The two store fronts in the business building owned by P. M. Kirkland, one being occupied by Conkey & Walker grocery store and the other at present being vacant, are being torn out and two new modern fronts will replace them. P. M. believes in keeping up-to-date and will have two store room buildings when completed that will be a credit to the town. While the building is undergoing the changes mentioned, Conkey & Walker will occupy a portion of the building known as the Enterprise block for their grocery stock.

Tuesday morning in the Marion county court at Salem there was called for trial a case that involves the possession of a diamond ring and some other jewelry. The case was, entitled Warner F. Cropp, Administra tor of the estate of Dr. C. F. Cropp, against Jane Doe Olson. In his complaint he alleges that he is entitled to possession of one gold ring with a diamond set and one gold watch and chain, the same being taken, he alleges from the person of C. F. Cropp just prior to his death January 5th, 1919. An answer was filed to the complaint in which the allegation is made that Dr. Cropp gave the ring and watch to the party now in posses-sion on December 28, 1918, when he was ill and in grave danger. At the time of his death, Dr. Cropp was in the medical service with the rank of S lieutenant.
