Harry Harris, recently deceased.

The people of Eugene appear to be generally pleased at the result of the trial of Miss Mary Berger in Portland.
Miss Berger was fully exonerated of the charge of sending obscene matter through the mails. Much regret is expressed that the real culprit has not been apprehended.

A terrible accident happened at a sawmill seventeen miles northwest of McMinnville on June 25. Fred Little, aged about 30 years, was instantly killed while filing the circular saw.

The machinery was set in motion without warning and by the time it was stopped, Little was literally sawed to pieces.

N. E. Kegg arrived home from Pennsylvania on Saturday last. Mr. Kegg has visited 22 states since leaving here in the spring, and in none of them does the prospect for crops look as good as in Oregon. He is more convinced than ever that the Willamette valley is the garden spot of the United States.—

Dr. Epley, Prof. Ginn, and Al Bentley, accompanied by their families, left Monmouth Wednesday morning for out-outing on the Big Luckiamute. They expect to be absent several days, enjoying the bracing mountain air, hunting for the sky brook trout and having a pleasant time generally.

Mr. A. Veness arrived home from the East last Monday. Mr. Veness was as far east as Minneapolis. His reports indicate more prosperous and money more plentiful in the states east of the Rockies than here. He thinks, however, that the business outlook is much brighter now than it has been for two years past.

Prof. Washburn of the Agricultural college tells the Corvallis Times that the scheme of boring a hole in a tree, inserting sulphur, and then plugging up the hole as a sure method of killing tent caterpillars will not work. The sulphur is not dissolved in the sap of the tree, and will not as stated, rise in the sap of the leaves and kill the caterpillars by the thousands.

We had occasion to visit out in the country the other day and while there we examined several orchards that have been planted thirty or forty years.

We don't think it an exaggeration to say that half the trees were diseased, a breeding nest for all sorts of fruit pests. It is clearly the duty of farmers to dig up and burn these old insect infested trees which are a nu-trance to the fruit culture of this country.

Inspector Minto would do a great service to the state by seeing that the laws in regard to diseased trees are rigidly enforced.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell preached to a large congregation at the Presbyterian church last Sunday, and his sermon is quite highly spoken of. He also addressed a fair-sized audience from the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Monday evening his subject was "The Ideal and the Real." Of course the eloquent speaker handled the subject in an interesting and scholarly manner, the leading thought was that civilization is made possible because mankind is continually striving to attain the ideal in religion, morals, government, art, science and material progress. The speaker was at times quite Ethel, the 7-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Smith fell from the steps of a neighbor's residence last monday evening and cut a deep, oblong gash across the forehead just above the nose. The wound was caused by a broken tin toy which the little girl held in her hand.

Mr. E. W. Claggett returned home from the branch asylum at Monmouth, next Sunday morning for the summer vacation.

The main entrance will be on Main street, but there will be two side entrances on C street, one leading into the dry goods department and one into the grocery department. The front will be ornamented with French plate glass and a fine cupola. There will be three bay windows on C street, besides a number of windows to light the various departments. Bur-grass of Salem is the architect.

Mr. J. S. Cooper showed us the other day the plans for his splendid new brick block. The building will be a magnificent two story very tastefully ornamented in the latest modern style.

From a letter written by Rev. J.
Gundeman, of Dimondale, Mich. who are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr.
King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia, suffering from La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little intermission, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in its results." I had bottles of it at my drug store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00.
