Every Man and Boy Should be Watched!

In the business world punctuality is more than a virtue—it's an asset. The man or boy who is punctual to the minute in keeping engagements of whatever importance is one who not only commands but demands respect in their directions.

Of course, the market offers watches of various grades for various purposes—some of them low-priced for rough and ready service, and others, so delicately adjusted that in a month's time they vary only the fraction of a second.

But whatever the grade, you'll find it in our comprehensive line—from the popular priced Ingersoll to better grades in the products of the Elgin, Waltham and Hamilton factories.

Our expert advice in the purchase of a watch, and our services in keeping your watch in time are yours to command.
