 —B. R. Wolf of the Independence National Bank, accompanied by Mrs. Wolf and daughter and a son from Portland, is spending his vacation at Pacific City.
 —Horace Clark threw his right arm "out of joint" last Friday while playing ball. He is now carrying it in a sling and it is probable that his ball playing is over for this season.
 —John Bramburg is finishing his curbing contract at Monmouth. He has put in over 6000 lineal feet and will complete his job in a few days.
 —Mrs. E. N. Johnson of Terrebonne and Mrs. James Hanna of Portland have been visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Irvine.
 —Mr. and Mrs. George Carbray will go to Newport Monday where Mr. Carbray will remain for a week and Mrs. Carbray will stay for a longer outing.
 —C. B. Smith has purchased the W. E. Dungan property on Sag street. Mr. Dungan, a former well-known resident here, is holding a responsible position at Camas, Wash.
 —Mrs. Ed Owens was a passenger Tuesday for Newport. She was met in Corvallis by her daughter, Mrs. Dole Pomeroy, and children of Mabel. They will spend about two weeks at the coast.
 —Dr. Maurice Butler and Howard Morlan of Monmouth, with their families, left Wednesday on an auto trip along the Oregon coast and northern California. They expect to be gone about two weeks.
 —W. E. Craven, Charles Calbreath and P. H. Drexler have been appointed appraisers of the estate of the late John Winters of Independence. The executors are James H. Winters and his son, F. I. Winters.
 —P. H. McCarthy returned Monday from Newport where he spent a couple of days with his wife and son. Without attempting to break any speed records, he made the run from Newport here in about four hours.
 —Dr. R. T. Burnett and family of Eugene, stopped over for a few hours Wednesday with Dr. Burnett's sister, Mrs. Sherman Hays. They were on their way home from an auto trip through Washington and Idaho.
 —Miss Helen Gillespie, who is well known here, has been spending the summer in Alaska with her sister, Mrs. Walter Smith, was married Saturday, August 7, in Cordova. The name of the lucky man has not been learned here.
 —Dr. Dunsmore returned Sunday evening from his vacation, which was spent at Belknap Springs in company with his daughter and grand-daughter from Portland, and has resumed his position in the Independence National Bank.
 —J. A. Bewley had his car in operation again. It went over an embankment about three weeks ago near Hoskins and it was at first thought that it was pretty much a wreck. Three new wheels, a windshield and replacements of parts of the body comprised the principal damage.

 —Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson of Portland, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Townsend. They were accompanied to Portland Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Townsend. Mr. Townsend returned Wednesday and Mrs. Townsend is remaining there for a longer visit.
 —Charles G. Irvine returned last Saturday from a three weeks' vacation spent upon his ranch near Hoskins. Mrs. Irvine and daughter are spending this week visiting with friends in that locality and are expected to arrive home tomorrow.
 —Neskowin is the finest place on the coast in my estimation," declared Peter Kurre upon his return from a two weeks' outing at that place last Friday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Kurre. "We caught all the mountain trout, sea trout and other kinds of fish we could possibly use."
 —Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Drexler left Wednesday for a two weeks' sojourn on the coast, Otter Rock being their destination, where they have a cottage. Mr. Drexler is an efficient salesman in the grocery department of Conkey & Walker.
 —Mrs. G. C. Skinner and daughters, Kathleen and Alice, and Mrs. Guy Walker are at Newport for a couple of weeks. They were accompanied there last Sunday by Mr. Skinner and Miss Ruth Mills, who returned Monday evening.
 —Charles Smith is recovering from an illness of several weeks. A lack of help during strawberry picking necessitated considerable extra pressure on Mr. Smith's part, with the result that he has had to recuperate. Mr. Smith has been a continuous subscriber to the Enterprise for nearly two score years.
 —Miss Gladys Childs has finished her work with the Ellison-White company as a junior chautauqua instructor, and is spending a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jack Eakin, of Dallas, before returning here. Miss Childs has been in Idaho and Montana, taking up the work as a vacation stunt, and will teach the coming year in Salem.
 —C. P. Hembree of Willows, Cal., accompanied by his wife and daughter, is here for 10 days or two weeks attending to the harvest on his big ranch near Monmouth. Mr. Hembree is making a mint of money in growing rice and has become a very extensive grower. The yield of rice to the acre is very heavy and the profit is large.
 —Senator I. L. Patterson of Eola, is here for a brief visit with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Patterson, and is attending to some business affairs. Senator Patterson is president of the Willamette Highway association, and is confident that the highway will be built from Dayton to West Salem and that eventually it will be continued south through Independence to Corvallis.
 —C. C. Archibald, local superintendent for the Mountain States

Power company, returned Wednesday from a two weeks' vacation spent in San Francisco and environs. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Archibald and son, who have been visiting for the past two months at the home of Mrs. Archibald's parents. During Mr. Archibald's absence Richard Saunders was in charge.
 —J. M. Gentry of Camas, Wash., stopped in Independence Monday while enroute to Newport to spend a week or ten days at the seashore. For 29 years Mr. Gentry was in the employ of J. R. Cooper, growing hops, making bricks and other work in which Mr. Cooper was interested during these years. About three years ago Mr. Gentry purchased a small prune orchard at Camas, Wash., and moved his family there. Mr. Gentry expresses himself as being very much pleased with his new location. The place is located right on the Columbia, with lots of beautiful scenery and good fishing.
 —"Just previous to our arrival at Neskowin, the beach was strewn with dead fish for miles," says A. C. Moore, who returned the first of the week from a three weeks' outing at that place. He was accompanied by Mrs. Moore and the two children. "This is the second occurrence of this phenomenon in many years at that point. Persons versed in fish lore and habits allege that it was due to one specie of fish warring against another. Like a great army, the marooned fish were forced toward the beach and held there by the victors until the tide receded and left them high and dry."
 —A traveling bag which was found by J. S. Bohannon several weeks ago on his way to Neskowin, has been restored to the owner, E. N. Henkle of Tillamook and a brother of Chester Henkle of this place. Anxious to place the bag in the hands of its owner, yet with nothing to identify him except a blank check book on a Tillamook bank, Mr. Bohannon expressed his predicament to the Enterprise last week. A short story was printed and Mr. Henkle recognized the grip as one which his brother had lost from his car while on his way from Tillamook to the Elks' convention at Salem.
 —Mrs. A. B. Robinson and Miss Florence Burton entertained a dozen ladies with five hundred at their country home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George Conkey was awarded first honors and Mrs. W. J. Clark the consolation. A delightful summer luncheon was served, the place favors being purchased in Philadelphia while Miss Burton was touring the eastern states and Canada. Those present were: Mrs. B. F. Swope, Mrs. H. Mattison, Mrs. P. M. Kirkland, Mrs. S. B. Walker, Mrs. K. C. Eldridge, Mrs. George Conkey, Mrs. W. J. Clark, Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. W. H. Walker, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. George Carbray and Miss West of Monmouth.
