Dallas, Oegon June 23
To the Editor of the Independence Enterprise:

Enclosed you will find money for which please renew my subscription to the Enterprise. I am sending the Enterprise to my son Dewey, who is now serving in the U. S. navy—says he enjoys reading the Enterprise very much. Mrs. C. C. Broadwell.

Loran Jordon and Miss Clara Tice were united in marriage at the court house in Dallas on Monday by Hon. Judge Belt. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jordon of this city, and the bride is a young lady quite popular among her acquaintances. They will make this city their home. The Enterprise wishes for them a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Bert Hilke says he is going to raise enough wheat to feed all the Polk county boys for another year on his new farm, if it takes them another year to whip the Kaiser, and if they need him, he is ready to let his wife run the farm. He will go any day to do his part for the country that has done as much for him as the good old U. S. has.

The women are being employed in the mill and yards of the Willamette Valley Lumber Company in Dallas. They are doing the regular work of men, piling lumber and unloading trucks. One is employed as an assistant in operating a rip saw. Mr. Gerlinger, manager of the company, says the women are making the first class hands, and, that while their employment was in the nature of an experiment, it is proving satisfactory and others will doubtless be engaged.

We understand William Addison's large farm has been sold this week to Bert Hilke. This is one of the finest farms in Polk county. Mr. Addison has had many people wanting this farm for some time, but did not care to sell, as it is a money maker, but help has been hard to get, so concluded to sell and retire from farm life. Mr. Hilke is one of Polk county's best farmers, and is lucky to get hold of such a fine farm. He will take charge September first. This will give Mr. Addison time to dispose of this years crop and his implements and stock. We are glad to learn that he will remain with us, as he is well known here and always ready to do his part to help build up the city and country. We did not learn the price he received for his farm, but understand it brought around $40,000. The sale was negotiated through the Independence Realty Company of this city.

James Hanna, was in town for the week-end, returning Monday to his home in Portland.
