

LOCAL OPENINGS

NEW SHADES, Curtains, MOORE & WALKER.

Brothers bought a new motor last week to expedite work.

Walker of Eugene, was an day visitor with the home other relatives.

en Davis and little daughter to Portland Tuesday for a visit with her father.

anne's father, whose home and, is said to be seriously Duganne is nursing him.

ary Fluke is entertaining sister of Kelso, Washington, who arrived Monday evening.

PER the old walls and have me. We have a good line selection. MOORE & WALKER.

Hoffman believes in keeping so last week purchased a tractor to lessen his work on

S. Cooper, Jr., who was Tacoma, Washington, recent illness of her sister, returned Monday evening.

Flowers, of Euroke, California, visiting his sister Mrs. Carbray, having arrived the week. He will leave today for Washington, to make his short visit.

White and wife left Monday for South Dakota, where they will be for about six months with the parents of Mrs. White relatives. Mr. White will his trade while in that state, and return this fall and make their home again.

ty of friends called upon Mr. Charles Smith last Saturday to celebrate with them tenth wedding anniversary. stepped around like a 10 year and had their been a fiddler hand, the guests might have the extra fine stepping by Unley.

W. J. Clark entertained a number of cards last Thursday Those present were Mr. Huggestein, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. George Carbray, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Sullivan and Mrs. H. A. Childs luncheon was served and a pleasant evening was spent.

and Barnard, Ford dealers, city are in receipt of a letter from Detroit over the signature of Ford, president of the Ford company which clears up the conflicting rumors in the relative to the possibility of manufacture of a new car, still price than the present Ford. Ford says in part: "A may be manufactured but as it will be manufactured we in position to say, except that now a new car could not be designed, tested out, manufactured and marketed in quantities in three or four years time."

W. Richardson and son leave the coming week for where she will join her husband make that city their future household goods will be the first of the week. Mrs. son, who has been furnishing for some time at the Isis her position last week, and her has been given the place. her as a musician, ranks best and her music will be missed. Miss Baker is a very young lady of much musical and as a singer she has one of the sweetest voices of any young the county.

Price, of Hoskins, was in the day on business. He is considering of establishing a wood yard fall providing he can secure a location for that purpose. very sanguine over the outlook and believes that in time we will have a planing mill as well as a saw mill here. He says that the Selitz railway contemplated entering into the S. P. depot summer and until such time, he locate a yard permanently of great magnitude, but expects to locate this fall and later secure a tract of land nearer the Valley railway.

PUT LINOLEUM on the floor and save your back. MOORE & WALKER.

J. F. Alphin, of Cabtree, was in the city the first of the week on business and pleasure.

Sherm Hays who has been working at Hoskins, returned home the first of the week.

A smooth check forger made his appearance in this city recently and got away without being apprehended. Moral: "Do not accept strangers' checks."

M. Garmire, of the Airlie neighborhood, was in the city Tuesday. His wife took the train here for Oregon City to make her daughter a visit.

Mrs. H. A. Childs left for Corvallis Monday after a week spent with her daughter Mrs. W. J. Clark. She will return the latter part of May and make this city her home.

There will be preaching service at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Arbrey Wlaon of Portland, will occupy the pulpit. All are cordially invited. Sunday School at usual hour in morning.

One of the most enjoyable sessions of the Needlecraft was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Will Walker. At the close of the afternoon hours, the hostess served refreshments.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Calvary Presbyterian church, Dr. Dunsmore last week on the topic, "The Greatest Thing in The World." Sunday School at 10 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

The Enterprise will reach its Forty third year next week and continues to expand in every department. Its stability is known far and wide, and locally is the favorite newspaper in the city and country adjacent.

Valley Lodge No. 42 I. O. O. F. and Cloverleaf Rebekah Lodge No. 56 will celebrate the One Hundredth Anniversary of the founding of the order in the U. S. on Thursday evening April 24th in the Odd Fellows Hall. All Odd Fellows and Rebekah's are invited. A good social time expected. NEW SPRING designs in wall paper MOORE & WALKER.

THE accuracy of your examination for glasses depends on the skill and experience of the specialist and his ability to use correctly scientific instruments. Dr. Thompson offers you the benefit of many years experience and practical knowledge, which assures you of perfect fitting glasses. Consult him about your eyes on his next visit here. Tuesday, April 8th at Hotel Beaver.

Attorney B. F. Swope sustained a fractured rib while in the act of catching chickens to clip their wings. He says he was in his own hen roost and was quite familiar with its surroundings, but the accident he attributes to his lack of speed in rounding up the hens, who were much better adapted to aerial flights than he was.

The following are among those summoned for jury service for the April term of the circuit court for Polk county: M. R. Black, Independence; W. J. Clark, Independence; T. R. Crook, Monmouth; W. I. Morrison, Independence; H. S. Portwood, Monmouth; Cleve Prather, Buena Vista; J. H. Powell, Monmouth, G. N. Sloper Independence; E. M. Young, Independence.

Huston & Huston, butchers, have decided to quit their C. street meat market, known as the Sanitary Meat Market. They started in business two months ago and after a trial say that Independence is a poor town for two shops. They might solve the problem how two print shops exist here. Printers buy but very little meat—crackers seems to be their main diet. That may account for the reason that two meat shops cannot survive in Independence.

Elsewhere in this issue of the Enterprise will be found the new time card of the Valley & Selitz railway, which became operative Sunday. The petition circulated by the citizens of Independence and farmers in the Kings Valley neighborhood has had some effect and this city will be benefited much by the more frequent arrival of trains. According to the new time card two trains will arrive and two depart every day excepting Sundays. There will be freight service on Tuesday and Saturday. Senator Chamberlain has been petitioned by the citizens and business men to have the government to establish a mail pouch service on this new road, in order that mail may be received every

There will services in the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. The Sunday School will meet at 10 o'clock a. m. Everybody invited to attend the services.

Mrs. Swope and Carbray entertained at a six o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Johnson who are soon to leave our city for Eastern Oregon.

L. C. Dennison has sold his seventy-five acre farm five miles northwest of Independence to Seattle people who take possession at once. The reported price is $2,000.00. This deal was made by Kinney & Company of Corvallis real estate agents.

Lieutenant Bertha Campbell who was with the Canadian Relief Corps and who has seen one year of service in France, will speak this evening at the Salem Public Library. She will tell of her experience in base hospital work in France.

Clint Moore, our wide-a-wake and hustling furniture dealer, was notified last week of his appointment as District Grand Chancellor of the K. of P. lodge for the fifteenth district of Oregon, which comprises Salem, Silverton, Independence, Dallas, Aurora, Hubbard and Falls City. Good for Clint.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. J. Clark extended her hospitality to the members of the S. S. Club. The most of the afternoon was spent in their usual program after which the hostess served a light luncheon. A feature on the program of the club was several violin solos by Crosby Davis and Horace Clark.

"Yes, I tried it, but I went back to Royal."

This is the experience of most women who have been tempted to try so-called cheaper baking powders which almost always contain alum and often leave a bitter taste.

Royal Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

Made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes

Royal Contains No Alum—
Leaves No Bitter Taste

Extra

Portland Cloak and Suit Co.
Court & Commercial St.
(Old White Corner Building)

Extra

One hundred new Georgette Waists, white, flesh and Bisque color, made to sell at $5.50

Fifty Taffeta and Messaline Silk Dresses' various new styles and colors. Equal to $18.00 values.

$3.75

We are exclusive Salem Agents for Georgette "Arrow" Blouses, $5.75 to $10.00

$12.75

New Suits, Coats, Dolmans Caps and Dresses
That Tell the Story of Spring Fashions

The authentic Spring Modes are now assembled in abundance, showing an unusual ornamentation and novelty of styles. Yet to be well dressed need not mean to be expensively dressed as is shown in the Spring display of Salem's greatest Women's Apparel Store.

Suits for Women and Misses $32.50

New Coats, Capes and Dolmans

In a Notable Display

New Coats

For all occasions in the most desirable fabrics, such as tricotine, gabardine, serge, velour, covert, bolivia and mixtures. Stylish belted models, loose styles and tailored effects; some with plaited backs. Prices range $15.00 up to

$65.00

New Capes

And Dolmans—every new and desirable style in represented in this great showing Capes with coats fronts, belts and pockets—Capes with draped and straightline effects—some with large shawl collars. Many are trimmed with braids and buttons. All the wanted fabrics. Priced

$15 to $55

Women and Misses Coats $25.00

Special attention directed to a group of utility and dress coats in excellent materials and colors on sale Monday. Special

$25.00

Supremacy of fine tailoring and perfection of tailoring is nowhere better illustrated than in these smart models. The materials are excellent, even to the novelly applied buttons and braid trimming, some with jaunty yestees.

Semi-fitting styles, box-coats, Russian blouse effects and plain modes materials are serges tricotines, poret twill, gabardine and mixtures

Better suits, including belted semi-belted, box blouse and close-fitted styles, serges, gabardine, tricotine and mixtures rimmed with braid and buttons.

$35.37, $37.50, $39.50 and $42.50

A Galaxy of Spring NEW Blouses.
BY THEIR NECKS YE SHALL Know Them

Most characteristic of the new blouses is the round neckline, but it never becomes monotonous by repetition—it is always set off in a variety of charming ways. Blouses of this kind fasten in back or side front, leaving a front panel, some decorated in beads, embroidery, pin tucks etc.

New Arrivals of Arrow Waists
In Georgette crepe will grace our displays all next week. Liberty red, overseas blue, flesh, Esque and white blouses, will be shown on Monday. Prices range from $5.75 and Upward. Other Georgette and irepe de chine waists, various styles and colors. Specially priced. $2.95, $3.75, $4.50 and $5.00