NEWS EVENTS AT OREGON NORMAL

The students of the summer school elected their student body officers on Tuesday. The following were chosen: F. E. Lord, president; W. A. Davenport, vice-president; Beulah McCord Bovingdon, secretary-treasurer; Ausie Bonner, song leader.

The members of the faculty enjoyed cherries and a delightful evening with Mr. and Mrs. Butler at their home on Tuesday evening.

The Apollo club, a musical organization of men from Salem under the direction of director John Sykes, has been secured to give a concert in the chapel on the evening of July 13 at 8:15 o'clock. This club is well known throughout the valley and has long stood for excellence in things musical. Their many friends will be glad of the opportunity to hear them sing.

Many students are planning to attend the chautauqua.

A motion picture made from the well known story "Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be shown in the chapel Friday evening, June 30. The picture is an exceptional one from the standpoint of the mere picture, as well as the fact that it is made from a classic.

The members of the faculty have announced that the recess for July 4th will begin Friday evening, June 30, and continue until Tuesday evening, July 4. Classes will be resumed at 8:00 o'clock on Wednesday morning and will be held on Saturday, July 5, to make up for Monday, July 3. This arrangement has been made to give students who wish to go to their homes a chance to reach them and to return in time for classes on Wednesday.

Card of Thanks

We are deeply appreciative of the many kindly considerations of friends during our bereavement, and desire to express to them our gratitude.

Monmouth

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Mulkey of Arlington are visiting Mrs. Mulkey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Force. Mr. Mulkey is principal of the Arlington schools.

Prof. and Mrs. Beattie attended the funeral of Mrs. Robert Eakin in Salem this week. Three of Mr. Eakin's brothers, who came to attend the funeral, came to Monmouth with Mr. and Mrs. Beattie and spent a day here.

Thirteen persons from Monmouth attended the Powell reunion, held in the Copeland grove, eight miles east of Albany. Grandma Powell, age 92, was called on for a talk and gave an interesting story of the trip across the plains which she made 71 years ago. Those attending from here included the families of Ira C. Powell, A. M. Arant, J. F. Powell and Dr. J. M. Powell and Juanita Davis.

The Monmouth chautauqua will begin Wednesday, July 5 and close Sunday, July 9. The Cadmean company, which has furnished the attraction for the past two years, will send its DeLuxe circuit to Monmouth this year. There will be programs each day in the afternoon and evening. The afternoon programs will begin at 3:15 in order to accommodate normal students. The price for season tickets has been lowered to $2 this year for adults.

Photographer Brown of Salem took a panorama of the entire student body and faculty of the normal in front of the training school building Wednesday after chapel.

WEEK'S DOINGS IN HIGHLAND COUNTRY

George Dickinson and family returned the last of the week from ten days spent at Naperine, Wash. While there they were guests of Mrs. Dickinson's sister.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rulifson entertained Mrs. Rulifson's aunt, Mrs. Booth and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Crozier of Portland.

Ivan Jones has purchased an auto of William Schneider and making it over into a speedster.

Hay harvest is in full swing but the crop is very light as is the case of all crops this season.

The two Farrier boys who make their home at Charles Van Aveyrs, accompanied their father to Philomath the last of the week for a vacation. While away they expect to do some mountain climbing.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rulifson and daughter Lois, were guests at the wedding of a friend in Corvallis. It was an outdoor wedding and very pretty.

The merchandise shoot of the Highland Gun club on Sunday was well attended by lovers of the gun.

Oren McElmurry has been ill for the past week with stomach trouble.

Several of the boys in the district find attraction in Monmouth now that summer school is in session.
