

A Full Line of Sugars, syrups, coffees and teas at Douty & Locke's.

Motor Line Time Table.

Line	Days	Leaves	Arrives
1	Mon	6:30 a. m.	10:30 a. m.
2	Tue	6:30 a. m.	10:30 a. m.
3	Wed	6:30 a. m.	10:30 a. m.
4	Thu	6:30 a. m.	10:30 a. m.
5	Fri	6:30 a. m.	10:30 a. m.
6	Sat	6:30 a. m.	10:30 a. m.
7	Sun	6:30 a. m.	10:30 a. m.

LODGE DIRECTORY.

HOMER LODGE, No. 45, K. of P.
Meets every Wednesday evening. All members in good standing will take $1.00 dues and govern themselves accordingly. Visiting Knights are invited to attend when convenient.
O. A. KRAMER, C. C.
J. B. MOORE, K. R. S.

BUSINESS CARDS.

D. D. BUTLER—PHYSICIAN
and Surgeon. Secretary U. S. Examining Surgeon, Independence, Oregon. Office in opera house block.

LEE & BABBITT—
Physicians and Surgeons. Special attention paid to diseases of women. Office over Independence National Bank, Independence, Ore.

E. L. KETCHUM, M. D.—OFFICE
and residence, corner Railroad and Main streets, Independence, Oregon.

ITEMS OF LOCAL NEWS.

O. A. Kramer—Jeweler.
Pure leghorn eggs for sale—H. L. Ford
Dr. Epley, the dentist, guarantees all his work.
You can save 30 per cent by buying shoes of Patterson.

If you eat Strong's bread you will get fat and strong.
H. L. Ford and family have moved over into third ward.
Two papers or 720 brass pins at the Racket store for 5 cents.
Fast trains and the best accommodations on the N. P. R. R.
Mrs. A. S. Locke is visiting friends in McMinnville this week.
Mrs. Claire Irvine returned home Monday from a visit to McMinnville. Buy your bread at Douty & Locke's. They keep Strong's home made bread.
J. T. Ford and family were visiting relatives and friends in Monmouth last Sunday.
Jasper Kennedy has put up a neat front porch to his residence on Railroad street.
Don't forget the St. Patrick's day dance at the opera house on the evening of the 18th.
The infant child of C. C. Mulkey, of Monmouth, is quite ill with membranous croup.

A. H. Moore, recently one of the ENTERPRISE force, has opened a racket store in Dayton, Wash.
Mrs. F. E. Griffith returned home Tuesday from a week's visit with her parents in McMinnville.
The Independence Junior Dancing Club will give a St. Patrick's day dance, Monday, March 18.
Why go without clothes when Jenks the tailor will furnish you with a suit for $14 or a pair of pants for $4.
Clide Hurley, son of Judge H. Hurley, of Portland, is visiting at his uncle's, Hon. A. M. Hurley, of this city.
Call and get Patterson's prices on shoes, then you will know what a saving you can make on a purchase.
Quite an invoice of new goods arrived at the Mercantile Company's store at Monmouth last Monday.
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chance Mulkey, of Monmouth, died Tuesday evening after a short illness.
Mrs. Armstrong, of Corvallis, has been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dockstader, during the week.
The "Alice A" leaves Independence every morning at 9 o'clock a. m., for Salem, and returning leaves Salem at 1:30 p. m.
The steamer Altona made two excursion trips to Salem last Tuesday. Quite a number of our citizens joined the excursions.
The Bou Bon always carries the best and purest candies, fresh fruits, nuts of all kinds, as well as the finest lines of cigars and tobaccos.
Green Campbell, of Salt Creek, has recently returned from an extended trip in Southern Oregon where he has been looking over the country.
We sell you sewing needles at 1 cent per paper. Try them. And curtain rings, as well as haven't figures small enough to tell the price of one. Racket Store.
J. S. Cooper, president of the First National bank of this city, visited over Sunday with his daughters, who are attending the State University at Eugene.
Carpenters have commenced work on the front addition to G. L. Hawkin's dwelling on the west side of Railroad street.
In speaking of Prof. Hayes' diploma of honorable mention from the Columbia Fair the types made us use the word "publication" instead of "perfection" in last week's issue.
H. E. Anderson is now at work for R. M. Wade & Co., of this city. He arrived from the East on Friday last, coming here from Independence on Monday.—McMinnville Telephone-Register.

The country now changes from a democratic administration to a negative government. The next house is republican, but the senate is a seasaw, while the executive is democratic. No positive legislation is to be expected for two years yet.—Hillsboro Independent.
Meet all good people who leave Corvallis to better themselves elsewhere, ultimately drift back again.—Corvallis Times. We frequently hear the same remark made in regard to Independence. It is curious how provincial conceit influence and bias the opinions of good natured, well meaning people everywhere.
If you want jobwork just a little better than any other shop in the county can do, leave your orders at the ENTERPRISE office. Their workmen are artists, and know how to avoid offensive combinations so frequently seen in the work of would-be "first-class" printers. Prices are as low as you would have to pay for inferior work.
The Sunday Statesman says: "T. J. Cherington of this city, filed with the Statesman yesterday afternoon a harbinger of spring in the shape of a twig loaded with beautiful, fully grown and scented apple blossoms. The twig came from one of his trees on his place on North Commercial street, and the tree is one mass of fragrant blossoms. The zero-ridden denizens of the east may gain a lesson in climatic variations by the palpable reflection that every day fruitage is well under way in Oregon on the 9th day of March, while their expectations back there are exceedingly remote, to say the least of it."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, Strong's home made bread sells on its merits. Try it.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Editor Noltner, of the Portland Dispatch, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call on Thursday of last week. Mr. Noltner is one of Oregon's veteran editors, a life-long democrat and a pleasant gentleman. We are always glad to receive calls from representatives of the press.
If you want to purchase blank warranty deeds, quit-claim deeds, bond for deeds, real estate mortgages, chattel mortgages (filing or recording), crop mortgages, release of mortgages, renewal of chattel mortgages, or any other legal blanks, call at this office. Mail orders promptly filled. Send for price list.
Early last Monday morning Governor Lord was called upon to honor the request of the governor of Missouri authorizing the arrest and return to that state of Isaiah Bradley, colored, who is under indictment at Kansas City charged with illegal voting and false registration. Bradley has been located at a Portland hotel by officers of the law.
The home of F. M. Townsend in Independence was burglarized last Monday evening by some unknown thief. Among the valuables stolen were a black diagonal coat almost new, two pairs of diagonal pants, a hat, two gold rings, a $2.50 piece and two 25 cent gold pieces, keepsakes of Mrs. Townsend, two pocket books containing $500 worth of notes, $700 of stock in the Oregon Hedge Fence Company and other valuable papers.

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.
The "Alice A" goes to Salem every day in the week, except Sunday.
The ENTERPRISE and Oregonian for $2 a year. Inquire at this office.
J. B. Nennith, of Rickreall, was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Hood's Pills cure jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all liver ills.
Ira Nash, of Buena Vista, gave the ENTERPRISE office a pleasant call last Saturday.
Charlie Irvine is making some neat improvements to his residence on Sixth street.
Mrs. M. Beamer, of Salem, was visiting friends in this city last Friday and Saturday.
If you want a first-class job of plumbing or tinning call on Scott Jacobs at R. M. Wade & Co.
Richardson Bros. have been making some repairs on the west end of the Vanduyken mercantile building.
The traveling public appreciate good hotel accommodations. The best in Independence will be found at the Little Palace hotel.
Dr. T. J. Lee, of this city, and J. E. Miller, the Monmouth druggist, were transacting business in the capital city Monday.
Miss Pauline Robertson, daughter of D. W. Robertson of near Portland, is visiting her cousin, Miss Essie Robertson, of this city.
Mrs. Ellen Robertson accidentally slipped on the sidewalk in front of her residence one day last week and badly sprained her spine.
The only reliable sewing machine, the Singer, for sale at E. B. Berg's. Those wanting a cheap, first class machine should give him a call.
Fuller, the blacksmith, is still in town and doing better and cheaper work for cash than any shop in Polk county. You will find him at the old stand.
The settlement of the senatorial contest in Oregon was followed by three earthquake shocks.—Statesman. Yes, even nature joined in ratifying Hon. Geo. W. McBride's election.
Isaac McElmurry, of Linn county, was visiting in this city during the forepart of the week. Mr. McElmurry used to reside in this vicinity and is well known in Polk county.
Geo. W. Reed, our quondam fellow townsman but now of Salem, was shaking hands with friends on the streets of this city last Friday. George is as jolly and bonhomie as ever.
The county convention of the W. C. T. U., announced to convene in this city on the 22d instant, has been postponed to the early part of April. Announcements will be made in due time.
John B. Fisher has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Irvine. Mr. Fisher has been an invalid from paralysis for several years, but is improving quite materially of late.
Prof. Shipley, of Monmouth public schools, returned from a business trip to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Shipley has not been in charge of his school for several weeks owing to an attack of lagrippe.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Essie Robertson by a number of her friends on the evening of the 11th instant. The occasion being the 21st anniversary of Miss Robertson's birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly.
G. L. Hawkins has moved his marble work shop to the west side of Railroad street on a lot which he recently purchased of J. E. Hubbard. Mr. Hawkins is going to put a four room front addition to his dwelling in the near future.
We learn from the Statesman that "Mrs. Judge Bean, as business manager of the ladies issue of the Daily Statesman, has turned over to Mayor F. E. Hodgkin, secretary of the Salem Board of charity, a check on Ladd & Bush for $231.90, as the net proceeds of that edition."

Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work