Now comes Mr. Henry Clews, as spokesman for the associated banks, who tells us that the gold standard men have about accomplished their object in reducing "all prices down to the gold basis, that iron is down, wheat is down, silver, wool and cotton are all down solely in consequence of the reduction of prices to the gold standard—that a dollar now purchases more than it did, and therefore no one is injured."

The newspaper's a local necessity to any town or community. No town of 1000 population can prosper as it should without a local paper to voice its claims and speak of its advantages.

This British-Nicaraguan trouble is to be settled by the Nicaraguans paying "Johnny Bull" that $75,000 "smart money." It is the policy of Great Britain to bully the weak and to temporize with the strong.

Russia, France and Germany, the great robber nations of Europe, are trying to bully Japan out of the legitimate fruits of her magnificent victory.

called for the first Tuesday in May 1895. Said meeting will be held at the city hall at 10 o'clock a. m. All hop growers are expected to be present and participate.

Leat.—On the road between Monmouth and Airle last Friday afternoon, April 26, 1895, a ladies gold watch with a small black guard attached. It is the property of Mrs. L. S. Fisher, of Monmouth, and greatly prized, being a present from a dear friend a few years ago.

A Pleasant Social.—The young people of this city were given a very pleasant social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cooper last Friday evening. The evening's amusements consisted of parlor games, etc. Cake and ice cream refreshments were served, and not until near the waning hour of midnight did the guests wish their kind host and hostess "good night."

Card of Thanks.—I wish to return my sincere thanks to neighbors and friends for their kindly offices during the late fatal illness and at the funeral and burial services of my beloved wife. Their many kind words and acts of sympathy will always be gratefully remembered by me.—R. J. Wilson.

MONMOUTH. Put in your gardens. We failed to appear last week but won't do so any more. Mr. and Mrs. Chance Mulkey take charge of the dining hall this week.

Why not make Monmouth the flower garden of Polk county—nothing beautifies the home like a lawn and flowers—cultivate more flowers. Why not have electric lights for Monmouth, we need them and need them bad—let's have them.

Look out for the Novellos at the chapel on May 17. They will give some of the songs composed for the Republican convention. The boys go to Portland on the 22nd loaded with campaign songs of their own composition. This will be a great aid for Polk county.

As we sit in our sanctum in deep meditation, our thoughts are distracted by the inharmonious sounds of the cow bells. The cow ordinance is at an end and now all one can see is cows, cows, cows; big cows, little cows, old cows, fat cows, lean cows, hornless cows, and cows. That adds greatly to the appearance of the home.

The team of Mrs. Whiteaker became frightened at the motor and started to run, one horse got his leg over the tongue and succeeded in breaking that unruly member, assistance came at that junction and saved any further damage.

Mrs. M. J. Pryne, of Eugene, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. John Murphy. It has been 40 years since the two ladies met. Miss Lowella Tilton, of Eugene, is also the guest of Mrs. Nate Emmett.

Dr. Crowley has built a new walk around his residence. Mrs. McCulloch moved to her farm east of Salem, Monday. Spring has come at last and the voice of the frog is heard in the land.

Owing to Hex and Rex being out of town last week their items did not appear in these columns. Mrs. A. A. Bently has moved into Mrs. Zieher's residence where she will live, while Mrs. Zieher is gone from town.

Dr. E. J. Collins, of Dallas, was in town Sunday visiting his sisters—and other friends. One of the most exciting events of the week was Dr. Epley's first experience riding a wheel.

Gene Catron is preparing to rebuild the warehouse that was burned. Died, at the home of Lark Hall, in this city, James Tatom, Sunday noon.

This sunny, mocking, spring weather makes one feel that a new lease of life has been given them, and they rejoice exceedingly until the fact that house cleaning time has again come, and with dismay they look around and exclaim: "Tell me ye winged winds, that round my pathway roar, do ye not know some quiet spot where wives clean house no more; some lone sequestered dale, some island, ocean girl, where life is not one ceaseless war with cobwebs and with dirt.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan, who have had charge of the culinary department of the dining hall, are moving into their own residence. The students are loth to part with them.

Rev. S. A. Starr is now convalescent, and will soon be up and around again. The remains of Jas. Tatom, of Monmouth, and Mrs. Mason, mother of Dr. Mason, of this city, were buried in the Dallas cemetery Tuesday.

A number of young men of this city are expecting to start for California soon. Otho Williams is having an addition built to his house. The Masons from the different lodges in the county conducted the services at Mr. Tatom's funeral.

There was a large crowd present at the Odd Fellows' meeting in this city last Sunday. B. F. Mulkey delivered the address. There is considerable sickness in the city at the present time. Dallas is well supplied with bicycle agents.

Judge Burch, of Rickreall, was in Dallas Tuesday attending to the duties of his office. The people of Dallas will be well supplied with vegetables this season as there are a number of people in and around here preparing to plant large gardens.

Dr. Embree preached from the M. E. church pulpit Sunday. There is some talk of a new saloon being started in town. The Dallas band has several new members and they are beginning to play quite well.

There are some prospects that Dallas will have a new livery stable. Mr. Brown, of Salem, is running the Holman hotel and is keeping a good house. Beautiful weather since the showers.

Dow Baldwin and Prof. Storms made a flying trip to Dallas last week. Jack Nelson and family moved out near Suver the first of last week. Monroe Kreutz is working with the U. S. surveying party on the river.

Henry Seaton and John Kays visited Dallas last week. Rev. Yost preached here last Sunday. He will preach again the 2d Sunday in May at 11 o'clock a. m. Prof. Storms left for Corvallis last Monday.

The Union Sunday school elected Mary and Della Shives and Geo. McLaughlin as delegates to attend the Sunday school convention at Dallas. The musical entertainment last Saturday evening was a grand success.

Selections of instrumental music and songs were grand. Mr. Lerch in his comic songs brought down the house. Garden planting and debating the Williams-Lamont murder seems to be the only live issues here for the past week.

Chas. McDevitt, of Dallas, was in town Sunday. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

HEART DISEASE! Fluttering, No Appetite, Could Not Sleep, Wind on Stomach. "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought that every minute would be my last.

There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and am happy to say it has cured me. I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. Its effect was truly marvelous."

DON'T dispute with a woman when she says our goods are the only ones to buy because she knows what she is talking about. DON'T argue with her when she says our prices are money-savers; she talks like a sensible woman. DON'T try to excuse yourself for going to some other store instead of ours. You know that you can offer no reason that can be sufficient for going to the store where the Best and Cheapest go together.

DON'T expect your wife to meet you pleasantly if you've been to some other store than ours when she expressly told you to go nowhere else. Do these things if you expect to live long and keep your hair on. WE WANT all people to drop in and see our line of Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Shoes, Dry Goods and Groceries. We have the largest line ever offered in the county, and at the lowest prices on earth. Come and see. Monmouth Mercantile Co., MONMOUTH, OREGON
