Moths in Closets.

Get a wide-mouthed bottle, three ounce will do, and fill it with oil of mirbane. Leave the cork out of the bottle and place it in the trunk or closet in such position that it will not tip over. The fumes are very poisonous to insects. For a very large closet use a larger bottle and larger amount of oil. Renew the oil when needed. Sprinkle heavy blankets, quilts, etc., with the oil of mirbane before packing away.

Brushes were probably invented much later than the comb, but the mirror, the one toilet article without which woman could not exist, must date from a very early period. Perhaps a clear pool allowed curious woman a first view of her face, though we must say that she is not the only vain creature to exist, for a certain gentleman named Narcissus gazed at his reflection in the still water, and gazing fell so in love with his beauty that he pined away and died.

Well No. 1 we are now drilling and are down 1100 feet, with every indication of oil. We have struck one million feet of gas per day at 373 feet, which proves definitely that we have a close structure.

Charles C. Coulter, Denver Geologist, says: "The greatest oil reservoirs have not as yet been tapped. When they are they will surprise the whole world."

A. C. Boyle, Jr., P. H. D., head of the School of Mines of Colorado, and consulting Geologist, has passed upon this property.

Give Little Folks Allowance.

Instead of giving the little folks money in haphazard fashion and when they tease for it, let them have a stated sum each week, and then insist upon their keeping an account of what is done with every penny of it.—Carl Marshall in the Thrift Magazine.

Thirty-Two Varieties.

The Bank of England has 32 different methods of detecting forged banknotes.

All the present breeds of sheep are probably descended from the Moufflon, the European wild breed. The other leading wild breeds are the Argali of central Asia, and the Bighorn of the Rocky mountains in America; but it is doubtful if any domesticated varieties have been evolved from these. All the recently opened countries have been stocked from Europe, and nearly all from English breeds, with the exception of the Spanish merino.
