To countless other thousands of these boys returning home maimed and broken the war will still go on; they will be paying the price every day, during the remainder of their lives. Can we who stayed at home carelessly and thoughtlessly assume the "war is over" attitude until our balance of account is paid—until we have redeemed our pledge—to bear the final cost no matter what its amount?

School Notes

The class editors of the high school have been so busy lately they have failed to report any high school items.

Negotiations are under way to cure Deacon Dubbs to appear at the Isis theatre some time in the near future. He will appear under the auspices of the Senior class.

Dean Faucett, of the Oregon Agricultural College, visited the school Wednesday afternoon and spoke to the students very delightfully upon the subject, "The Power of an Ideal." She appealed to every boy and girl to form high ideals, not only to form them but to strive to reach them. Her thirty minutes talk was to the point, and each student after hearing it, went back to his studies with a stronger determination to master them.

Last Friday night the High School building was the scene of a very interesting tennis rally. Everyone turned for a few hours of pleasure judging from appearances, they had them.

Lantern slides and musical numbers were held in the Assembly room interspersed with stunts by the classes. The first stunt announced by tremendous noise in the hall was given by the freshmen and sophomores, as they surely did put on something at least the bride and groom did in the soph stunt. Next came the hit of the evening. It sure was some hit all of us. The freshmen made their name, but they more than paid their part in the village choir. The audience did not appreciate the harmony that was rendered from the group of selected voices, led by the most competent leader, Ross Krueses. The sopranos, of course, led the choir, they were Thelma Williams and Kathleen Skinner. Everything would have gone off dandy, but Mr. Tavenner tried to show them off as turned on the spot light which caused sister Skinner to lose her glasses and throw the whole thing in the ditch.

After the program had been given a number of the students slipped into the kitchen and started the cats along to their happy hunting grounds, while the rest enjoyed the game on the lower floor. After the cats were over the crowd dispersed. We had a good time and hope to have another one soon.

A very interesting tennis tournament was played between the classes of the High School during the week beginning April 6th. The games were played at the public school grounds. The winners of the different events are as follows:

- Boys singles—Charles Calbreath Senior.
- Boys doubles—DeLoss Etheridge, freshman, Dean Craven.
- Mixed doubles—Charles Calbreath Senior, Norma Calbreath.
- Girls singles—Norma Calbreath senior.
- Girls doubles—Whonna Wood, Sophomores, Helen Jones.

The Senior class was considered the winners and awarded a prize. The others were given blue ribbons which were attached small wooden rackets bearing the name of the event they had won.
