Yamhill county has nine newspapers already, and it comes to our ears that two more will be established at McMinnville in the near future, one republican and one populist. N. O. Clodfelter has purchased the city street sprinkler and outfit of A. W. Duellstader. Harry Clodfelter runs the sprinkler, and by the way he keeps the streets well sprinkled, too.

Rev. J. B. Lister will preach at the Christian church in this city, Sunday, June 3. Programs for the services will be distributed in this city and vicinity. The public is cordially invited. Will Brooks, one of Salem's wide awake business men, gave this office a social call Saturday. Mr. Brooks was publisher and editor of the West Side in 1888, and sold his interest to E. C. Fountain.

Cash paid for poultry and eggs at the Star Grocery.

Go to Clodfelter Bros. and vote for the "Queen of Roses." Rev. L. S. Fisher, of the Evangelical church, will preach in the Calvary church three miles south of Monmouth next Sunday at 3:30 p. m. All are invited.

State Senator, O. C. Cooper and family, of Grantsdale, Ravalli County, Montana, arrived in the city yesterday and are the guests of his uncle, E. W. Cooper. John Muller, one of our first class butchers, has purchased an interest in Spray & Ebert's meat market at Monmouth. Mr. Muller removed his effects to Monmouth last Saturday.

The Salem Woodmen's lodge last Friday and Saturday received 169 new members. This is said to be the largest number received in the same period in the Pacific jurisdiction of the order. The McMinnville Telephone Register says: G. S. Berg, who attempted suicide last week, is slowly progressing toward recovery. He now wants to live, and says he did a very foolish act. His face has been drawn together, and he will be much disfigured if he gets well.

While crossing the Luckiamute near Samuel Tetherow's last evening Dr. T. J. Lee had the misfortune to be thrown from his buggy, dislocating his left shoulder. The dislocated member was reset and the doctor is getting on quite well. Geo. W. Reed, of Salem, was visiting in the city the first of the week. Mr. Reed is a former resident and ex-recorder of Independence. His many friends were glad to see his smiling countenance among them again. The EXTERPRISE acknowledges a pleasant call.

Miss Florence Wagner, of this city, personated a Japanese girl at Vanluya, Veness & Wheeler's matinee or fancy concert last Saturday. The display of fancy goods was quite interesting, but the chief attraction was Miss Wagner's beautiful Japanese costume. Bro. Snyder, of the Dallas Transcript, kindly reminds us that we have a treacherous memory. He says that Dallas celebrated Decoration day last year. So we were mistaken in saying that Independence that day in Polk county. We are under obligations to Bro. Snyder for setting us right in this matter.

On Friday evening last the medal contest took place in the opera house. The contestants were Mrs. Nettie Ungerman, Mrs. W. T. Vinton, Mrs. Clara G. Eason, Mrs. F. P. Vinton, Mrs. A. M. Shadden and Mrs. J. P. Irvine. The judges were Mrs. E. C. Apperson, H. H. Case and A. M. Perry. The medal was awarded to Mrs. J. P. Irvine, who is undoubtedly one of the very best elocutionists in the valley. The title of her recitation was "The Dandy Fifth."—Telephone Register.

The Salem Social Club were greeted with a large audience at the opera house in this city last Saturday evening. The play was operatic and literary in its character and the various parts were quite well rendered. Mrs. Charles Rieley is the theater performer of the troupe, some of her renditions being very fine. We understand the company had about a $75 house, which was doing very well, indeed, for this city. The company played under the auspices of the Independence Athletic Club.

TOLD IN SIDE HEADS. Bill of Fare.—You can get any priced meal you want at the City restaurant from 10 cents up. Go to the City restaurant for short order meals. Wanted.—A boy between 15 and 17 years of age to learn the baker's trade. Must be willing to work and of steady habits. For further particulars inquire of Geo. G. Strong, the baker. Postponed.—The Hop-Growers' meeting was postponed until Saturday, June 8. The meeting will be held at the city hall at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of effecting permanent organization and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. It is hoped that a large attendance of hop growers will be present.

Another Pioneer Gone.—The one died at Salem last Friday afternoon one of Oregon's best known missionary pioneers, Rev. J. L. Parrish, was taken to this country in 1840. He was born January 14, 1804, consequently was nearly 80 years old. Rev. Parrish was a man of generous and patriotic impulses and gave his best abilities to the development of the commonwealth with which he had been identified for more than a half a century. There were few men who did more for Oregon than the kindly hearted old missionary preacher who "crossed the silent river" last Friday.

Dayton team succeeded in scoring 5 tallies, which gave them the game off hand. There is talk of a second game, Independence to visit Dayton and play the Yamhill boys upon their own field. The following is the score by innings: Dayton 0 1 0 0 0 3 5 2. Total 11. Independ 2 0 0 0 1 0 0 2 2. Total 7.

Lecture at Opera House.—Hon. F. A. Falkenberg, lead counsel for Pacific jurisdiction of Woodmen of the World, will lecture on "Wood Craft" at the Independence opera house, Wednesday, night, June 12. An interesting program will be rendered. Mr. Falkenberg has the reputation of being a brilliant speaker and a rare treat is in store for our citizens.

Fine Wool.—F. A. Link, a well-to-do farmer living near Independence, has for several years been making the breeding of fine sheep a specialty. He now has a band of 69 thoroughbred Cotswold ewes which yield him about 18 pounds of wool per head. Mr. Link came into this office Wednesday and exhibited several fine specimens of this year's clip. One sample measured 12 inches in length, weight of fleece 14 pounds, not quite one year's growth. Two other samples were clipped from a pair of twin lambs, a wether and ewe, the first weighing 21 pounds and the latter 18 pounds to the fleece. The wool is of very fine fibre, oily and soft. Mr. Link says that he finds sheep raising to be profitable business at current prices, but it is necessary to breed pure blood, and in his opinion, the Cotswold breed give the most profitable returns of any other variety.

Council Proceedings.—City council convened in regular session June 4. Members present: Cook, Clodfelter, Walker and Strong. Absent: Finch and Percival. WEAR GOOD CLOTHES!

THAT'S OUR ADVICE. We don't charge you a cent for the advice, and but very little more for an elegant suit of clothes, or anything in the line of gent's furnishings.

WHY? Our prices are so reasonable that they will actually astonish you, and our goods are of the very best quality, and the latest styles. You will probably wonder why THEY ARE SO CHEAP.

And yet of such a high grade. The question is readily answered and you will at once see why, when you learn that we handle the famous SALEM WOOLEN MILL GOODS.

The Salem Woolen Mill Store Salem, Oregon.

Has gained an enviable reputation for the elegant fit and substantial quality of all clothing for set out of their store. The fact that the company employ 120 hands is conclusive evidence that they are doing an immense business even in these dull times. The fact also should stimulate consumers to patronize.

The Salem Woolen Mill Store For by so doing you keep your money at home instead of sending it east, where it cannot be felt by you or your neighbor. Patronize home institutions is the sure and best success.

AIRLIE.

Sheep shearing will soon be in full blast. Once in a while we have a nice warm day and then strawberries and cream taste so delicious.

J. A. Staats and Charley Kennedy have begun work on J. F. Berry's big barn. Mac Turner is getting considerable of the lumber on the ground for his new barn Bert Simpson and James Atwater will build it. I. M. Simpson has disposed of his steam threshing outfit to Geo. Linderman and others, near Corvallis. Mr. Simpson has been in the threshing business most of his life, and we doubt very much if he can keep out for more than a season or two. He wishes to devote more of his time to his large hop yard.

A large swarm of bees have taken up quarters in the outer walls of Isaac Simpson's hop house. Hastings Bros. have traded their general merchandise store at this place for a 160 acre farm on Muddy near Corvallis. Mr. Quivey is the name of the gentleman who will take charge of the store in a day or two. While Win Wilson, the butcher, was out shutting a gate recently his team started and in an endeavor to stop them he was knocked down, run over and his collar bone broken. He will be out on the road again in a short time.

A. N. Fulkerson closed a successful term of school here the last of May. Cecil Staats and Iva Hooker attended the full term, eight months, without missing a day.

DIED.

WELLS.—At Buena Vista, Or., June 5, 1895, Mrs. Katie Wells, aged 55 years. The deceased was the wife of Wm. Wells, Esq., a prominent citizen of the Buena Vista neighborhood. Mrs. Wells was taken sick only last Sunday with inflammation of the bowels. She was a most estimable lady and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her death.

The Discovery Saved His Life. Mr. G. Callonette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at any drug store.
