Nation's "Balance of Trade"
"Balance of trade" is an expression used by political economists to indicate the difference between the value of the exports and imports of a country. This theory of the balance of trade grew out of the mercantile theory which considers the possession of gold to be the chief object of trade. Hence, there rose the belief that a nation

Now, for the truth of things, time makes no alteration; things are still the same as they are, let the time be past, present, or to come. Those things which we reverence for antiquity, what were they at their first birth? Were they false?—Time cannot make them true. Were they true?—Time cannot make them more true.

And Succeeding.
Most of the economic sorrow which a nation suffers arises from the greed of men trying to sneak selfish advantages over others for profit.

How Would You Like It?
Preparatory to giving the elephant in captivity his bath his body is gone over entirely with a sheet of sand-paper.

Intelligence.
"Do animals think?" asks a scientist. Well, a dog turns around three or four times before lying down to go to sleep, while a man, without giving the matter any thought, lies down, goes to sleep and then turns over several times, waking himself each time. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE BABY CAB.

THE baby cab is a round-shouldered vehicle which can be used over and over again with satisfactory results, and usually is.

Very few homes in which babies appear with cheerful regularity attempt to get along without a baby cab. This is because the average baby cannot be carried for any great distance without causing a fond father to wheeze like a leaky accordion. We have often wondered why it is that a wife who is a model in other respects will allow a two-year-old baby to toddle down town, when she is shopping, and then compel the father to turn himself into a human hack by lugging the said baby home with both lungs reaching out for more air at every step.

In the early dawn of civilization woman was kept in a lower sphere and was obliged to get along without baby cabs and kid carfers and similar luxuries. The Indian wife and mother carried her baby on her back, in a neat crate, which was a sensible and satisfactory arrangement all around. Today, however, we see thousands of embarrassed young husbands compelled by their wives to push a collapsible baby cab through the crowded streets, wearing a sickly look of resigned martyrdom.

Baby cabs are built in several models, and can be made to accommodate twins or triplets with perfect ease. There is nothing more inspiring to all who love our country and delight to watch it grow than the sight of a set of chubby triplets reposing in a willow-basket baby cab and ever and anon lifting melodious voices in song. The twin baby cab is also a popular variety, and it can be propelled over frozen ground with less danger of string halt than the triplet type.

The baby cab, as used in many homes, is a sign of man's bondage to woman, and yet the average husband remains cheerful and uncomplaining, which teaches us that heroism is not always found in high places.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

MEMORY.

I stood and watched him playing,
A little lad of three;
And back to me came straying
The years that used to be;
In him the boy was Maying
Who once belonged to me.

The self-same brown his eyes were
As those that once I knew;
As glad and gay his cries were,
He owned his laughter, too.
His features bright and size were
My baby's, through and through.

His ears were those I'd sung to;
His chubby, little hands
Were those that I had clung to;
His hair in golden strands
It seemed my heart was strung to
By love's unbroken bands.

With him I lived the old days
That seem so far away;
The beautiful and bold days
When he was here to play;
The sunny and the gold days
Of that remembered May.

I know not who he may be
Not where his home may be,
But I shall every day be
In hope again to see
The image of the baby
Who once belonged to me.

Safe, proper sections in each "Bayer" package

The "Bayer Cross" placed on tablets means you are getting true "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" proved safe by millions of people—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years.

In every handy "Bayer" package are proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, and for Pain generally.

Tin boxes of 12 tablets cost only a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Mono-aceticacidester of Salicylicacid—Adv.

Less Arable Land.

There are today in England 700,000 fewer acres under clover and rotation grasses than in 1895, and 600,000 acres fewer of other land under the plough. There are thus 1,300,000 fewer acres of arable land in England today than twenty years ago.

Don't Forget Cuticura Talcum

When adding to your toilet requisites. An exquisitely scented face, skin, baby and dusting powder and perfume, rendering other perfumes superfluous. You may rely on it because one of the Cuticura Trio (Soap, Ointment and Talcum). 25c each everywhere—Adv.

Ethel's mother was trying to spray her throat with the atomizer, but met with considerable opposition from the small victim. "I wouldn't mind it so much," said Ethel, "if you would let me honk it myself."

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out without a particle of pain or soreness.

This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callous.

Put a few drops directly upon your tender, aching corn or callous. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callous will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or callouses but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist don't have freezone have him order it for you—Adv.

Characteristic of Shaw.

A young New Zealander, who wrote to Bernard Shaw begging for his autograph to add to a collection, drew forth the characteristically genial advice from the dramatist, "to set fire to the collection of autographs and sit on the top."

Explanation of Dreams.

To see a funeral, a coffin or a corpse in one's dreams generally portends an illness, death, or some grave misfortune. If the dream is rather vague and hazy, it may often be regarded as a sign of birth or a marriage.

An Early Start.

The first conveyance for the public between New York and Philadelphia was a stage, started in 1756 by the aged huntsman, Butler.
