J. B. Stump and wife, of Salem, were in this city Wednesday. Mr. Stump is an old pioneer, and we believe, he was principal of the first academic school taught in Monmouth. He was for years one of Polk county's prominent citizens, but is now a permanent resident of the capital city.

Willis Jordan, who has been serving a short sentence in the county jail, was tried before Justice Smith, of Dallas, on last Monday for trespassing upon the premises of Judge Haydel, and sentenced to pay a fine of $75 in the county jail. Not having the necessary "free silver" Jordan was again committed to jail.

TOLD IN SIDE HEADS.

False Fire Alarm.—L. C. Gilmore requests us to state that at 5 o'clock p. m. Saturday the Independence Water Works will blow a false fire alarm.

Card of Thanks.—To the many kind friends who have given their sympathy and assistance in our sad bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks—also for many beautiful flowers. Our friends will always be remembered and their many kind offices never forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Price.

New Ads.—We take pleasure in calling public attention to the new ads of Messrs. Craven & Co., of this city, and H. C. Epley and J. H. Frazer, resident dentists of Monmouth. Nearly all of our ads have been changed in style and wording this week and many new announcements made. Our readers will find it to their interest to give our advertising columns a careful reading.

A New Warehouse.—The owners of the steamer Eugene are preparing to build a new warehouse at this place, near the old boat landing below the Prescott & Veneas sawmill. This company expects to engage actively in river traffic and will make a strong pull to secure a fair share of the Independence trade. The Eugene is a staunch and reliable steamboat and is well adapted to the navigation of the Willamette river.

A Revival Meeting.—Quite an interesting revival meeting closed at the Baptist church last Sunday. There were eleven conversions, and six baptised by immersion. The baptismal ceremony took place last Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Jenkins is doing a good work in awakening the religious sentiment of the people. He is quite a persuasive speaker and his presentation of moral and religious truths pleases as well as convinces his hearers. On next Sunday there will be a membership reception meeting.

Firemen's Ball.—The ball given by the Independence fire company on Thanksgiving evening was one of the most brilliant and successful social events of the season. There were some fifty odd couples in attendance, and they tripped the "light fantastic toe" until the gray streaks of dawn warned the gallant young gentlemen that it was time to "go home with the girls in the morning." Pros. S. Butler's orchestra, of Monmouth, furnished the music. Supper was served at the Little Palace Hotel. The net receipts were about $20.

Sunny Slope School.—The people of school district No. 53, the new district west of Monmouth, have recently completed a neat school house, and the district's first term of school began last Monday with ten pupils in attendance. Miss Eva Taylor is teacher. The school will be furnished with the best style of patent seats, soon as the order already sent in can be filled. The pupils are using bench seats temporarily. The school house is a necessity in every neighborhood for it is there that every child and another part of the foundation of a useful education. The money expended in building school houses is the safest and best investment that any community can make. It is bread cast upon the waters.

Experience Social.—The members of the Christian Endeavor held quite an interesting social at the Christian church in this city on Thursday evening. A short but interesting program was rendered which consisted of recitations and music. Each member was pledged to earn twenty-five cents by manual labor for their contribution, and the "experiences" were a considerable feature of the entertainment. One young lady earned her contribution by sacking potatoes by lamplight while her partner, a young gentleman, did the digging; another young lady polished a young gentleman's boots and earned her contribution; one lady sheared a sheep skin and earned her contribution; and another young lady earned her contribution by sacking potatoes by lamplight while her partner, a young gentleman, did the digging; another young lady polished a young gentleman's boots and earned her contribution;
