

TIRE PRICES

We have a
MICHELIN QUALITY

C O R D

To Fit Your Car at a Price to Fit Your Purse

MICHELIN CORDS COMBINE WONDERFUL CARCASS STRENGTH WITH A TREAD THAT RESISTS ALL ROADS

WHAT SIZE DO YOU USE?

30x3 1/2 Cord $12.75
No war tax and all other sizes in proportion

Independence Iron Wrks

Halladay, Justin & Wood
Independence, Oregon

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Sunday evening and had lunch in the auto camp ground.

Misses Mary and Elizabeth Schultz of Salem spent the weekend at the George Ruef home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oberson and little daughter, left Wednesday for a two weeks' stay at Netarts.

Gus Miller has been enjoying a visit of several days from a boyhood friend, Ed Gilliam of Portland.

Mrs. W. N. Sharp of Portland has been spending a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Horton.

Miss Lillian Kreyer of Portland has been visiting for several days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Job McLeod.

B. G. Davidson of Dallas, Manager of the Elliott Motor company, was in Independence yesterday attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Frost of Portland motored to Independence Sunday to visit for the day with Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Hedges.

Miss Thelma Williams, who has been for the past three weeks in a Portland sanitarium, has returned to Independence much improved in health.

Mrs. Van Detrick of Seattle, a resident here in the early days, was here last week greeting old friends.

Leonard Davis has purchased a new Ford coupe. He is working in Salem, driving to and from there daily.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Hewett and family were weekend guests of Mrs. Hewett's mother, Mrs. Wainscott, of Oakland, Oregon.

Harry Ord and H. Hirschberg went to Portland last night and they will be joined today by R. M. Walker and D. E. Fletcher.

Mrs. Leonard Ruch, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Independence hospital recently, is reported as improving rapidly.

J. G. McIntosh is recovering from intestinal poisoning. He has been confined to his home for about a week.

Mrs. Susan Jones and daughter Katherine of Corvallis, were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh.

Lee Robinson, accompanied by Miss Pearl Smith and Mrs. Frank Berry and children, is spending the week at Pacific City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker and Miss Emma Henkle have been spending a few days visiting with Roseburg relatives.

Miss Katherine Arbuthnot left Thursday for a visit of five weeks with friends in Des Moines and other Iowa towns.

Weekend guests at the W. H. Mattison home were Messrs Will Mattison, Frank Parker and Cpat. Ed. Parker of Astoria.

The Oak Point school house has been made still more attractive by new paint, the work being done by the Independence Paint company.

Rain last night—the first since about May 1st—put the red spider out of commission and at the same time is doing some damage to grain.

Mrs. L. Rice, who has been making her home at The Dalles for nearly a year, is here visiting with friends. Mrs. Rice may return here to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson of Helmick stopped here Tuesday and spent the day with friends while enroute to their home from a visit to the Yakima country of Washington.

Chester William Chambers of Kings Valley is driving a new Ford touring car which he purchased from the Stewart Motor company a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Batton of Portland, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Underwood of Astoria, spent Sunday at the home of Mr and Mrs. J. C. Donaldson.

Mr and Mrs Frank Hennagin, daughter Ethel, and Miss Carrie Bailey motored to Newport Friday. Mr. Hennagin returned Monday, the remainder of the party remaining for a week.

O. D. Byers is making improvements to his residence at the corner of Fourth and D streets. A porch, 8x20 feet is being added to the rear of the building.

Homer S. Wood, accompanied by Mrs. Wood and their children and Marylou Myers, drove to Pacific City, Sunday, and spent the day on the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Donaldson will leave Sunday on a two weeks outing. They will go first to Free-water and then go down the Columbia highway to Seaside and other points on the beach.

L. Damon is making extensive improvements to his residence, and when finished it will be virtually a new, modern structure. Concrete foundation, bath room and other important changes are being made.

Homer lodge, Knights of Pythias, will entertain Monday night in the lodge room with the Pythian Sisters as the complimented guests. There will be a program and a lunch will be served.

A. L. Thomas spent the weekend at the Hibbs cottage at Newport, where Mr. and Mrs. Hibbs and Mrs. Thomas are sojourning. Mr. Hibbs was in a critical condition for a few days, following an acute attack of indigestion, but he is gradually regaining his health.

J. W. Dimick made a brief halt here Wednesday while enroute from Portland to the McCredie hot springs, where he will remain for five or six weeks. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dimick and their grandson, Loren Lovering.

The members of the Woman's club are notified through the secretary, that the empty fruit jars to be filled for the Albertina Kerr home are at the Baptist church. Take a filled jar there and get an empty one in its place.

George H. Wood drove to Portland Tuesday morning and spent the day attending to business matters, returning in the evening. He was accompanied to Oregon City by Mrs. Wood, who spent the day with friends there.

Mrs. May Turner is having installed on her ranch near Airlie a Fairbanks-Morse pneumatic water system and is adding a bath room to the commodious ranch home. The work is being done by Mr. Booth for J. D. Hibbs & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henkle have been in Portland this week. They were accompanied there by A. L. Keeney, who returned Wednesday. The Henkles will be home today. Henkle and Keeney were in attendance at the annual meeting of the Oregon Funeral Directors' association.

E E Holcomb, who lives on a rural route out of Albany, accompanied by a neighbor, Frank Crabtree, was in Independence, Monday. Mr. Holcomb is a former resident of this city, leaving here about 18 years ago. He served on the police force here was also fire chief. Mr. Holcomb has been farming and came here for the purpose of locating a farm which could be rented.

Judge George W. Stapleton of Portland was here a few days ago attending to business matters and for a visit with relatives. The judge who was an Independence boy, apparently became confused and parked his car on the wrong side of the street. His attention to this was called by a friend before Chief of Police Parker had an opportunity of hauling the Portland jurist before the local police court.

Charles E. Hout, father of Miss Frank Hout, county librarian, died at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, August 31st, of complications which developed following a major operation to which he submitted a few days before his passing.

Mrs. Hout was with her husband during his illness and accompanied the remains to Corvallis, where interment was made in Crystal Lake cemetery.

L. T. L. PICNIC

A social gathering of the L. T. L. members at the M. E. Church Saturday proved to be a great success. They had a good program after which their pictures were taken. The program follows:

- Song—"We're Coming"
- Lord's Prayer.
- Roll call answered with Bible verse—28 responded.
- Song—"America is Free"
- Piece—"The cigarette will get you", given by Lavita Bulloch
- Solo—"What would Mother say" by organist.
- Readings—"A Talk" written by Bob Burnett, given by Evelyn Cleme, "Words of help for a Christian girl" read by Aunt Lou
- Song—"Whoever heard of a Poor Old Horse"
- Collection for farm home of 76c
- Pledges—Frances Willard's childhood, Anna Gordon
- Rally Crys—State and City
- Prayer—"Great King of Nations" written by John Gurney
- Because "Auntie" Ingram was not able to come to chaperone them the children took her ice cream, also some was taken to Mrs. Morgan, president of the W. C. T. U.

You can safely come to Dr. Thompson for consultation and examination, knowing that his years of experience and knowledge are always at your service. Consult him about your eyes next visit—Tuesday, Aug. 22—Local hotel all day. 11-2t

Cooked Food Sale

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a cooked food sale at the J. G. McIntosh Grocery, August 19th. 11-2t

FEW BARGAINS

Make $500 today—Swell little modern bungalow, 4 rooms, bath lavatory, lights, concrete walks and paved street, close in for $1100. Good terms

One acre ground, 2 large poultry houses, fine location, $750, terms.

INDEPENDENCE, REALTY CO.
J. E. Hubbard. C. B. Smith.

Patent Leather AND Flappers

We are making our first showing of the newest things in feminine footwear for the Fall season.

We are particularly pleased with our line, which includes all styles and makes.

"Flappers" are the niftiest thing on the market—patent leather straps, low heels, brown kid and black kid.

We carry a very complete line of shoes of all kinds. We want you to "SEE" what we have. Come to the store at any time and let us show you the new things in footwear. They are sensible in design and pleasing.

Eddy & Carbray

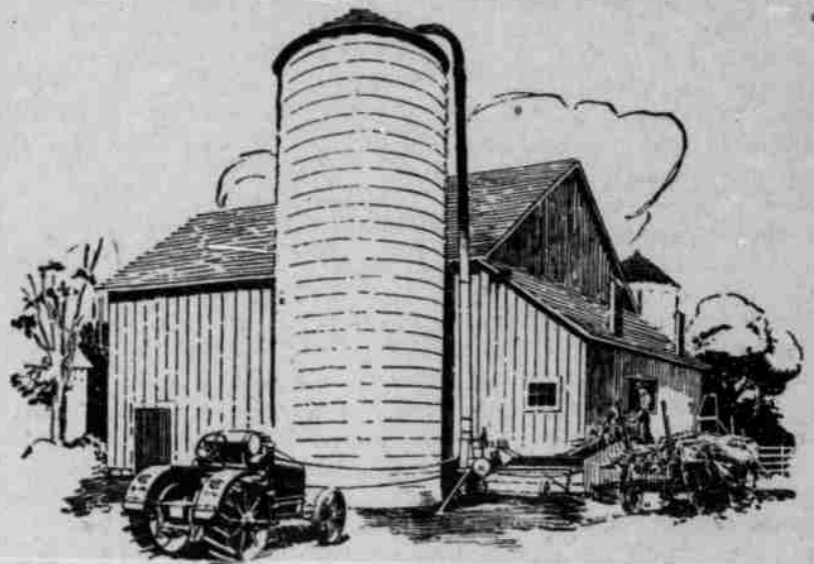

THE BIG STORE

Independence, Oregon.

Quality

Service

Ensilage Cutting

Demands

The Right Tools at the Right Time

The International or the Ross Ensilage Cutters are built for service and fill every requirement that can be demanded of them.

Strong - Durable - Servicable

Built Right—Prices Right

J. D. HIBBS & CO.

FARM MACHINERY

For Your Picnic Lunch

and any hot weather meal, our cold meats are unexcelled. We have a fine assortment of wholesome, delicious and satisfying meats. Phone your order. Our delivery service is efficient.

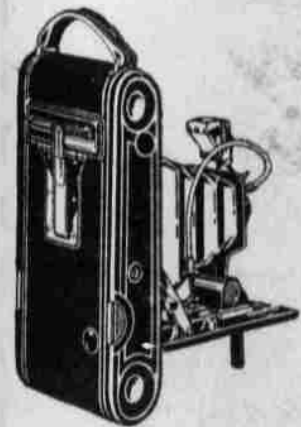

City Meat Market

GUS MILLER, Proprietor.
Independence, Oregon.

KODAK AHEAD

We operate a complete Kodak filling Station.

Fresh Eastman Kodak Films and Supplies

Box Brownies

$2.00 to $5.00

Auto Kodaks

$6.50 to $33

For better Pictures let us develop and print your Films

CRAVEN & WALKER
INDEPENDENCE, OREGON