Medicines on sweets off, but pour coffee to flavor the sugar. Dean Walker and wife, of Eugene, were over Sunday visitors with the parents of Mr. Walker's. Mrs. Peter Kurre left Sunday for Portland where she will make her future home with her daughter. Mrs. Glen Newton and little child from Portland, are here this week making relatives a visit. Glen is keeping the "home fires" burning. Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. J. S. Bohanan, Mrs. Hart are delegates to the Ladies of Woodcraft convention held at McMinnville Thursday and Friday. Tom Hart and wife have again taken up their residence in this city after an absence of several months. Mr. Hart was employed for many months in the shipyards, but says that each day finds fewer men employed. Although gassed at Chateau Thierry, and spent a whole summer in a hospital and when again in the service was shot in both arms, Ray G. Williams, son of J. J. Williams on Route one, is still anxious to see more service. Hence he has re-enlisted in the aviation service. Salem is planning on having one of the biggest Fourth of July celebrations ever known. Airplanes, horse racing and other amusements will be furnished and not a moment will be idle during the entire day. A great many from this section will go.

Harold Finch, of Portland, spent Sunday with friends in the city. Mrs. Frank Smith enjoyed a weekend visit from her sister Miss Rhe-walt of Portland. On Friday evening Misses Laura Pettit and Hazel Shepard of Salem were calling at the Chown home. Miss Lola Morgan is again at her home having just finished a very successful school term at Cherry Grove. We learn that two gentlemen from Portland were here several days this week contemplating putting in a second bakery. It is reported there are a few young couples in Independence seriously contemplating the June bride proposition. Mrs. James Ferris and children departed on Sunday for Oregon City, where she joined her husband and will make that city their home. Marshall Parker moved this week into the Mrs. Cheppell property on C. street near the public school. He says that he wanted more sunshine. James Hanna and August Sperling and brother of Portland, were here Decoration Day. They all have the appearance of "being pretty well fed" in Portland. Mrs. Dr. Horn and little son, after a most delightful week spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bohanan left Sunday evening for her home at Stayton. Wm. McKinney is another soldier boy from over seas who arrived here this week. He looks every inch a soldier and says he never had better health in all his life. Hugh Miller arrived here from San Francisco Decoration Day on a fifteen furlough most of which time he will spend with his mother, Mrs. F. O. Parker. He is a first-class radio man. H. Rowe, of Stayton, was in town Friday and Saturday. He was formerly in the jewelry business here, and still has a desire to return to the old town—says there is no place quite as good. Miss McLaughlin, returned to Portland Saturday where she will resume her duties as a nurse at the Good Samaritan hospital, having been at the home of her parents since January recuperating from a siege of the flu. Cecil Swope, of Oregon City, and his cousin Oliver Oglesby, who has just recently been discharged from service in the navy, were here Saturday at the home of Attorney and Mrs. B. F. Swope. They returned Sunday evening. C. W. Niemeyer, of Salem, will open up a real estate office in this city and will make his headquarters with a man in charge of the office in the Beaver hotel. He is quite a hustler and any business intrusted to him, will have his careful attention. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chown and son Ernest had for their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lichty of Buena Vista, Mrs. V. W. Prather of McMinnville, Miss Weottin McCalum of Su-ver, Miss Hazel Shephard, Lavern Shephard of Salem, and Almer Caspell of Oregon City. Captain Conrad Stafrin of Dallas was appointed adjutant-general of the National Guard of Oregon to succeed Colonel John L. May who resigned recently to return to his service with the Southern Pacific Company. Governor Oletz announced that the appointment will become effective within a few days. We take pleasure in informing the public that we have entered into a contract with Sherman Clay & Company to handle their line of Pianos and pianolas. In a few days we will have a line of instruments on the floor and extend an invitation to you to call and inspect our line. Moore & Walker, Complete Home Furnishers. Among the Willamette Valley boys who have been selected from O. A. C. for the summer training camp at the Presidio we notice the name of Wendling Denlinger of this city. This camp will be maintained from June 21 to August 2. A feature of this year's program will be the rifle teams that are to be sent to Caldwell, N. J. at the close of the training course to enter the national marksmen contests. Boys who qualify for this honor will be sent at the expense of the government.

Abbe Becker sailed from New York on May 29th for France. Dean Walker and wife, of Eugene, were over Sunday visitors with the parents of Mr. Walker's. Mrs. Peter Kurre left Sunday for Portland where she will make her future home with her daughter. Mrs. Glen Newton and little child from Portland, are here this week making relatives a visit. STOUT MEN

You'r Not Hard to Fit

There's no reason why a man should be ashamed of being a little stout; but it's a good reason for being particular about the fit of your clothes.

The slender lines of the new models are not exactly the thing for such figures—but Bishop has made all this easy for you—by having the right shapes and in all sizes are reliable and have only the best.

They are of the famous Bishop Quality and are of the Virgin Wool—that means direct from the Sheep into your new suit. It's ready for you; you should be ready for it, as no doubt you are contemplating buying a new suit in the next few days—why purchase inferior clothes when Bishop's and many patterns.
