

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

A. Childs was on the sick bed for several days.

Margaret Burroughs will attend the Oregon State Normal this week.

Book attended a conference at the Methodist church in Salem of the week.

A. A. Willis, of Portland, was in town this week looking after the west of Independence.

Richardson purchased a farm in Marion county and is moving his household into his new acquisition. His wife left today.

S. Manufacturing Company leased the building formerly occupied by the Monitor on C. The "junk" pile left by Hurst moved into the old Isis building.

Johnson, who about four or five years ago worked in a bakery, moved to North Dakota, returned last week and says he will remain here until Gabriel is born. He is working in a bakery.

Mrs. Ed Owens is clerking in the Eddy & Carbray store.

Frank Williamson of Airle, was in town a few days this week.

Mrs. Crosby Davis and daughter-in-law Mrs. Durrell Davis, were Salem visitors Tuesday.

Mr. Tubond, west of Airle, was a guest of C. B. Smith and wife Monday. Mr. Tubond expects to build a new house on his farm this fall.

Thomas Smith and family, of Airle, and Homer Smith and family of Portland, are visiting this week with their parents Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith.

Tom Smith returned from Southern Oregon last week with a fine 160 pound buck to his credit. Tom and his brother Homer are over in Marion county this week on a China pheasant hunt.

The Independence Realty Company report the sale of the C. E. Frazier home on Sag street to John Seaton, of Seattle. Mr. Seaton may move to Independence in the near future to make his home here.

F. E. Hennigan and family are now settled in their new home at the south end of 7th street which they bought of Wm. Manning a short time ago. Mr. Manning has moved to Monmouth for the winter.

Dr. E. A. Mann, of Portland, was an over Sunday visitor at the J. S. Cooper home.

Mrs. H. L. Heath, of Manila, P. I., is a guest at the J. S. Cooper home, arriving here last week.

Dick Garard was kicked by a horse Monday, but other than a bruised eye was not seriously hurt.

Clint Baun is now a partner in the livery business with his brother Irvin, the firm will be known as Baun Brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kutche drove to McMinnville Sunday, being summoned there by the death of Mr. Kutche's father.

The comptroller of the currency has ruled that a man's place of residence is where his wife lives. Lots of men must live at the moving picture shows.

Miss Frances Eaton departed Monday for Los Angeles, California, where she expects to make her future home, her mother having decided to make that city her home.

Mrs. Flowers and little child, of Seattle, Washington, arrived here on Sunday and will spend several weeks at the home of her sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Carbray.

Houses in Independence are rapidly filling up and rents will advance no doubt, as houses are becoming fewer every day. Desirable property can not be rented at any price now.

H. Hirschberg took in the closing day of the state fair and says that the exhibits excelled any year in the history of the fair. He has attended nearly every fair for over twenty years.

A bull got crazy mad at two young ladies recently who displayed red silk stockings while going through a field near Independence. Any bull who hasn't any more sense than that deserves butchering.

J. H. Moran, of Monmouth, called at the Enterprise office Monday and reported the transaction of one of the biggest real estate deals in a long time, that of the Frank Hilke 86-acre dairy ranch to a Mr. Beckin of Salem, consideration $15,000. Mr. Hilke takes as part payment a house and lot in Salem valued at $3500.00, and expects to make his home there.

H. Brandt had a fine hog killed by parties passing through here on Saturday evening in a large auto truck. The culprits shot the hog in the road and loaded it in their truck going toward Portland. The animal weighed over 300 pounds. Mrs. Underhill heard the shots and the animal squeal and later Mr. Underhill went to learn the cause, found blood where the animal had been killed.

District Attorney Piascki, of Dallas, Secretary of the Dallas National Farm Loan Association, will be at the Hotel Beaver on Monday October 13th from one to six o'clock, where anyone interested in securing a loan may file their application or get such information as they desire relative to securing a Federal Farm Loan. Don't fail to make a notation of his coming visit to this city.

We hear considerable discussion in regard to the time when the clocks will again be set back, some contending that it is the first of October and some the last. Most people know that the law has been repealed and they are anxious to have the old time established, but they will have to wait until the 26th of October. This is the last Sunday in the month and that is the date fixed by law to change the time.

McLain & Barnard, known as Mac-Bar Company, dealers in automobiles and Fordson tractors, as well as being engaged in all mechanical work, are fast becoming the busiest place in the city. Their machine shop work and sale department is fast increasing until another man will soon have to be added to the force to care for the trade. They have sold a large number of Fordson tractors this season and demands for this well known tractor are being received by them every day. Those who will do their farming the coming fall and spring with the use of a Fordson in this vicinity are: Ed Rogers, C. O. Hamcinty, Mr. Kester, Sam McKee, Paul Riley, Ralph Dodson, Fred Smith, H. F. Rideout, Harry Dixon, Captain Stidd, Jack Green, R. Flishman, Percy Lewis. The waiting list is growing daily.

CLAMS

CHAS. EWING, Prop.

THE PACIFIC MARKET
Newport, Oregon

Prompt and Careful Attention Given to Mail Orders

OYSTERS

Independence Realty Company made a deal with L. W. Seggell, Thursday for 20-acre Joe Hubbard farm south of town. Mr. Seggell and wife took possession at once and expect to set the place to berries.

Olson and Miss Lillia C. were quietly married in Washington, last week. They have many friends here and they are all well. Joe is a world class and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Olson. They will make their home in Washington.

Mattison, who is employed by Oregon Gravel Company, was injured Tuesday when at work with machinery, his clothing became entangled in the shafting, and he was in the air and breaking bones bruising him badly. He was removed to his home quickly and attention given him. He is recovering today.

Regular services will be resumed at Calvary Presbyterian church next Sunday October 5th when Dr. Dunsmore will preach at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this morning services. No service in the evening.

Attorney Claud Barrick and Miss Fay Townsend were married in Salem Saturday. Dr. Dunsmore of this city officiating. The bride is a Salem girl and quite well known in that city. Mr. Barrick expects to make his home near Portland, and for the present is not practicing law, but is engaged as head mechanic in a large mill near Portland. They have the best wishes of a host of friends here.

Independence will soon adopt as its slogan, "Own your own home, or sleep in the street." Houses to rent are getting fewer every day.

Will Mattison and wife, of Astoria, were weekend visitors at the home of his brother Hank and wife.

YOUR CHANCE

FORD TOURING CAR, Demontable Rims, Mileometer Inst. Board, Foot Throttle, cut out—

$475.00

SPORT; Good condition, Good Tires

$485.00

FORD TOURING CAR, Tires entirely New

$365.00

MAC-BAR CO.

Headache Removes are Dr. Thompson's perfect fitting glasses. Watch for date of next visit.

Three Car Loads of Fordsons Are Scheduled for Independence This Fall

THE FIRST TO COME IN ABOUT TWO WEEKS—THE SECOND SHORTLY AFTER

IT PAYS TO WAIT FOR FORDSON QUALITY

The man who waits for a Fordson will fast overtake and pass the man who buys a substitute. Experience has PROVEN this—Profit by the experiences of others.

QUALITY AND SERVICE SPELL EFFICIENCY.

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED Polk county Farmers are now using Fordson's Tractors—the Fordson is a high-class clean-cut piece of machinery—it could double in price and not find a worthy competitor.

We Are Sold Out on Fordson's

BUT PLACE YOUR ORDER AT ONCE.

McLean & Barnard, Props.

Independence, Oregon.

HOW IS HE?

HAVE you a healthy, glowing growing boy?

THEN BISHOP has the clothes for him—sold at moderate prices you must consider the service they are to give.

DON'T measure his clothes by "Man's Standard"—but "Boy's Standard."—There's a difference.

HE is on the "go" from morning until night, doing many strenuous things. BISHOP'S clothes are made for hard usage.

MADE in the "DOUBLE KNEE" and "DOUBLE SEAT" made honestly throughout, just like Dad's.

IN waist-line models, and the BELTED SUITS are popular.

THEY come in many colors, all are strictly of BISHOP'S standard—The best made.—Priced $10.00 to $22.00.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING FOR THE BOY'S NEEDS.

EVENTUALLY EVERY FAMILY IN POLK AND MARION COUNTIES A PATRON.

SALEM Woolen Mills Store