

What Do You Know About Pianos?

Assuming that you can "tell a good tone," can you judge the hundred and one things which enter into the making of a Piano—the things which have their part in making and maintaining a good tone? Do you know the differences in plate and scale design? Are you familiar with the various actions? Are you a judge of the wood, the wire, the felt, the veneers, and all the other materials which enter into the making of a Piano?

Probably not—not one person in a thousand possesses this expert knowledge. After all, when buying a Piano, you depend greatly upon the expertness and the integrity of the dealer or house. Let your greatest care be the selection of the Piano House. Tell that house what you would like and what you can afford, and they will guide your selection of a Piano with expert judgment and a sincere desire to serve you well. Beware of a "cheap Piano"—in the end it is the most expensive. Avoid the alluring statements of some dealers—they are but pitfalls to catch the unwary. Protect yourself by going to a Piano House with a reputation for integrity and fair dealing—you will never regret it.

Baptist Church Announcements

There is always something worth while going on at the Baptist church. Next Sunday will be a good day for you to go to church and thank God and worship Him for sending us this much needed rain. We will have to admit when it comes to that we are helpless—we cannot create rain. Therefore, once God sends us these blessings don't be so stony hearted and stay at home. Don't be so selfish and ungrateful and not even show your appreciation by not going to church. Our Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. Mrs. Grace Swope, Supt. A banner contest has been started and this means that every pupil should be there on time and help his class win the banner. At 11 a. m. the Rev. H. L. Proppe will preach on the subject that you should hear: "How Do I Know I Am a Christian," or "Can I Know I Have Eternal Life Before I Die?" Some say we can and some say we cannot. Come and hear a clear exposition of this theme and know where you stand. In the evening the B. Y. P. U., the only young people's society for young people where Christian characters are built, will meet at its regular hour, 7 p. m. There will be an important announcement made at this meeting concerning the next social and good time meeting which is to be held next week, Tuesday, June 15th at 7.30 p. m. Detailed information at the meeting Sunday. All young people interested are invited to meet with us. At 8 p. m. Rev. Proppe will preach on the "Remarkable Confession of an Army Officer." The public is invited to all these meetings. A welcome awaits you here.
