miss Ruth Wilson was a Dallas visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Duvall visited in Portland and Vancouver last week.

Miss Paul visited in Independence last week, the guest of Mrs. Hoke.

Riley Cooper of Chehalls, Washington, is in town visiting old friends and relatives this week.

Henry Oberson, Glen Smith, Wayne Hanna and John Becker went to Dallas Wednesday to register.

Don't forget to smoke a piece of glass and be ready to view the total eclipse of the sun on Saturday.

Mrs. Irma Clark and children returned from Portland Wednesday, where they had been visiting relatives for the past week.

Mrs. B. R. Wolfe returned from Portland Friday evening where she spent a fortnight visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Feldman.

Mrs. M. E. Stansberry, who was called to Idaho several weeks ago by the death of her daughter, returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. Hattie Henkle and daughter Emma have moved back to town from Corvallis and are again domiciled in their old home on Third street.

Rev. Victor E. Hoven, of the Eugene Divinity School, preached in the Christian church here last Sunday. He held a pastorate at this church seventeen years ago.

A. C. Moore and Earnest Johnson went to Tillamook Saturday, where they took the D. O. K. K. degree in the Knights of Pythias. They were accompanied by Claud Barrick, Leon Barrick and Will Kurre.

Carl Bingman, secretary in the army Y. M. C. A. at Fort Casey, Washington, is home on a visit to his relatives and friends. Having been ill in the hospital for some time, he has come home to rest and recuperate.

Regular school work was finished up at the high school last Monday and this week the pupils have been taking the yearly examination preparatory for promotion. High school closes this Friday and the public school the 14th.

Roy DeArmond has resigned his position in the bank here and expects soon to move to Eastern Oregon, where he will have the management of a large ranche of his uncles. We regret to lose Roy, as he is generally a favorite with the young folks.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Annual Memorial Service of the Nights of Pythias will be held in Calvary Presbyterian church, Dr. Dunsmore delivering the Memorial sermon. The members of the order and the Pythian Sisters will march in a body from their hall to the church. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to attend this service.

The Parents-Teachers Club held their regular monthly meeting at the Public School building on Tuesday afternoon and the attendance was fairly good. After closing up the years business officers for the ensuing year were chosen as follows: Mrs. Chas. Irvine, President; Miss Arbutnof, secretary; Mrs. Crosby Davis, treasurer. The past year has been a most successful one and much good was accomplished. The future of the association looks most auspicious.

HOW the Enterprise is Growing:—Our representative in the Airie and Pedee districts in sending in a list of new subscribers this week, says:—"The Enterprise is well liked by all." Enclosed find another list of new subscribers as follows:—Cricket Bavens, C. E. Wilson, Samuel Gross, Homer Link, Thomas B. Ferguson, Herbert Parker, George Bronson, Arthur Chase, Bert Sloper and W. A. Womer. The Enterprise will be read in nearly every home in that section soon.

Mary E. Hanky died at her home in Caldwell, Idaho, May 22, 1918, was born in Wappello county, Iowa, 1867. She emigrated to Oregon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stansberry March 1, 1871. She was married to L. H. Hanky, December 24, 1915, in Pendleton, Oregon. She is survived by her husband, mother, son, sister and brother. Those present to her funeral were the bereaved husband, son and mother. The funeral of Mrs. Hanky was held at Caldwell on Friday afternoon, May 26th. There was a large number of friends and relatives in attendance. The Good Cheer Club wishes to extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and relatives.

A little show of Gravelly helps the Observation Officer through many a hard hour.

Advertisement for Real Gravelly Chewing Plug. Text: 'He Will Welcome a pouch of Real GRAVELLY Chewing Plug. Any gift from the folks back home means a lot to the boy. When you send him tobacco, let it be good tobacco—tobacco worth sending all that long way—the flat, compressed plug of Real Gravelly. Give any man a chew of Real Gravelly Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best! Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravelly, because a small chew of it lasts a long while. If you smoke a pipe, slice Gravelly with your knife and add a little to your smoking tobacco. It will give flavor—improve your smoke. SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELLY. Dealers all around here carry it in 10c pouches. A 3c stamp will put it into his hands in any Training Camp or Seaport of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c stamp will take it to him. P. B. GRAVELLY TOBACCO COMPANY, Danville, Va. The Patent Pouch keeps it Fresh and Clean and Good —It is not Real Gravelly without this Protection Seal. Established 1831.'

L. M. Compton was a Dallas visitor Wednesday.

Ralph Travis of Buena Vista, visited the home folks Sunday.

Mrs. Ostrom, of Monmouth, was calling in our city Monday.

Dr. Grider and family left today for their new home at Tillamook.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kerns, of Eugene, was a guest of her brother, I. Clagget, the first of the week.

T. J. McClain and wife, of Buena Vista, attended church services in this city Sunday morning.

E. K. PIASECKI, Lawyer, Dallas, Oregon. Probating of Wills and Settlement of Estates a Specialty. 6tf

Mrs. Crosby Davis went to Salem Tuesday morning and returned in the evening, being accompanied by her daughter-in-law formerly of Stayton.

J. F. Curie, who has been connected in newspaper circles in this city, for the past two years, left the first of the week for California, where he will remain indefinitely.

The Odd Fellows gave a reception one evening last week to one of its members, Howard House, who left for Camp Lewis, where he will be numbered among Uncle Sam's fighting boys.

Mrs. Clyde Ecker, who has been visiting in Texas for the past three or four months, which was her former home prior to coming to Oregon, returned home Saturday evening. She says she had a delightful trip.

Mrs. Percival and daughter Pearl left Sunday for Portland, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Percival has rented her home to G. Getchell, recently from Portland, whose family arrived last week.

Last week Dr. Dunsmore delivered a lecture at Rickreall, taking for his subject, "Egypt and the Holy Land." As the Doctor has traveled extensively in foreign lands, his discourse was no doubt highly instructive and entertaining.

Miss Lucile Craven, who has been teaching in the public schools at Hood River the past year finished her term last week and will remain home this summer. She will return to Hood River this fall having been retained to teach there the coming year.

Two more draft calls was made this week one for 41 men and one for 8 men respectfully. The first contingent of 41 will go to Camp Lewis and the other 8 will be picked men for mechanical training at Benson Polytechnical School, Portland. In the list of eight men, none were drawn from Independence, but in the list of 41 the following were drawn from this city William C. Kearns James C. Chamberlain and George Thomas Haas.

The S.S. Club held its monthly meeting at the pretty country home of Mrs. H. N. Mattison on Wednesday last. In two large living rooms were filled with the fragrance of roses beautiful perfect, pink roses, such as grow only in Oregon, and which blossomed from every nook and corner. After roll call, Mrs. Childs gave an interesting talk on "Women of the War." A part of the afternoon was spent in social talk, on the lawn under the immense fir trees, after which the hostess summoned her guests to lunch, Strawberries with the thick Jersey cream and cake—war cake—without frosting, with glasses of iced tea, a delicious cooling lunch, greatly appreciated by all on the hot afternoon. Guests of the club were Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Kutch and Mrs. Mary Irvine.

Marvin Richardson writes that he landed in France May 7th just one year from the day that he enlisted. He is in the army now, in one year's time having served in the Navy Marines and Army. He says France is a wonderful country and the scenery most beautiful.

Gerald Richardson, was in Falls City last week-end.

Chester Hollingsworth of La Pine, Oregon, was a guest of H. S. Wood and family this week.

Dr. Duganne, Dentist, Office over Independence National Bank.

Advertisement for Zerolene oil. Text: 'Experts Say "ZEROLENE IS BETTER" —because it holds better compression, gives better protection to the moving parts and deposits less carbon. Zerolene is the correct oil for all types of automobile engines—the correct oil for your automobile. Get our Lubrication Chart showing the correct consistency for your car. STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California) ZEROLENE The Standard Oil for Motor Cars'

J. W. DEMICK, (Special Agent) Independence, Oregon.

Advertisement for Eddy & Carbray blouses. Text: 'The Utmost in Blouse Value $2 Can Buy. THE WELWORTH offers the utmost in Blouse value at $2.00. It is the product of the finest and most efficient factory in America devoted to the making of Blouses, and is the result of a modern co-operative merchandising plan which eliminates all unnecessary expense in making and distribution. It made and sold in the usual way the WELWORTH would have to sell at a considerably higher price and so your savings are really substantial every time you buy one of these splendid fine blouses. WELWORTH BLOUSES ARE SOLD IN JUST ONE GOOD STORE IN EVERY CITY AND THEY ARE SOLD HERE EXCLUSIVELY. Eddy & Carbray THE STORE For NE'WTHINGS to WEAR.'

Advertisement for Johnson & Collins food products. Text: 'Quality First Is a Good Motto. It applies especially to all lines of Groceries. The best of everything is none too good for our hundreds of customers. Quality line of Staple and Fancy Groceries. Choice Teas, Coffees, Spices Fruits, Vegetables. Sugar cured, Salt and Canned Meats. Our line of Corn Meal, Rolled Oats, Oat Meal, Rye and Barley Flours and other wheatless mixtures will help meet the new government flour regulations. Food Products. Conserve your money as well as your food products. A dollar saved is a dollar earned. Pay Cash and Save Money. JOHNSON & COLLINS'

Advertisement for Johnson & Collins. Text: 'JOHNSON & COLLINS'

Advertisement for Oregon Power Co. Text: 'The sooner You Equip Your Home With Electricity. The sooner you will make it cosier, cheerier and more attractive. Modern electricians can wire your home quickly without disturbing you and without leaving any litter for you to clean up. Electricity Increases the Value of Your Home. The home wired for Electricity is a BETTER home. It is a MORE VALUABLE home. Electric wiring makes old houses new. OREGON POWER CO.'