

Parker

Why go to the mountains for fish? Last Sunday one of the boys of the neighborhood caught a nice mess of trout within the city limits and as several outsiders were nearby they vouched for his veracity.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith were in Portland this week visiting Mrs. Smith's brother, who is in one of the city's hospitals.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold House of Pedee were in attendance last week at their grandmother's funeral, Mrs. Rebecca Howard.

The Zielisch home was joyous with a family reunion on Sunday.

G. A. Dickinson has been laid up for a few days with a very lame back.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Horton were in Salem the first of the week.

The funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Howard was held at the Odd Fellows cemetery last Saturday, Rev. Dunsmore officiating. Mrs. Howard died in Seattle, Wash., and was brought here for burial. She was 97 years old. She leaves three children to mourn her demise: Ira Howard of Newport; Mrs. Owen of Seattle; Mrs. W. T. House of Parker.

Mr. Schirmer of Minnesota has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Ernest Zelisch, for several days. He is very much taken with this section and hopes to move here some day.

Rev. Proppe of Independence was calling on the community on Wednesday.

Oscar Peterson, who is working in California, is home for a brief visit. Oscar had the misfortune to sprain an ankle and so is letting mother help make it anew.

Mrs. George Grounds and little daughter of Modesto, Calif., arrived here Friday for an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grounds. Mr. Grounds, who is making a tour of the eastern states for the Modesto Lumber company, of which he is manager, will arrive later for a visit with home folks.

Geneva Criderman of Seaside, Oregon, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Anderson, and other relatives and friends.

Clare Prather who fell from a wire swing on the farm of "Doc" Black is rapidly coming into his own again. Clare had a narrow escape as it is not known how long the lad was unconscious as he was alone at the time of the accident. He rallied enough to crawl to the house on his hands and knees. He is yet deaf in his right ear, but hopes are held out that he will overcome that in time.

Men on line 37 were out Tuesday fixing up these lines, resetting and putting in new poles. This line has had no use of central for three months and a new line will be built at an early date and new phones put in.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Prather, Mrs. M. N. Prather and Dean and Mabel Prather motored to Salem Monday, calling on relatives and friends. The latter will remain for a more definite stay at the Bolman home.

Mrs. Margaret McClain and Mrs. M. N. Prather were in Corvallis last week attending the graduating exercises at the college, where their grand-daughter and niece, Miss Marie Prather, was a graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Devine are temporarily located in the Eston Bevens house.

Miss Alma Wells and Guy Prather have returned to their homes here after attending high school in Salem. They both graduated from the 12 years' course with high standing and will enter college this fall.

Frank Hall of Woodburn spent Sunday with his brother, Jack Hall, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tyler and family of Woodburn visited Sunday with Mr. Tyler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reynolds and family were in Corvallis last week attending graduating exercises at the college, their daughter graduating there this year. She will clerk at Independence for Eddy & Carbray during the summer months and will teach domestic science in the Albany school this fall.

A number from here attended the Hewitt Jersey sale last Thursday near Monmouth.

Alfred Loy, who has attended O. A. C. for the past three years, left Monday for Corvallis where he will be joined by a unit of officers in training who will leave by special train from Portland for Camp Kearney, Calif., where he will take more thorough training.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Harmon, Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Miss Blanche Harmon and Floyd Duval attended the graduating exercise at Salem Thursday night.

Mrs. R. E. Prather, Leland and Ruth Prather and Mrs. E. J. Anderson took in the Salem high school graduating exercises last Thursday night.

Rumor has it that we are still to have a store at Buena Vista.

G. A. Wells and family were at the capital city high school gradu-
