

"Perhaps You Don't Know" says the Good Judge

That nearly every wise tobacco chewer got over the big chew idea long ago.

A little of the Real Tobacco Chew gives you more tobacco satisfaction and saves you money. Its rich taste lasts a long time.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

THE NEWS

Guidance for the new fruit growers was provided for at a meeting of the farmers of the Dallas Community under the auspices of the Polk County Farm Bureau March 24th. It was agreed that many mistakes were made by the inexperienced grower in cultivation and fighting pests; especially is there a lack of knowledge of the importance of early cultivation of Prunes. H. S. Butts was named Committeeman to care for this work.

Among other projects for active work this season are: Vigorous prosecution of the County Wide Gray Digger Poisoning Campaign; staging a grain grading school; demonstration in poultry culling and feeding; standardization of potato varieties; the organization of two boys corn clubs; a community exhibit, and forty individual exhibitors for the County Fair 5000 entries for the Corn Show at Independence.

The committeeman named to care for the program, Fruit—H. S. Butts, Gray Diggers—Frank B. Brown; Grain School—C. I. Ballard, Poultry—Glen D. Haven, Potatoes—W. E. Harris, Corn—J. Wille; Exhibits—committees to be named.

The work of a suitable silage crop is holding back the development of drainage in the Airle district, according to decisions reached by farmers of that section, meeting in connection with Farm Bureau work Tuesday March 26th, three percent agreed to put in plots of Sun Flowers for a thorough trial as to yield and feeding value. It is expected by J. F. Ulrich, Committeeman that a minimum of six plots will be planted.

The County Wide Gray Digger poisoning campaign being supervised by the Polk County Farm Bureau was heartily endorsed and Percy Heiley named to see that Airle co-operate with the rest of the county in that work.

Other projects agreed upon for the 1920 season are: A live demonstration by Percy Hadley; Poultry meeting on culling and marketing, A. Stants, committeeman; Twenty individual exhibitors for County Fair, and eight entries for Corn Show at Independence, Emory Whiteaker, in charge; a careful investigation of a County Wool Pool and co-operative livestock shipping, W. E. Williams.

Detailed plans for covering the district with Squared Poison were worked out at a meeting of the Rickreall Farm Bureau Committee in session on Tuesday evening March 26th. E. T. Harris, chairman, has worked out plans for getting poison on every acre of land in the Rickreall district.

A supply of county poison was delivered to the Dairy Monday by County Agent Dr. Duganne, Denton, Independence National Bank.

Told by the Bank Book

"PIONEERS,"

In laying claim to being a member of that class, the Farmers State Bank boasts more of progressiveness than of age. We're trying to keep trying to keep on our toes for everything he community may need.

We believe in Corn Raising and are not only talking it, but helping it be done. That's 'pioneering' isn't it?
