Oregon Normal

The new term at the normal opened Tuesday morning with at least 50 new students in attendance. A particularly gratifying fact about this is that there are several young men among the number.

President Ackerman left Tuesday afternoon to attend the Inland Empire Teachers' association in session this week at Spokane, Washington.

An interesting exhibit of hand-work has been placed in the new case in the main corridor of the normal building. It represents some of the things done by the class in hand-work last term and has attracted much attention.

Students and faculty members returned Tuesday with many evidences of a pleasant Easter vacation, but also with renewed energy and enthusiasm for the work of the last term of the regular school year.

Miss Ragon is entertaining her sister, Miss Alta Ragon, this week. The latter has just returned on furlough from a seven years' sojourn in India as missionary.

Several members of the faculty spent the Easter vacation in Portland, Miss Taylor went to her home in Tacoma, Mrs. Rychar to Eugene, and others to various places.

A very unusual motion picture will be shown in the chapel Saturday evening, April 2, at 8:15. This is Maurice Tourneur's picturization of "The Last of the Mohicans" by James Fenimore Cooper. This classic is too well known to need repetition, though it may be said that no member of the family can afford to miss it. Every American in whose veins flows the blood of our forefathers, wants to see this thrilling picture. One could go on for an hour in telling of the wonderful scenic beauties, splendid acting, stage setting and photography.

MONMOUTH HEIGHTS

Henry Bergen is setting out a lot of prune trees this spring.

George Cody of Eugene and Mrs. Bertha Welch were united in matrimony last Friday, and left for Eugene the first of the week to make their future home.

William Riddell Sr. was a weekend visitor to Portland on business. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hoague of Marion county spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Calbreath.

Ernie Riddell was in Independence last Saturday.

John Henkle of Monmouth was in our midst Saturday evening.

Eugene Hubbard of Monroe, an O. A. C. student, was at the William Riddell home last Saturday.

Dave Dove was in Independence on business Saturday.

George Heck was trading in Monmouth last Friday.

Leon B. Fishback, pastor of the Church of Christ at Hillsboro, visited relatives here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Tom Marks spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Lewis, near Salem.

Highland Notes

Charles Harman is incapacitated, having the big toe of his left foot smashed Sunday, by a horse stepping upon it. Walter Baker of Parker is working for Mr. Harman, doing ranch work.

J. K. P. Harris is busily engaged spraying his prune orchard. Notwithstanding that Mr. Harris is still holding his last year's crop of prunes he continues to be very optimistic over the prune situation, and believes that by the time the present year's crop is harvested, the market will be on a stable basis.

Lew Stapleton is pushing work on his ranch, operating a four-horse team and a tractor in getting ground ready for spring grain.

There is some improvement in the condition of John W. Osborne. He has been ill for quite a long time and the fact that he is on the mend is pleasing to a large circle of old friends.

William Snyder has taken a contract to cut 5000 cords of wood for the Stumps and expects to start work shortly.

Harrison Brandt is another Highland farmer who has been improving these fine days in getting his spring work going.

Polk County

(From Dallas Itemizer)

As part of the campaign that he has inaugurated to clean up Polk county of the illicit liquor traffic, Sheriff John W. Orr and a couple of deputies visited a number of places where dances were in progress Saturday night. Complaints had come to the sheriff that liquor had been flowing freely at these rural dances and he decided to investigate the matter.

At only one place was it necessary to make an arrest. At McCoy Mr. Orr took into custody Paul Buchanan, of Independence, charging him with being drunk and having liquor in his possession at a public dance. Buchanan was brought to Dallas and locked up over night. Sunday morning he pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Ed. F. Coad and was fined $25 and costs, which he paid.

At the other places the officers stated their business and sounded a warning for the future conduct of the places.

Sheriff Orr's activity during the past two weeks has resulted in the arrest and fining of two moonshiners and two drunks and the collection of $260 in fines.

The annual meeting of the Polk County Fire Patrol association was held in Portland last Friday, March 18th, at which time George T. Gerlinger was re-elected president and W. V. Fuller re-elected secretary and manager for the season. The total receipts for the year 1929, including a balance of $584 from 1919, were $3,910.33; total disbursements, $3,033.33, leaving a balance in the treasury of $875.03 to start in the work the coming season.

Work of clearing out the trails and repairing telephone lines will begin about May 1st in order to have this improvement done before the opening of the dangerous fire season. By an agreement with the state forester the Polk county association will also undertake to care for all territory in Benton county north of the C. & E. railway, as all of these lands are covered by the outlook station on Bald mountain.

At a meeting held in the W. O. Refsland hall Saturday night between the employees of the Willamette Valley Lumber Co. and the management of the company an agreement was reached whereby the employees accepted a reduction in wages, effective

April 1. The new minimum wage will be $3.00 a day for common labor a reduction from $3.60. Other classes of labor will be cut in the same proportion. The new schedule of wages will apply to the logging camps as well as to the mill and yards.

As another chapter in a long series of woes between Wilbur L. Hughes and members of the Apostolic Faith, Hughes this week, through his attorney, W. C. Winslow, of Salem, filed suit in the circuit court here asking $20,000 damages for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections. The defendants named in the action are Frank Holman, Mrs. Frank Holman, Mrs. Frank Splawn, Mrs. C. A. Rice and Clem Swensen. The defendants are all members of the Apostolic Faith, and it is alleged in the complaint that they have so influenced Mrs. Hughes in her religious belief that she refuses medical attention, although ill, which has destroyed the peace and happiness of the plaintiff's family and home.

An interest in the sawmill in this city and the large timber holdings in this county of the Willamette Valley Lumber company and about ten miles of logging railroad was sold last week by the administrator of the estate of the late H. L. Pittock, of Portland, to the Clark & Wilson Lumber company. The price paid is said to have been $400,000. The change in part ownership will in no way change the policy of the company or affect the operation of the mill here, according to George T. Gerlinger, who will remain as president and general manager of the company.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Conn, of Airle, were transacting business in Dallas Tuesday. Mr. Conn informs us that he has sold his general merchandise store to K. L. Williams and John Wienert, and the firm name will be Wienert & Williams. Mr. Conn is undecided as to his future course, but thinks he will just "gypsy" this summer.

IRVINE BAUN PURCHASES RESIDENCE PROPERTY ON B

Irvin Baun has purchased of E. Refsland the residence property on the north side of B street, between Main and First, and occupied by Mr. Baun and family for the past few years. The transaction was handled by the Independence Realty company.
