On the farm, in the city, for business and for family pleasure, it is the car of the people, and the demand is increasing every day. Let us have your order promptly if you want one. —J. G. McIntosh and Peter Kurre, accompanied by their wives, spent Sunday at the home of George Hawkins, about four miles west of Dallas. Mr. Hawkins has a fine prune orchard and it is in the best of condition for yielding big returns this fall.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Irvine and daughter, Fay, and Mrs. J. H. Hooper and daughter, Helen, will form a camping party which will leave Saturday for a point on the Luckiamute above Hoskins. They will remain until Monday evening.

—Guy G. Walker, Grover Mattison and Perl Hedges, accompanied by their wives, are arranging to spend Sunday and Monday in the Alsea country. Fishing is reported as good there and these nimrods do not usually miss an opportunity to try their skill.

—Paul Carpenter, county agricultural agent, and Josiah Wills, county superintendent of schools, were in Independence Tuesday. They are endeavoring to get people interested in community exhibits for the Polk county fair, which is to be held at Dallas October 7, 8 and 9.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bell of St. Paul, Minn., are expected to arrive here tomorrow for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Williams. Mrs. Bell is a sister of Mr. Williams. Mr. Bell is a grain purchasing agent for the Great Northern railroad.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith and son of Airle stopped here from Wednesday until Friday enroute to Portland and from there they will go to Astoria and Seaside for an outing of a few weeks. Mr. Smith is donkey engine man at the Webber & Davis sawmill camp at Airle and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith.

—Sam Goldsmith, one of the best known traveling men in this locality, died suddenly in Portland last Friday. For more than 25 years he was the representative of the wholesale grocery house of Mason-Erman Co., and for the past couple of years he has been with the Vancouver flouring mills.

—James Richards, well-known in Independence, was buried at Corvallis last Sunday. Mrs. Richards is a daughter of Mrs. Susan Jones, a resident of Independence for many years. Mr. Richards was about 65 years old, and death followed an operation for ulcers of the stomach, which was performed in Portland a few days prior to the end.

—S. H. McElmurry, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Oren McElmurry, made a trip this week to McMinnville, Clatsop and other points north for the purpose of purchasing a farm for the son. Mr. McElmurry found nothing that suited him and has come to the conclusion that the cheapest and best land in the Willamette valley is in this immediate neighborhood.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson of Portland, accompanied by J. W. Dimick and D. E. Fletcher went on a fishing trip to the north branch of the Santiam on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Donaldson carried off the honors, landing several fine specimens, and all had a very enjoyable outing. Mr. Donaldson is a Standard Oil official and makes frequent trips to this territory.

—Dr. C. W. McCole and wife of Newmarket, Iowa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clark Monday and Tuesday. Mr. McCole is a Shriner and is on his way home by the way of California. He expressed himself as being very favorably impressed with Oregon, and it is possible that he may eventually locate at some point in the state. In 1901 Dr. and Mrs. McCole and Mr. and Mrs. Clark were in Buffalo, N. Y., and were only a few feet from President McKinley when he was assassinated.

—An unexpected visit from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson and two children of Vancouver, B. C., came as a very agreeable surprise to J. G. McIntosh and wife Tuesday. The Hendersons are enroute from the Canadian city to San Francisco and were "amitten" with this Willamette country. Mr. Henderson and Mr. McIntosh are cousins, were born and grew to manhood back in the same Ontario community and the tie that binds has kept closely cemented during the intervening years.
