

Bracelet Watches

$15 to $45

These prices are top notch values in Bracelet Watches. Every watch in this very attractive stock is a good time-piece. Each movement is a dependable one, well built and tested for accurate performance.

The ones costing more, naturally, are better watches, having more refinements in movements, or cases that it costs more to produce. But the price in each instance is a value which makes your watch very inexpensive whatever price you pay.

The newest shapes and sizes are here, and we invite your inspection.

The community exhibit for the county fair was collected Tuesday and Wednesday at the Wedekind store. The local grange had charge of the booth but the citizens took quite an interest in the collection and contributed some large pumpkins, sunflowers, fruit etc.

Braxton Powell was severely hurt last Sunday night when Ernest Riddell ran into his wagon damaging both Mr. Riddell's car and the wagon and causing the team to run away. Mr. Riddell was blinded by the lights of an approaching car and did not see Mr. Powell.

Mrs. Heffley and daughter, Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Stockholm and A. M. Arant went to Dallas Wednesday to prepare the community exhibit for the county fair.

Rev. Oscar Cooper, a student minister of the Eugene Bible school, will fill the pulpit of the Christian church next Sunday.

Oregon Normal

The annual reception given the students and townspeople by President Landers and the members of the faculty, last Saturday evening opened the Normal's social year auspiciously. The guests were received in the chapel which had been most attractively decorated with autumn flowers and foliage. President Landers gave a short address formally welcoming the newcomers and those returning after the summer's vacation to the Normal. To this, Miss May Burgoine responded fittingly in behalf of the members of the student body. A varied program followed consisting of music by Miss Moore, readings by Miss Darrah and instrumental selections by Misses Peterson which were all enthusiastically received. Further interesting numbers were three solo dances by Miss Ruth Hjerdis of O. A. C., department of physical training, and several vocal numbers by Mrs. Landers. Refreshments were served in the rooms in the west wing of the building.

The first student body meeting of the year was held last Thursday with Miss Jane Gunn, the vice president in charge. Burton Bell, the president, has not yet recovered sufficiently after a recent operation to return to school, though he expects to be in soon. Only routine business was taken up at this meeting.

Townspeople who wish to attend will be cordially welcome to the formal installation of officers to be held jointly by the women's literary societies on Friday evening, October 6. All literary society programs begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Butler and Miss Taylor chaperoned a large group of students who attended the state fair last Friday.

Mrs. Barnum and Miss Burrow of the Independence training school are teaching in the Coos county institute this week.

A motion picture called "The Hands of Nara", will be shown in the chapel Saturday evening, October 7. Clara Kimball Young plays the leading part.

During the past week, Miss Todd and the girls at the dormitory have had as guests several former students who stopped for a few hours on their way to Eugene to enter the University of Oregon.

Oak Point

Norval Pease has entered school again, having been absent last year. Mrs. Collins is going to Marshfield to do institute work, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who lived near the Oak Point school, have moved to their home in Independence. The community is very sorry to have them go.

John Titus has begun plowing his hop yard.

Mr. Crosson has been making preparation for a hunting trip the last of this month to Medford.

Dr. and Mrs. Dick De Armond of Portland were the visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert De Armond of Oak Point Sunday, Oct. 1.

The Oak Point school girls were kept very busy canning their winter fruit and vegetables.

The Oak Point school is going to have a booth at the Polk county fair at Dallas.

Mrs. Will Titus of Seattle is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Titus of Oak Point.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Alderson and the student teachers from the Oak Point school visited the State fair Saturday.

The second week of school showed a great increase in the number of pupils. The attendance now numbers 27.
