The visitors came by motor Saturday, returning to Portland Sunday evening. It was a highly enjoyable event.

The Tatting club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. A. B. Robinson Monday afternoon. The rooms were spring like with quantities of daffodils, violets and hyacinths. The suggestion of Easter was carried out in the dining table decorations, tiny chicks and bunnies being in evidence, while the place cards showed rabbits and little maids with their Easter bonnets. Guests were: Mesdames Hanna, Kenney, Carbray and Robbie.

Little Miss Lucille Cook was hostess for a recent delightful afternoon party on the occasion of her 12th birthday. The 16 girl friends present passed a pleasant afternoon with games, when Mrs. Cook ushered them into the dining room prettily decorated in blue and white. Here they enjoyed a delicious lunch, which in-McElmurry gave an informal dinner cluded the regulation birthday cake, adorned with its 12 candles. Guests of the afternoon were: Dorothy Ray, Marie Baker, Celesta Cuthbert, Alice Haley, Eva Bullis, Wilma Percival, Duretta Kolb, Lenore Myers, Eileen Pengra, Margaret Eddy, Wyma Troxel, Helen Knott and Marion Fluke.

> Little Ernestine Smiley was pleasantly reminded of her ninth birthday last Saturday when a number of her little schoolmates met at her home for an afternoon's play. The time was passed with games and in initiating the new swing which had beeen put up in one of the big oak trees in the yard. MONMOUTH STATION AGENT GOES TO KLAMATH COUNTY visit Prime returned last week from visit of inspection to Chiloquin is Klamath county where he expects to move his family. The present agent at Chiloquin makes a trade with Mr. Prime, the swap taking with a seniority in service which was Mr. Prime's favor. The Chiloquin of. fice carries with it twice the salary of the Monmouth job. It is, however, a lumber town located on the Klamata Indian reservation and lacking many of the advantages of the valley towns while it does not rain there in the ummer time, they have winter mow and this winter have had an unusual ly large amount of the beautiful. I is located in a fine hunting and fish. ing country. The Primes will be greatly missed in Monmouth where they have been active in the com munity life and have made many friends. They are packing to leave at present and expect the new agent Mr. and Mrs. Stanley left last Mr. Johnson, to assume duties here in the near future.

> C. B. Stephens, who has been spending the winter in Los Angeles, has returned here with the intention of remaining for a while at least if not permanently. Mr. Stephens drove through in his car, which is equipped as a photo studio.

Mrs. Smiley then brought in the lunch, which was all, and more, than the little folks had anticipated, and which included the big cake demanded by Mollie Bob. . Wishing Ernestine many more birthdays and expressing the wish that they might all be there to enjoy themselves with her, the children departed for their homes, having passed a most enjoyable aftermoon. Little guests present were: Naomi Hewett, Levita Bullock, Helen Byers, Ruth West, Irene Bush, Mollie Bob Small, Ruth Wilson, Viola Cuthbert and Beryl Kelly.
