BUENA VISTA ITEMS DURING PAST WEEK

Mrs. W. D. Simmons was called to Portland Tuesday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. John Wells.

Mr. Newton, who has become foreman of the Wigrich ranch, moved his family from here to that place Monday. Dee Newton, however, expects to attend high school here this winter, this being his last term.

J. A. Reynolds and family attended the state fair Thursday.

R. M. Mack, our genial merchant, has put in a new side walk on the north side of the I. O. O. F. building, where he has his stock of merchandise.

Mrs. Wilbur Devine and son left for their home at Rockaway, Wednesday. Mr. Devine, who has been on a hunting trip in the southern part of the state, joined them here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Steinmetz of Toledo are here for a few days' stay at the H. M. Nash home and attending the state fair.

N. C. Anderson and wife were business callers near Amity Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Krutz of La

Grande are here with friends and attended the state fair. Guy Prather of Portland joined them in that city for a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prather.

D. A. Cole of American Bottom had a stroke of paralysis Sunday night and at this writing is in a critical condition. Dan Cole is at the bedside of his father helping care for him.

W. J. Stockholm, buyer for the fat stock association of Monmouth was here this week trucking out fat hogs for G. E. Harman, N. C. Anderson and R. Peterson. He declared every hog was prime stock.

ELIZA S. LOUGHARY PASSES AWAY AT DALLAS

Dallas—Eliza Simpson Loughary died at the home of her son, U. S. Loughary, in this city last Sunday at the age of 81 years. Deceased was the daughter of Middleton and Martha Jackson Simpson and was born at Little Rock, Ark. Her parents crossed the plains in 1845, reaching Oregon in the fall of that year. They located on their donation land claim
