Frank O'Brien returned home last Saturday from a two months visit to Iowa and Missouri. Mr. O'Brien says that he experienced weather 20 and 40 degrees below zero. He says that the financial stringency is a good deal keener in those states than it is here in Oregon. Mr. O'Brien says that the financial condition of this state at the present time compares favorably with flush times in Missouri. Frank comes home thinking more of Oregon than ever.

At the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Independence National bank, held Tuesday evening, a dividend of 2 per cent was declared. The Independence National bank has been in existence six years and it has been the custom hitherto to declare a dividend every six months, but owing to the financial stringency during the past year the board deferred declaring a dividend until this annual meeting. It is the purpose of the board to declare a 2 per cent dividend every 90 days in the future.

The Christian Sunday school will give the Sunday school pupils that have attended regularly for one month without missing a Sunday, a free evening's entertainment on Friday evening, March 8, at 7:30 p. m. at the Christian church. All others who may wish to attend will be charged 10 cents. Prof. T. O. Hutchinson will furnish the entertainment with a very fine set of stereopticon views. The usual price for the evening's entertainment is 25 cents. You are invited to be present. Proceeds for the Sunday school library.

Independence. Hon. John W. Fairbank, superintendent of the Puget Sound Chautauqua association for the past three years, will give an illustrated stereopticon entertainment. Leading parts of this celebrated book will be brilliantly portrayed by means of one of the finest dissolving stereopticons. A large number of beautiful views illustrating the career of "Ben Hur," and this "Tale of the Christ" will be thrown onto the large canvas and the story will be vividly told. The entertainment is for the benefit of the Congregational church. Admission for adults 25 cents, children under 14 years 15 cents. Doors open at 7:15 p. m. Entertainment at 7:45 p. m. Tuesday evening, March 12, 1895.

New Dress Making Parlor.—Mrs. T. Layton Jenks and Mrs. Frank Lewis have opened out a dressmaking establishment in the residence of Mrs. D. B. Taylor on C and Railroad streets. These ladies are finished artists in their line and always give good satisfaction to their patrons. They do work promptly and satisfactorily. Fitting and cutting done in the latest styles and at prices to suit the times. Be sure and give them a call.

Wooden Wedding.—Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Butler celebrated their wooden wedding Tuesday evening last at their residence in this city. There were present some 47 guests, relatives of Dr. Butler and wife. The usual refreshments were served and a very pleasant social time enjoyed by all. The evening's amusement consisted of music and parlor games. Many presents were presented to the kind host and hostess as a memento of the auspicious occasion.

DIED.
HARRISON.—At her residence in Independence, Or., March 5, 1895, at 12:35 p. m., after a brief illness of a few hours only, Mrs. Laura V. Harrison, aged 46 years, 4 months and 13 days.
The deceased was the daughter of Mrs. Nancy V. Goff and the late Samuel F. Goff, and was born October 20, 1848, on the Rieckrell, Polk county, Oregon. Mrs. Harrison was twice married. The first marriage was on the 29th of January, 1863, to Mr. Jerry Gelwick. There were born three sons from this marriage—David, Alfred and Frank, all of whom are living. Mr. Gelwick, the husband of the deceased, died several years ago. Subsequently the deceased was married to Mr. A. C. Harrison, of Colfax, Wash., July 14, 1890, Mr. Harrison living only some two years after his marriage to Mrs. Gelwick. Since the death of her second husband Mrs. Harrison has made her home in this city. She was a lady of amiable character and enjoyed a large circle of friends. Her death was a great shock to this community for within a few hours of her death she was apparently in good health. The immediate cause of her death was from heart disease. The funeral and burial services were held at the Odd Fellow cemetery at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of the Clover Leaf lodge No. 26, Rev. D. V. Poling, of Albany, conducted the services. The deceased leaves a number of relatives in this county, together with a host of friends, to mourn her untimely taking off. Laura Harrison was an affectionate mother, a dutiful daughter and a tender and sympathetic woman. None knew her only to respect her. A noble woman has gone to her rest.

FALLS CITY.
J. S. Mitchell's new house is nearing completion.
W. Leavett, of Dallas, was seen on our streets Tuesday.

Mine Host Hollowell is building a new picket fence around his hotel, and otherwise improving the premises.
Dr. S. C. Brown is preparing a neat two-story residence on the corner of Bridge and Montgomery streets.

Rev. Swackhammer, a recent arrival from Pennsylvania, is holding a series of meetings here. Interest is good.

Misses Vina C. Gilbert, Winnie Gilbert, and Messrs W. C. Bryant, J. N. Hart, C. L. Starr, L. M. Murray and W. F. Nichols are our progressive teachers who attended teachers meeting at Dallas Saturday.

Among the teachers of this place, following are the location of a few of them: L. M. Murray, Concord; C. L. Starr, Upper Salt Creek; Retta Hart, McMinnons Valley; W. C. Bryant, Guthrie; Sadie White, Hazel Dell; J. C. McFarlane, Oakdale; C. J. Graham, Bridgeport; Mrs. Minnie Kramer, No. 60. In Falls City school district J. S. Montgomery was re-elected director, and A. H. Dodey in district No. 60, J. C. Wilkes, Geo. Gardner and A. Wolfe were elected directors in district 53, Mr. Dunn.

LEWISVILLE.
Farmers are busy and getting along nicely with their work.
Quite a lively time was had at the school meeting Monday. D. O. Bronson was elected director and Wm. Lewis re-elected clerk.

The entertainment given at this place for the benefit of the Sunday school, was a grand success in every particular. A large crowd was present and the five cent counters were very liberally patronized.
Tracy Staats will take charge of the school in the Montgomery district, adjoining here, about the first of April, and will teach a spring and summer term.

Miss Vina Gilbert, of Falls City, has been engaged to teach the school at this place, to begin soon.

Farmers are putting in their best licks this fine weather.
Bill Riels, of near Albany, bought 25 head of goats of I. M. Simpson last week.

Robert Tarter and Guy Denning had a lively time working a wild and woolly "burich graser" a few days ago.
The powder that was to have been used here Monday night proved to be of the smokeless and noiseless brand, therefore the night was not made hideous by its report.

Hon. J. O. Staats was re-elected school clerk last Monday. He is now serving out his seventeenth year as an officer of this district. We claim for him the honor of being the oldest public officer in the county.
Jim Hillbrand was busy clipping the mohair from Isaac Simpson's goats last week.

A. N. Fulkerson is getting along nicely with his school at this place. He will teach the spring term.
Virtue, against immorality, was the main issue at our school meeting last Monday. Sixty votes were polled and the result showed that Breckenridgeism was completely routed and driven to the wall. Through the election of Hon. I. M. Simpson, director, the fact was established that a large majority of the people of this community still believe that decency, respectability and morality should pervade the school room. The women did it.

PARKER.
F. Elgin's youngest child is reported dangerously ill at his home in Suver's.

FAIR VIEW.
D. M. Gilliam's little boy is quite sick.
Mr. James Brown is also quite ill.
Miss Phindie Clark, of Smithfield, was up to see her friend Miss Lottie Elliot.

Miss Dora Guthrie, who lives near the Grace Church, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity. She is in poor health.
The roads are getting in fine condition, and there is a good deal of driving on Sunday's. The young ladies won't want for buggy rides now.

Miss Fannie Owen is visiting her brother near Salem.
William Bryant, of Falls City, will teach the Guthrie school this spring.
There will be preaching here next Sunday by Rev. Ginn.
