

Why Not a Victrola Today?

and enjoy all the music from the World's greatest artists and musicians.

We have a plan that makes it easy for you to have a Victrola in your home

Come in today and let us demonstrate the Victrola and Victor Records

Craven & Walker
INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

E. A. Weddle was a Salem visitor Monday.

Mrs. M. J. O'Donnell spent Wednesday in Portland.

County Agent Paul Carpenter was in Independence last Saturday.

Mrs. W. C. Bullis and little daughter were Sunday visitors in Hoskins.

C. A. Elliott was in Portland yesterday attending to business matters.

Mrs. Burns of Rickreall spent Monday and Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. Weddle.

The Misses Plant and Rose of the Grich ranch were visitors in Salem Monday.

Major W. Lewis Rose of the Wigwag ranch, accompanied by Mrs. Rose, returned yesterday from Portland, where he spent several days attending to business matters.

Word has been received here to the effect that Mrs. Dole Pomeroy is quite ill in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Davidson left Thursday morning for a stay of several days at their cottage at Bar View.

W. N. Chapman is on the job again at the Independence Paint company establishment after being laid up for about 10 days by illness.

Mrs. McCloud and two children of Beaverton passed the weekend with Mrs. McCloud's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ingermanson.

Mrs. M. F. Ford has returned to her home here after an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Probst, at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Hougham and two children, and mother, Mrs. Hougham, motored to Hoskins Sunday to pass the day with Mr. Hougham's sister, Mrs. George Soule.

Ben Johnson is building concrete piers for the new foot bridge on Monmouth street. The superstructure will be of wood and will be built by Frank Bush.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. House and daughter Helen of Gresham were weekend guests of relatives in the city.

Herman Rape was in Independence Monday. For a time he was associated with Carl Anderson in the Palace restaurant. He is now located at Salem.

Born, at the Portland sanitarium, October 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. William F. Cassidy, a son. Mrs. Cassidy will be remembered as Miss Beulah Murphy, formerly of this city.

M. L. Neil has traded his ranch north of town for a ranch near Hermiston, and with his family will leave for his new location about the first of the month.

Mrs. William Dame was here from Portland and spent the weekend with her husband, bookkeeper at the Standard Oil plant here.

Miss Grace Seamans has resigned her position in the City meat market and she has been succeeded by Miss Mabel Fuller of Hillsboro.

Lieutenant Clinton McLeod, with his wife and infant son, after a visit of ten days with relatives and friends, left Monday for their home in Spokane.

M. H. Pengra, Ross H. Nelson and H. A. Joslin went to Eugene last Saturday and witnessed the Multnomah club of Portland take the university football team down the line to the extent of 20 to 0.

J. F. O'Donnell of Briggs, Idaho, stopped a few days this week at the Dr. O. D. Butler home. He is a brother-in-law of Dr. Butler, and was enroute from California to his home, and is now spending a few days in Portland.

Out of town guests at the E. A. Dunkel home were Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Johnson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Lancefield and son Paul of Amity and Mr. and Mrs. Will Collins of Dallas.

Dr. and Mrs. William Cavanaugh of Portland were guests at the G. C. Skinner home over the weekend. In the company of Mr. Skinner, Dr. Cavanaugh spent a part of his time here in quest of Chinas.

Bert Cross started work yesterday on the improvement of Log Cabin street in the north part of the city. He is grading the street and will cover it with gravel.

Attorney C. R. Ellis, who has formed a partnership with D. E. Fletcher, has moved his family here and is occupying the Barnett residence on Third street.

Attorney B. F. Swope was here Tuesday attending to legal matters. Mr. Swope expresses himself as being well satisfied with his law offices in Dallas.

The concrete foundation for the D. P. Lamb residence on West Monmouth street is being builded, and Contractor C. D. Smiley will soon start upon the carpenter work.

M. C. Williams and Willard E. Craven, disciples of the renowned Izaak, returned Wednesday night from Newport, where they had a few days of fine sport landing "Silver-sides" from the bay. They got a score or more of fine, big ones, and the outing otherwise proved enjoyable.

The Wman's Relief Corps will have as its honored guest on Saturday, October 21, Department President Clara Scholl of Hubbard. There will be an official inspection of the corps and a basket lunch. All members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. are invited.

H. H. Hansen, superintendent of the municipal lighting and power plant at Bandon, Coos county, in a letter to the Enterprise, expresses himself as being highly pleased with his situation and the prosperous little city. Mr. Hansen was in the battery business here before going to Bandon.

B. R. Wolfe was in Dallas last Friday night and attended a convocation of the Dallas Masonic lodge. Work in the master's degree was put on by the Dallas team, which is recognized as one of the best in the state. Mr. Wolfe was accompanied by James D. Moore of Monmouth. The Dallas team is to go to Salem November 8 and exemplify the work.

I. H. Veatch, who took possession of the Clay S. Taylor store at Pedee the first of the month, was in Independence Wednesday, accompanied by his son, Dale S. Veatch. Mr.

Veatch traded with Mr. Taylor a farm in Washington county, Oregon, for the store property. Mr. Veatch was formerly located at Cottage Grove, and is an enterprising, progressive business man.

W. R. Maillie is moving his family to Portland, and Mr. Maillie is contemplating the establishment of a barber business at Long Bell, the new town which is being brought into existence just across the river from Kelso, Wash.

Ted Irvine of Salem spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. T.W.Hart. Ted has been ill for many weeks. Another operation was performed upon him Monday, which is expected to start him upon the road to complete recovery.

The grading of the highway from Ed. Steele's to a point 2 1/2 miles south is practically completed. This was a part of the Hiltibrand contract sublet to Jim Shidley. The road follows an entirely new course with no bridges or culverts. There are several pipe spillways and concrete heads and these are being built by Kullander Bros.

In The Churches

M E Church
There will be regular services at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The choir under the directorship of Mrs. Lottie McIntosh has been reorganized, several new musical instruments added, and special music will be a feature of the meetings.

Church of Christ
Revival services every night at 7:45, Teddy Leavitt, evangelist. Friday evening, "What shall I do with Jesus?" Saturday evening, "Excuses." Sunday morning, 11 o'clock, "The uplifted Christ." Sunday evening, "Christ at the Door." Solo, "The Holy City" by Claude Neely of Eugene. Baptismal services, Sunday p. m. at the river. Bible school 10 a. m. Everybody is welcome.

Examine closely into Dr. Thompson's method of eye examination and his system of glass fitting and you will readily see why you can find comfort and satisfaction here, when possibly you have failed to do so elsewhere. Consult him about your eyes next visit—Tuesday, October 31. Local hotel all day. 20-2t

Neighbors of Woodcraft
Meetings of Independence Circle No. 69 are held the 2nd and 4th Friday of each month. Special business will be transacted at the next meeting and all members are requested to be present. 20-4t

Express To Your Door
We will deliver and collect for shipment all express matter within the city limits.
WELLS FARGO EXPRESS CO.
8-4t Charles E Kurre, Agent.

The New Fall Coats

ARE HERE

We are particularly well pleased with our new Fall Coats. Of the latest creations, they are certainly attractive, well made garments.

Marvelle cloth and Scotch Tweeds, with plain and fur collars. We have an excellent range in sizes and styles. We will be pleased to have you see them.

FALL SWEATERS

We are making our first showing of New Fall Sweaters for ladies and misses. They come in all colors—attractive, well made of substantial materials.

Eddy & Carbray

THE STORE FOR NEW THINGS TO WEAR

Independence, Oregon.

Trade your city property for 52 1/2 acre farm one-half mile from Independence. Balance easy payments and light interest.

We have nearly 15 acres 1 1/2 miles out, on paved road, 5 room house, dandy good barn, family orchard, 2 acres bearing strawberries, will trade $1500 equity for property in some good town in valley. This is located on paved road. Price $4500.

We have some good business property on Main street for sale. Here is a dandy 41 acres, one mile out, on good road, modern house, large barn, all land under plow for $5000, part cash, balance good terms. INDEPENDENCE, REALTY CO. J. E. Hubbard. C. B. Smith.

If a bird is worth treating for disease it is before she is half dead. Prevention rather than cure, first, last and always.

Lottie Hedges McIntosh
Voice and Piano
Residence Phone 4821
Accredited High School Teacher
Fall Term Begins Oct. 1st

Your Next Suit

Should be a Tailored to Measure Suit. Especially so if you are hard to fit. We are making Special Prices on the Ed V. Price line and if you compare our Prices you will find there a big difference and the saving is yours.

Let us show you
O. A. KREAMER
Duds for Men
Independence, Oregon

Fish and Oysters

We carry Halibut, Salmon, Crabs and Oysters. If you want oysters, however, it is better to place your order ahead in order that we may be able to meet your requirements.

Meat Prices Continue Low.
Let us supply your wants
City Meat Market
GUS MILLER, Proprietor.

B. R. Wolfe was in Dallas last Friday night and attended a convocation of the Dallas Masonic lodge. Work in the master's degree was put on by the Dallas team, which is recognized as one of the best in the state. Mr. Wolfe was accompanied by James D. Moore of Monmouth. The Dallas team is to go to Salem November 8 and exemplify the work.

I. H. Veatch, who took possession of the Clay S. Taylor store at Pedee the first of the month, was in Independence Wednesday, accompanied by his son, Dale S. Veatch. Mr.

QUALITY SERVICE

Before putting up that Heater give the floor a new

DRESS

It will cheer you all winter

If it is a stain and varnish finish our Mar-not is the best made for the purpose.

If it is a painted surface our S. W. P. floor Paint has the body and gloss to wear well.

Don't forget that there are only a few more days left to paint that porch floor or outside windows.

SHERWIN WILLIAMS PAINTS, VARNISHES, ETC. ARE GOOD

J. D. Hibbs & Co. Exclusive Dealers