Card of Thanks.
 We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends for their deeds of kindness and sympathy shown us upon the return of our beloved son and brother from France for the Stars and Stripes. Especially to the American Legion and Co. K, also to the organizations who presented their offerings, do we extend heartfelt thanks.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Arrell and family.
 Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Arrell.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harris Elbe.

—A son was born last Saturday to Squire Benschoff and wife, who reside on the McCarthy hop ranch.
 —A. B. Taylor and family of Oregon City spent the weekend with Mr. Taylor's mother, Mrs. C. J.
 Taylor.
 —Delos Eldridge has received an appointment as a page in the house and went to Salem Sunday evening to begin his new duties.
 —Dave Purvine is planning upon returning to Independence to reside.
 He is now living near Salem, but the old town appeals to him as the place to live.
 —Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith are the proud grandparents of a son which was born at their home here to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith of Airlie Wednesday.
 —President Hirschberg of the Independence National Bank has gone to San Francisco and other California points for a two week's sojourn with friends.
 —Mrs. Frank L. Price of Hoskins has returned from a visit with friends at different points in Washington. She was met in Portland Wednesday by Mr. Price.
 —Dr. M. J. Butler has fully recovered from a fractured collar-bone which he sustained on Christmas eve and has resumed his practice of dentistry in the Cooper building.
 —The many friends of Sherman Hayes, will be pleased to know that he has so far recovered from his severe attack of rheumatism, that he is able to walk about the house.
 —The Civic Club will meet on January 26 at the home of Mrs. O.
 A. Kreamer. Two interesting papers will be presented, one on Japanese art and the other on Japanese music.
 —Miss Elizabeth Sullivan, formerly of Independence, is visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Carbray. Miss Sullivan has passed several months with relatives and friends in Canada, and is now enroute to her home at Myrtle Point, Oregon.
 —Last Friday night, friends of W. J. Clark and wife, dropped in at their home, unannounced, for a social evening. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were taken completely by surprise but rose bravely to the occasion giving their unexpected guests a hearty welcome. The evening was passed with conversation and cards, followed by a light lunch. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Carbray, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mattison, Mrs.
 Sherman Hays and Miss Sullivan.

—C. A. McLaughlin will journey over the hot sands of the Shrine desert in Portland Saturday night. He will be accompanied to the Rose City by Dr. H. Charles Dunsmore and other local Shriners.
 —Antoine Violette is here from Spokane and may remain permanently. He has disposed of his ranch near Spokane and is looking around for another location. He is a brother of Mr. Violette of the Palace cigar store.
 —Andy J. Tupper, an old time resident of Independence, for many years city marshal and nightwatch here, who moved to Albany about two years ago, has just been elected one of the night officers on the police force there by the city council. Andy will make a good officer.
 —Mr. Bullis, an employe of the machine shops of the Valley & Siletz at Hoskins, stopped in Independence Sunday enroute to his home from Salem, where he had several pieces of steel removed from his right eye. Mr. Bullis has assurances that no permanent injury was done to the eye and that he will fully regain its use in a few days.
 —In the Sunday Oregonian was printed a group picture of a class of 153 Masons of Oregon who had received the thirty-second degree in the Scottish rite in Portland last week. In the group were C. A. Mc-Laughlin of Independence, Prof. T.
 L. Ostian of Monmouth and P. A.
 Finseth of Dallas.
 —Jack Eakin of Salem, and a well-known Polk county young man, is in Corvallis doing some special work at the Oregon Agricultural College preparatory for entrance to the University of Oregon medical school in Portland. Mr. Eakin is a son of Attorney John B. Eakin of Dallas and has had in mind for some time the intention of following a medical career. Mrs. Eakin is a daughter of Mrs. H. A. Childs of Salem, and when the young man is ready to enter the medical school they will take up their residence in Portland.
 —Mrs. Henry Mattison entertained the Tattling club at her home last Monday afternoon. The hours were pleasantly passed with conversation and fancy work. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Mattison served a dainty lunch. This organization, if so it can be called, having neither officers, constitution nor by-laws, has been in existence about six years, the members meeting each Monday for sewing and reading. During the war, Red Cross knitting took the place of fancy work, and many a pair of socks from the hands of the "tattlers," found its way across the water. After the close of hostilities, sewing and reading were resumed, and important indeed must be the business that can keep one of the members from her place on Monday afternoon.
 —When little Luetta Baker returned from an errand last Tuesday afternoon, she was greeted at her door by eleven of her girl friends, who had assembled at Mrs. Baker's invitation to help Luetta celebrate her eleventh birthday. After a few moments of visiting, the little guests were ushered into the dining room, where all enjoyed a three course dinner, Mrs. Baker having spared no pains to make the event a pleasant one. The menu can best be described in the words of one of the little guests, "My! We had chicken, an' cake, an' ice cream, n' everything!" After an evening spent in games and music the guests bade the hostess goodnight, and departed for their homes, and Luetta's "surprise" was a thing of the past.

—A daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chapin of Parker.
 —"Doc" Black was in Portland last week and purchased a carload of fine beef cattle for Gus Miller's City Meat Market.
 —Mrs. Alice Park has sold her 24-acre farm south of town to James P. Barker of Oklahoma, for $5500.
 Mr. Barker has taken possession of the place.
 —Robert E. Smith has gone to Corvallis, having secured an important position with the Nebbergall meat company, and will be joined today by Mrs. Smith. They expect to take up their residence there.
 —Exercises in commemoration of the founding of the K. P. order will be held by Homer Lodge No. 43 February 21. The program is not complete as yet, but it will include Frank S. Grant of Portland as the principal speaker. There will be music and other attractive features, including a lunch. It will be an open meeting for members of the lodge, their wives and sweethearts.
 —Clyde McMillan of Portland is here for a few week's visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. M. Brown.
 He arrived Tuesday, accompanying Mrs. Brown, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, in Portland. Mr. McMillan, a former resident of Independence, is now in the employ of the O. W. R. & N. Co. in the Portland freight depot.
 —Dr. L. E. Barrick and Dr. L.
 R. Stringer have leased a suite of office rooms in the Masonic building in Salem and will be ready for the practice of dental surgery the first of the coming week. They will specialize on extraction and X-ray work, and in order to be fully prepared to handle this work they spent several weeks in Minneapolis and Chicago doing post graduate work.
 Dr. Barrick was in Independence Tuesday and is confident that in Salem there is a field for this class of work.

PURVINE COMES HERE TO SUPERVISE PINCUS YARDS

D. J. Purvine has moved his family here from near Salem and is occupying a house near the Baptist church on Fourth street. He has been engaged by Julius Pincus of Portland to operate his hop yards in this vicinity.
 Mr. Pincus was in Independence this week. He is making preparations to replace the residence, hop house and dryer, which were destroyed by fire on his bottom ranch during the past year.
 Mr. Purvine is an experienced hop man and his return to Independence is gladly welcomed.

In The Churches

M. E. Church
 Rev. J. H. Ebert closed his meeting last Sunday evening and returned to Forest Grove on Monday.
 A goodly number of young people were present last Sunday evening at the Epworth League service. The leader for next Sunday evening will be Miss Mabel Boughey; topic, "Real Religion."
 You are most cordially invited to the preaching service next Sunday evening at 7:30. Subject for sermon is, "Character Building." A live theme, of interest to all. Come.
 On Wednesday afternoon of this week there was a large attendance at the Ladies' Aid society in the church parlors. Much work was done and live themes discussed. This band of women is a credit to any church.

Do not forget that the Sunday School meets at 10 o'clock on Sunday mornings. A welcome for you.

Christian Church Services for Sunday will be:
 Bible school, 10 a. m.
 Preaching at 11, the topic being, "Monuments."
 Evening at 7:30, topic, "The Three Crying Needs of the World."
 Harold Hull, Pastor.

Baptist Church Notes
 If you are a stranger in town and have not become acquainted with folk I know of no better way than to come to church. You will always find things up to the minute at the Baptist church and a most hearty welcome.
 Sunday-school under the direction of Mrs. J. Walker meets at 10 a. m. There is a class for every age young or old. Rev. Proppe preaches on a lively subject immediately following.
 In the evening at 6:30 B. Y. P. U. meets with Miss Gladys Story as leader and the topic is "Our Possibilities." At 7:30 Rev. Proppe speaks again. "Come let us do this good."
