RECORD LAD'S IOTA NOT MADE BY ACCIDENT

Dallas, Apr. 14, 1922—It is with a feeling almost of reverence that we look upon the record of Lad's Iota, new champion of the Jersey breed who has just closed a year's production of over 1047 pounds of butter fat. There comes too a sense of profound respect for her owner and caretaker, Mr. McKee, and for this great animal's breeder, Mr. Hewett. To produce and to feed a cow to a record of 1000 pounds of fat is a distinction that comes to but a few men. The 1000 pound class of breeders and feeders is not crowded. How is such production possible? Iota was provided with the material of which to manufacture that record quantity of milk and fat—she was well and properly fed. McKee knew her needs and met them.

She was made comfortable. Care counts.

And the cow had it "in her" to produce. She comes from a long line of dairy animals bred for just that kind of work.

Feed, care, breeding—they win.

Now a session at each of the dairy demonstration farms in the county on the science of breeding dairy stock for high and profitable production with Professor Fitts, dairy specialist of the College Extension service, pointing the way:

Thursday, Apr. 20th, 1:30—T. J. Werth farm near Grand Ronde.

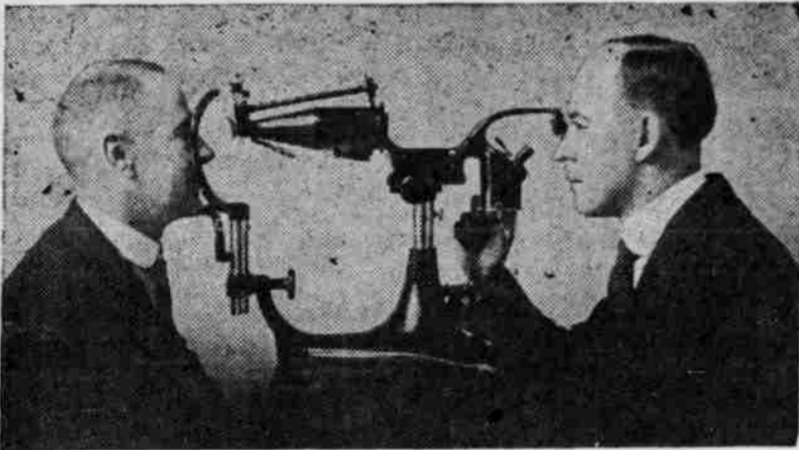

Friday, Apr. 21st, 10:00—Porter Frizzell place at McCoy.

Friday, Apr. 21st, 2:00—John R. Loy farm, Buena Vista.

"Cow's is cow's—no more.

THE EXAMINATION

Of your eyes for glasses depends on the experience and skill of the operator to use scientific instruments correctly. By the use of the Ophthalmoscope, one of the latest and most scientific instruments known to Optical science, I can detect the smallest defects in the eyes, which assures my patrons of absolute comfort and eyeglass satisfaction. Don't fail to have me examine your eyes with this wonderful instrument

SOCIAL AFFAIRS DURING THE WEEK

A wee hostess of the past week was little Evelyn Davis, who entertained a number of her small friends at an Easter party Saturday afternoon. The "curtain raiser" was a grand hunt for colored eggs, the fact that the weather necessitated the hunt taking place in the house, seeming not in the least to mar the fun, as evinced by the shouts of the youngsters when an egg was discovered. Each child being blindfolded, attempted, with the most surprising results to pin the tail on the picture of a bunny, who lacked that important decoration. Little Carolyn Clifford succeeded in fastening the tail most nearly on the spot where nature intended it. After games and a story the children donned gaily colored caps and in time to music marched to their places at the dining table, which was decorated in a manner suggestive of Easter. The center piece was a pen containing real live baby chicks, while at each place stood a wee white rabbit eating a carrot and watching over an egg shell nest in which cuddled two wee chicks on a nest of cotton. Each child took home as a memento his table favors and his share of the colored eggs brought to light in the egg hunt. Little guests present were: Vera Becken, Carolyn Clifford, Molly Bob Small, Beryl Kelley, Prudence and Georgiana Gray, Margaret Foster, Robert Maille, Eugene MacCarthy, Bonnie Radmacher, Edwin Hugh James, and Chadwick Comstock of Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Skinner, assisted by Misses Houx, Skinner and Alice Skinner entertained the Bridge club and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Joslin of Dallas at a four course dinner Thursday evening. The date being the 20th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Skinner's marriage, the event was in the nature of the celebration of that event. A huge wedding cake, adorned with a miniature bride and groom was a beautiful as well as a delicious reminder of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner took their guests to Salem during the evening to attend the Military ball given in the Salem Armory.

On Friday evening last Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bradner entertained the Auction bridge club. In addition to the members of the club, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henkle and Mrs. A. L. Keeney were present. At the close of a pleasant evening delicious refreshments were served. Bridge honors were conferred upon Mrs. Keeney and Z. C. Kimball.

Mrs. S. B. Walker was hostess to the members of the Tatting club and other guests Monday afternoon. After the social hour, sewing and reading filled the afternoon, which closed with the serving of delicious refreshments by Mrs. Walker, assisted by Mrs. Henkle. Guests who enjoyed Mrs. Walker's hospitality were: Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Carbray, Miss Sullivan, Miss Childs, Faith Kimball, Mrs. Percy Dickinson, Mrs. Ellen Davis and daughter.

The Y. I. D. dancing club gave a dinner dance on Wednesday evening at Sloper Bros. & Cackle hall which was most thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The hall had been attractively decorated in yellow crepe streamers and pendants, making it a delightful place in which to spend a pleasant evening and at 7:30 a merry party gathered about the artistically arranged table and enjoyed delicious chicken dinner which had been prepared by the members. This was the first dinner dance this club has held, but from the expressions of those present, more may follow.

EVENTS OF INTEREST AT OAK POINT

The former cadets of Oak Point gave a free entertainment April 13. The people enjoyed the program very much and were glad to see the teachers again. Refreshments were sold by the school children.

Miss Belle McAllister, a teacher of The Dalles has been forced to resign from her school as the result of having the flu. She is now recuperating at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. L. Craig.

Mrs. H. C. Bryson of Walla Walla is visiting at the home of Mrs. Arnold Crossen.

Roberta Peterson of Oak Point school won the prize in Polk county on her essay, "Teeth and Their Relation to Good Health." The Oak Point school is very proud of her.

The Gleaners' class met last night for a business meeting. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour was spent.

A. F. Orey of Oak Point bought a player piano last week for his family.

Mr. Rutherford, a missionary from India, gave the school children a talk on the conditions in that benighted land.

The Woman's club is meeting today with Mrs. James Huntley as hostess.

Peter Besset and Chester Downing two eighth grade pupils, were absent yesterday from school to help with spring work on the farm.

Word has been received that Miss Loeta Rogers has been retained for another year as the teacher in the Ashland schools, with an increase in salary. This is pleasant news to her friends.

Some people from out of town who attended the funeral of the late Mrs. H. C. Constance were: Mrs. Gorman of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Webb of Dallas, Mr. Heard of Salem and L. L. Constance of Eugene.

Two home missionaries visited our school on Good Friday. At noon they gave us a most interesting talk and sang songs, they were enjoyed by all of us.

John G. Titus and Miss Elizabeth M. Joy, both of Oak Point were married on April 8th at Dallas by Rev. James of the M. E. church. Only immediate members of the family were present at the ceremony. After a short trip to Portland they returned here, where they will make their home.

NEWS EVENTS AT OREGON NORMAL

Classes were resumed at the Normal on Tuesday after the short Easter recess. Nearly half the students spent the vacation at their homes.

All efforts are now being directed toward the Junior weekend festivities which occur on May 5-6. The Juniors will present a variety program in the chapel Friday evening, May 5. On Saturday, May 6, the regular May day celebration, for which the Normal is so well known, will be held on the campus. This includes the crowning of the May Queen, various drills and dances, and the contest events in tennis, volley ball, etc., in the afternoon. It is hoped that many people from the surrounding country will plan to spend that day at the Normal. Lunch will be served at noon on the campus by members of the student body. The proceeds from the lunch will be added to the children's fair home fund to which the students pledged $200.

Miss Taylor spent the weekend at her home in Tacoma.

Mr. Butler is planning a visit to the state institutions at Salem in the near future for the students who wish to go.

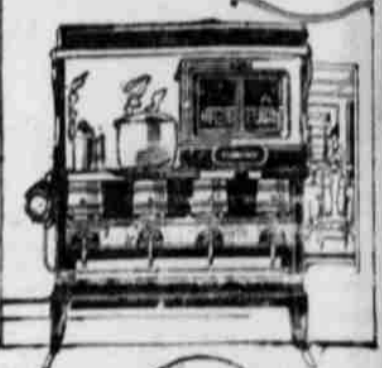

Superintendent Strange of Astoria, visited the Normal last week to interview prospective teachers for the coming school year. Mr. Strange gave an excellent talk to the student body at the chapel hour on Thursday. Arrangements have been made for the Salem Women's club chorus to give a concert in Monmouth on Sunday afternoon, May 7. They will bring with them three soloists—soprano, violinist, and pianist—and will present a most attractive program. This concert will round out the May day entertainments and furnish an excellent musical appropriate for Sunday afternoon. Arrangements for the concert are in the hands of the student body committee of the children's Fair Home fund. A small admission fee will be charged and all proceeds over actual expenses will go into that fund.
