

James Hanna and family spent Sunday with relatives here.

C. A. McLaughlin has had the painters brush applied to his residence, which gives it an up-to-date appearance. He always wants things in tip-top style.

Glenn Huntley has arrived here after serving in the United States navy for a period of over 22 months. Lynn crossed the Atlantic many times in transferring troops and was on one of the largest ships in the navy. He has encountered a number of the German submarines and had several plane calls. He is like most all returned soldiers who have actually seen service, glad to join the ranks of the civilian population in his home state and do his bit in whatever the future has in store. He will work at his trade as a barber for E. Townsend.

This coming Sunday there will be a one day Sunday school Workers Institute at Bickreall. It will be presided over by A. L. Gilmore, who is president of the Polk County Sunday School Association. At 10 o'clock Sunday the regular Sunday School will be opened with the combined schools of Bickreall, West Salem, Summit, Zens and any other of the schools of that district in the county. Mr. Gilmore will have charge of the adult class, Miss Carson and Miss Hill, both members of the Normal school faculty, will have charge of the inter-mediate and primary classes. Following the Sunday School, Mr. Gilmore will address the congregation on the subject of "The King's Business." Between the hours of 12 and 1:30 there will be a basket dinner. Visitors being requested to bring their dinner with them. At 1:30 there will be a Sunday School Workers Conference. Following this from 2 to 2:45 there will be a question hour and the work of the day will close with an address by Rev. McKenzie, of Dallas. It is requested that as many of the local Sunday School workers as can, try to join with the Bickreall people in making the afternoon service a success.

George Wood was a business visitor in Portland Saturday.

BISHOP'S Fabric Shirts, can't be beat for warmth and style—try one.

Dr. L. L. Hewitt and family of Portland, were Sunday visitors in the city.

Mrs. Durrell Davis went to Corvallis Sunday for a two weeks visit with relatives.

Mrs. Frances Brown returned home Saturday after a two weeks visit in Portland with her mother.

Mr. Fitzgerald and wife went to Portland Saturday to remain several days with their two sons.

W. H. Huff will sever his connection with the Craven & Huff Hardware Company and is busy crating his household goods to be shipped to Spokane, Washington, which city he will make his future home. Mr. Huff has been identified with the business interests of Independence for the past nine years and was generally liked by all, being a gentleman of pleasing personality as well as an enterprising and broad minded business man. He will travel out of Spokane for the Ware Hardware Company of San Francisco. The business here will be continued under the old firm name for the present.

A special city election was held on Monday in Monmouth for the purpose of getting an expression from the people on the question of amending the charter to permit the establishment of a water system. The vote was 137 for the change and only 6 against it. The plan in detail is to bring water from a mountain stream nine miles distant in the coast range of mountains. The city has filed and obtained a water right on a stream known as Teal creek. It will be carried from there in steel pipes and conducted to the reservoir, which the city already. This water is ample in abundance, pure in its quality, and the source is sufficiently high to insure ample fire protection by the gravity system.

Mrs. W. F. Lindley, of Portland, is visiting her daughter Mrs. James Collins.

Frank Kirkland who a few weeks ago returned from overseas after a year's service, arrived home this week on a short visit to his parents after which he expects to leave for the middle west.

Two o'clock Sunday morning, October 26th is the official time set for returning to "old time." Before retiring tomorrow evening we advise all Enterprise readers to move their clock back to the correct time.

A mass meeting of the citizens of this city was held on Wednesday evening at the opera house for the purpose of formulating plans and a program for celebrating Armistice Day on November 11th. The meeting was well attended and all seemed to be highly in favor of the proposition. Committees were appointed and the matter is well under way. A complete program will be printed in the Enterprise soon.

In the daily dispatches of Thursday we notice that Judson P. Bowman was killed by a train on October 21st near Leland, Oregon. He was a veteran of the Civil war and a former resident of Independence and quite well known among the old soldiers. In 1864 he enlisted in Company A, First Oregon Volunteers Infantry and served until the close of the war. He was unmarried.

The home of Frances Brown north of town was entered Saturday forenoon by means of breaking a window glass and raising the window. The thief went into all the rooms and a systematic search of everything made but finding no loose money in the house, satisfied himself by taking Mr. Brown's suit of clothes and several lodge pins. A suspicious looking individual was arrested and lodged in jail, but no evidence could be found against him that would in any way implicate him as the thief, and he was permitted to go his way Monday.

A marriage license was issued last week by the County Clerk to two parties with matrimonial intentions and later the happy twain went to Squire Baker's and asked him to perform the rights of his official duties. The Squire had the couple wait until he could locate a bootblack to shine his shoes and go home to dress up for the unexpected occasion. When he returned the bride was looking her best but the groom was sort of nervous, for fear the Squire would not return, however, the stage was set, and the happy couple joined in holy wedlock. This was the Squire's first matrimonial or rather "hitching up" experience, and the ceremony went so nicely that one would think he was an old hand at the business.

Independence will be the mecca for a jolly time commencing Wednesday October 29th and continuing until November 1st, when the Arnold Amusement Company will pitch their shows and the public will be privileged to have a merry time for several days. The attractions will be staged under the auspices of Company K., N. O. G., of this city and the shows and other amusements for both old and young, will be of the highest order. Captain Stodd and his able officers are bending every effort to maintain the highest standard in efficiency in military circles and it is their object in providing these entertainments to derive a fund with a view of later getting an appropriation from the state to erect an armory in this city, as the present quarters is inadequate. We hope our people will patronize these shows liberally as well as give the children an opportunity to enjoy themselves. There will be merry-go-rounds, Ferris Wheel and other attractions in abundance for both young and old.

WOOD! WOOD! WOOD! Slab wood may be purchased from the Siletz Lumber & Logging Company, whose mill is now in operation at Hoskins. By placing your order with the Independence Enterprise, delivery will be made promptly within a few days. Order now and save paying more this winter. Wood is dry.

SILETZ LUMBER & LOGGING CO. Office in Enterprise Building. Don't forget to see the Pythian Sisters ghost marriage. You miss the best laugh of your life. Come and see who will get the ring, thimble and coin when the wedding cake is cut.

"Here's a Friendly Tip"

says the Good Judge

Men who know tobacco, chew the best without its costing them any more. They take a little chew and it's amazing how the good taste stays in a rich, high grade chewing tobacco. For lasting tobacco satisfaction, there's nothing like a small chew of that rich-tasting tobacco.
