

Up-to-Date Methods

Tested seed and fertilizers, modern farm machinery and methods, all insure the greatest possible crop success, both in quality and in the yield per acre. The wise farmer plays it safe all the way through, and when the rain is ready to cut he uses

Plymouth Twine

which has been continuously tested and proven since the under was first invented. Full strength and strength; satisfaction and economy insured. Order your requirements early

Willard E. Craven Hardware

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Dr. H. Charles Dunsmore spent the weekend with the Maceys in Portland.
Miss Irene Eddy of Portland is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Violette.
Prof. and Mrs. O. D. Byers and daughter Gwendolyn, spent Sunday in Pacific City.
Miss Thelma Williams went to Portland yesterday, where she will enter a rest cure sanitarium and remain for three weeks. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. M. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson spent Sunday with William Foster and family of Portland.

Frank S. Jones of Hoskins stopped in Independence Friday while on his way to Neskowin.

C. B. Smith and wife visited with their son and family at Portland from Saturday until Wednesday.

Mrs. W. N. Sharp of Portland spent Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur E. Horton.

Mrs. J. B. Chapman leaves tomorrow for several weeks' visit with relatives at Portland and other points.

Mrs. Maude Cooper and daughter Irene, of Airlie, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Cooper's mother, Mrs. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henkle, Ross H. Nelson, A. C. Williams and daughter, Miss Thelma, went to Portland last Saturday morning in Mr. Henkle's car, spending the day there.

Mrs. Moore, mother of A. C. Moore, is critically ill at a Portland hospital. Mrs. Moore's health has been poor for some time and an operation was recently performed in the hope of bringing relief.

Mrs. Joe Walton of Salisbury, Mo., Mrs. T. H. Walton and daughter of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Walton of Warrington, Ore., returned home last week, after a ten days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Virgin.

An auto party which includes Verd Hill, Wendal Denlinger, Martha Hill and Vera Johnson left Thursday for Crater Lake, Klamath Falls, Bend and other interesting places. They expect to be away about two weeks.

A. L. Kullander has a new Hup touring car which he purchased in Portland a few days ago. It is a this year's model, and has been used long enough as a demonstrator to get it nicely broken in.

Charles Harman expects to move to Portland in a few days and follow his trade as a carpenter. He was in Portland one day this week and secured a desirable place in which to live.

Irving S. Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Miller and daughter, Hattie, spent the weekend at the G. G. Godfrey home. The Millers were enroute from Lakeview, Oregon, to Seattle, where they expect to remain permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fitz-Gerald of Portland were visitors the first of the week at the home of Mr. Fitz-Gerald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fitz-Gerald. They were accompanied by Miss Emma Henkle, who is visiting the W. H. Walker home.

The summer school pupils under Misses Arbuthnot and Houx enjoyed a half day at the Normal school recently. The good time included games in the gymnasium, a picnic supper on the campus and a visit to the picture show in the evening.

F. S. Crowley, a former principal of the Independence high school and for a time county school superintendent, was in Independence Tuesday greeting old friends. For the past couple of years Mr. Crowley has been at Prairie City as principal of the school there.

Joe Hayes of McMinnville has been in Independence for a few days. He has been engaged by the Wigrich ranch to act as hop picker scout, a position he has filled for a number of years for the ranch with the exception of last year.

Mrs. Murray Owen of Seattle is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. T. House. Mr. and Mrs. House and daughter, Helen, accompanied by Mrs. Owen, went Thursday to the Tillamook beach for a several days' sojourn.

Bert Dowell and son Emerson, of Seattle, visited for a few hours Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wooley. Mr. Dowell and son were enroute to their home after several weeks' trip through California, the distance being covered on a motorcycle.

J. W. Kelley, Frank B. Kelley and wife and C. D. Smiley and wife returned last night from a two day trip to Nehalem and Barview. At the latter place they found the D. Davidsons taking life easy in their cottage, "Fern Cliff," and they were royally entertained there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Ebbe of Dallas have been spending the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Arrell. They spent last week at Newport. In the employ of the Mountain States Power company at Dallas, Mr. Ebbe has been having two weeks' vacation.

Recent visitors at the home of F. E. Butts were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cummings of Corvallis, who own and operate large greenhouses and a florist shop in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings have been making an extended auto tour through Canada, and stopped for a call on relatives while on their way home.

F. L. Price of Hoskins was here Sunday and spent a few hours with Mrs. Price who is temporarily receiving treatment at the Independence hospital. Mr. Price is in the midst of haying on his stock ranch and says that he has an exceptionally fine crop of oats and vetch. Due to subirrigation, the crop has not suffered from a lack of moisture.

Sam J. McKee, accompanied by Mrs. McKee and their children, left Wednesday for a month's outing at his old stamping ground at Lakeview, Lake county, Ore. Owner of the world Jersey, Mr. McKee stated while in town Tuesday, that the continued hot weather is affecting quite materially the production of his cows. "It's too hot for 'em, that's all."

G. L. Rathbun went to Portland Wednesday and after spending a few days there he will return to his home in Anoke, Minn. Mr. Rathbun spent about a month at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. R. Arrell and with other relatives in this part of the valley. Mr. Rathbun expressed himself as having been delighted with the Willamette country.

Mrs. M. J. Bulloch has sent a box of Bings and Royal Ann cherries to her father, John T. Adams at Pond Creek, Oklahoma. Mr. Adams has been a frequent visitor here. He is past 83 years old, and is in perfect health. In January, he had an operation for appendicitis but has fully recovered from its effects.

Herb Reuf is at Gates operating the Grover Mattison logging truck, due to Al. Whitney receiving a very serious injury to his eye last week. Accompanied by his wife, Mr. Whitney has been spending several days at Independence. It was at first thought that he would lose the sight in one eye, but fortunately this is not the case and Mr. Whitney is confident that he will regain the full use of it.

Francis Craber has been spending a few days at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. H. Craber, who resides in the north part of the city. Mr. Craber is working in a sawmill at Hoquiam, Wash. Forest fires are greatly interfering with logging and mill operations in the Hoquiam country. It has been necessary to close some of the mills as the fires have made it necessary to close the camps.

J. C. Syron, democratic nominee for representative from Polk county, was in Independence Monday doing a little missionary work in the interest of his campaign. Mr. Syron is a fruit grower, specializing with prunes, with his ranch located in the extreme northern part of Polk county. He is occupying a part of the old homestead where he was born and has spent all of his life in the county with the exception of about a dozen years.

Thursday night, July 13th, in the wee, sma' hours, the telephone bell awakened Percy Dickinson from a well earned rest. At the Portland end of the line was Dorain Dickinson with the important news that a young (very young) lady, had arrived at his home without bag or baggage, with naught but a name, Dorothy Irene, and demanded board and lodging, particularly board. Grandpa and Grandma Dickinson are trying to wear their newly acquired honors with becoming dignity.

Tom Fitchard is here from Utica, N. Y., with the expectation of permanently remaining. He is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitchard, who reside in the Oak Point community. Mr. Fitchard has been quite a frequent visitor in Independence, this making the twenty-first time he has crossed the mountains in his journeys to the coast and back to the "Yorkstate" city. It has taken quite a long time to get the call of the west innoculated in his system, but he is willing to 'fess that he has it now. Mr. Fitchard will be joined by his wife a little later.

Misses Hazel and Norma Calbreath, accompanying their uncle, R. W. Traverser, principal of the Enterprise high school, will sail from Seattle on the steamer Admiral Watson, for a trip thru Alaska. The boat will make landings at Juneau, Cordova, Valdez and other smaller points going as far north as Anchorage. At the various stops ample time to explore the towns will be afforded the tourists and a number of interesting inland side trips will be taken. During the past year Miss Hazel has been teaching at Marshfield and Miss Norma at La Grande, and the young ladies have chosen this way to pass a part of their vacation.

You can safely come to Dr. Thompson for consultation and examination, knowing that his years of experience and knowledge are always at your service. Consult him about your eyes. Next visit Saturday, July 22, Beaver Hotel all day. 14-2t

Drs. Hewett & Knott. Glasses fitted, satisfaction guaranteed. 117-tf

Your Outing Togs

For that camping trip you are going to take, let us fit you out in the right kind of togs. We have a fine assortment for the boys and girls and the grown folks. In fact, attractive summer things are featured heavily in our place.

*****

BATHING SUITS

Our sale of bathing suits has been heavy. We still have a good assortment—from the cheaper ones to the better grades. Buy a suit now and join the bunch on the river.

*****

Eddy & Carbray

THE BIG STORE
Independence, Oregon.

3 Dance Specials

NOW ON SALE

18895 Coorturos	Lonesome Mama	Fox Trot
	The Virginians
	Memphis Blues	Fox Trot
		The Virginians
18910 Coortos	Soothing	Fox Trot
	All Star Trio and Orch.
	Night	Fox Trot
		Club Royal Orchestro
18911 Cooptandi	It's Up to You	Fox Trot
	Whitman and His Orch.
	'Neath The South Sea Moon	Fox Trot
	Whitman and His Orch.

These selections are listed in the August Supplement, but due to their increasing popularity the Victor Company has converted them into mid-summer "specials."

Victrolas $25 to $350

CRAVEN & WALKER
INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

AT LAST

A GUARANTEED TIRE AT THE LOW PRICE OF

$8.45

FOR A 30x3 1/2 NON SKID and

$7.35

For a 30x3 NON SKID

Stewart Motor Co.

C. A. ELLIOTT, Owner and Manager
Independence, Oregon

QUALITY
SERVICE

HAVOLINE OIL

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

"It Makes a Difference"

Pure Parafine base

Heat resisting

Uniform Quality

Costs very little more

Lasts twice as long—

Best Lubricating Oil Made

Here's Your Can of Havoline

J. D. HIBBS & COMPANY

POLK COUNTY DISTRIBUTORS HAVOLINE PRODUCTS