

LOCAL OPENINGS

William Beckin was on the sick list this week.

When you think of trunks, think of us—Moore & Walker.

Mrs. H. A. Childs is visiting her daughter in Dallas this week.

We will sell you a Piano on very easy terms. Moore & Walker.

Rents in Independence are steadily advancing as houses are getting as scarce as "hen's teeth" for rental purposes.

Elmer Paddock was here several days this week. He has a position with a railroad out of Seattle as fireman.

H. Hirschberg left last week on a business trip to California that will claim his attention in that state for several weeks.

W. J. Clark and James Winters were awarded the contract this week for the delivery of sixty car loads of slab wood for the Oregon State Normal.

Frank Kirkland arrived here last Friday from Cleveland, Ohio, being summoned on account of the death of his father. He will remain here for several weeks when he expects to return to his eastern home.

The Parent-Teachers Club met at the public school building on Tuesday afternoon, the meeting was to have been held last week, but owing to other matters arising, was postponed. The attendance was quite large and the program very good. President Ackerman of the State Normal gave an interesting talk as well as explained the merits of the proposed Millage Bill which the voters of Oregon will vote upon this coming spring election. The orchestra rendered several selections that was pleasing. The topic for discussion was "Obedience" to which a number responded.

J. W. Bewley is quite sick at his home on Sixth street.

$630 will buy a 9x12 feet Matting Rug at Moore & Walker. Just the Rug for the bedroom.

The Mrs. Dickson property occupied by Miss Boughey, on Fifth street, was sold last week to Rey Sandboun, who will take possession the 10th of April.

The O. A. Macy residence property on G. street occupied by Miss Arbuthnot, was sold this week to Mr. Juston, possession to be given the first of the month.

A new Ford story was sprung last week, that proved to be a mighty good advertisement—shows that the people read the Enterprise. Get your ads in early if you are a wide-awake business man and avoid the rush.

The annual convention of the Polk County Sunday School Association will convene in Dallas today and Saturday. The program prepared will occupy the entire two days session and will be full of interests.

Dr. Dunsmore enjoyed a birthday dinner with his daughter Mrs. O. A. Macy in Portland on last Sunday. Their birthdays being a only a day apart, both decided to celebrate together.

Whereas, In the Province of God our beloved sister Isabella Boydston, was removed from our midst by death March 3rd, 1920. Be it Resolved, that we, the members of the Independence W. C. T. U. extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and friends of the deceased and a copy of these resolutions be placed on our minutes and a copy also be sent to our state paper. Signed by the committee, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Lucy Whitesaker, Mrs. Alice Kurre.

Let us trade you a NEW PIANO for the old one. We have the Sherman-Clay Line of Pianos—Moore & Walker.

Attorney B. F. Swope purchased the George Graves bungalow on Sixth street now occupied by Mr. Dunkell.

W. H. Millhollen has installed electric lights in his home. He believes in having everything modern and up-to-date.

One little boy when asked by his teacher when and where he was born replied he was not born at all—he had a stepmother.

See Craven & Walker if you have not registered or have changed precincts. Registration books close on April 20th, 1920.

George Wood has sold a half interest in his machine shop to Mr. Cozine. Both will make a strong team, as they are first-class mechanics.

J. S. Cooper, wife and daughter, left the first of the week for a fortnight visit at Skokane, Seattle and other places in Washington.

A life insurance man has been talking to the Editor of the Enterprise lately and we are in doubt now whether we will live until next month or only a few minutes.

Choice Slab Wood for sale—call or phone Enterprise office. Agents for Hoskins, Fedee and other mills—wholesale and retail. Special prices in car load lots.

Edward Wunder has been under the weather this week and unable to deliver mail. Mr. Black is delivering the mail until Mr. Wunder is himself again, which we hope will be a few days.

Mrs. Clara Taylor left on the Sunday morning train for Portland to be with her two daughters Mrs. F. G. Purlock and Mrs. L. W. Wann, of Washington, and A. B. Taylor and wife of Oregon City. All present enjoyed a splendid dinner together.

It is said that a new game has been started, called the "onion game." One girl bites a piece off an onion and the boys present pay 10 cents for the privilege of guessing who it is. The fellow who guesses right kisses the other girls and the one who guesses wrong has to kiss the girl who bit the onion. It is said the game has its strong point.

The disappearance of Mrs. Elinn Brundage from her home in Salem, still remains a deep mystery to her immediate relatives. According to Mr. Brundage's report their small child 5 years old, was left alone in the house when Mrs. Brundage left Salem. She has relatives in Independence and at one time resided near Buena Vista.

Alfred Loy, of Buena Vista, has been elected president and Miss May McDonald of Dallas, secretary, of the Polk County Club at the Oregon Agricultural College. "Greater O. A. C." is the motto of the Polk county students at the College and the organization will unite with the alumni of the county in its efforts to inform every voter in the county about the financial needs of the college.

Violet Wood Redwell was born January 15, 1900, near Independence. She was the youngest daughter of Viola and Edward Bedwell. Most of her life was spent in Polk county. She united with the church when she was 12 years of age. In October, 1919, she was married to William H. Kodad and the young couple moved to Tillamook, where they lived until her death March 4, 1920. She is survived by her husband, her parents, six sisters and one brother.

Mesdames W. H. Walker, George Conkey, O. D. Butler, Clyde Ecker and S. Taylor Jones very charmingly entertained members of the Civic Club and invited guests at the Walker home on Fifth street Wednesday March 10th. The attractive living rooms were artistically decorated with dafodils and Oregon grape. After a short business meeting, Mr. Austine of Monmouth, gave a very interesting talk on his work in the Y. M. C. A. while over in France. Several vocal selections sang by Mrs. M. Butler of Monmouth, in her usual pleasing manner were thoroughly enjoyed. Light refreshments were served after the program. The next meeting of the Club will be held March 24th.

The Baptist church has made some very noticeable advances since the first of the year. The Sunday School attendance has grown splendidly and the attendance at church has doubled. Last Sunday 17 new members were received into the church. There are now a number of candidates waiting to be baptised. Where do you go to church my reader—if you do not go to a church, you come to the Baptist

BUD BRIGHT'S BRAINSTORMS

I'd buy an ice cream sundae, but I don't think I'll be here Sunday.

SERVICE, GOOD MATERIALS, REASONABLE PRICES AND COURTEOUS TREATMENT ARE WHAT YOU GET AT THIS SHOP, AND IF THERE'S ANYTHING ELSE WE CAN GIVE YOU, LET US KNOW

WE ARE FULLY PREPARED TO HANDLE ANY KIND OF

Expert Repair Work

And can fix any kind of machinery so it will do the work it was intended to do.

We Sell Auto Rings and Spark Plugs

Authorized Ford Sales and Service Station.

Ace Garage

Frank C. McLean, Prop
Independence, Oregon

TODAY The Day At BISHOP'S

Big Opening of Spring Suits

Never before have we had as an assortment of Spring suits for you to choose from as we have this year.

Hart Shaffner and Marx and Overcoats. If for no reason let the Millions of Suits be your guide.

Experience is the acid test of all relations. The degree of product's quality can be no more than the degree of the manufacturer's experience. Experience is Knowledge and Knowledge is the power that gives service.

Hart Shaffner and Marx have the experience and knowledge and thereby give service to all.

The Spring Suits for the Young Man

They come in several different models Single and Double Breasted, Belted, English Fitting, some with patch pockets and other with straight and patch pockets.

For the older men we have a supply of Spring Suits larger than ever before.

Let Us Show Them to You

Want every man who takes pride in the neatness of his appearance to come and let us show him our clothing. It costs you nothing to look. Our time is at your disposal, so don't fail to come.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE TO LOSE, IF YOU PURCHASE HERE.

Salem Woolen Mills Store

"Every Family in Marion and Polk Counties a Patron."

CITY - MEAT - MARKET

LINE OF MEATS EQUAL TO ANY MARKET IN A LARGE CITY CONSISTING OF THE FINEST MEATS OBTAINABLE.

THE CITY MEAT MARKET
Main street. Independence, Ore

church. Next Sunday the pastor will preach in the morning "The Triumph of the Cross," and in the evening "A Good man Lost and a Good man Saved" The Sunday School meets at 10 a. m. Prayer meeting at 7.30 p. m. Wednesday. Spend you Sunday rightly once and come to church. This invites everyone who reads these lines. Make up your mind to come now.—Contributed.

The following new cases have recently been filed in the circuit court at Dallas: Jesse A. Barham et al to quiet title. John J. McBee et ux vs. W. D. Prettyman et al, to quiet title. H. G. Black vs W. E. Muhlhallen to quiet title.

Judge Belt on March 4th granted a decree of divorce to Anna Grace McNeill from Robert B. McNeill.