FLIES ARE DOING WELL

This summer just because a great many people think it's economy to let their horses go without nets. That's a mistake.

TREAT YOUR HORSE LIKE A MAN!

He'll do better work, be less nervous and require less feed when protected from insects. It's near the end of the season just when flies bite hardest and stick tightest. Nets are cheapest now—not at cost, but with mighty small profit—some at 50 cents, some at 45, and all prices between.

W. H. Craven Co.

SASH and DOORS!—We carry a full stock of Sash, Doors, Mouldings, Glass, Etc. Turning a specialty, at Mitchell & Bohannon's, Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Wilson returned Tuesday from a very pleasant three or four weeks outing over the Matolus. Mr. Wilson has not been in good health for many years, but is now much improved and has gained some 25 pounds in weight during the summer, the result of camping life and mountain air.

The fall term of the University of Oregon opened at Eugene on Monday, under highly favorable auspices. The attendance this year promises to be larger than last. The Drain normal school and also the Willamette University opened under very favorable conditions. There appears to be a general revival in education this year.

Mr. Chas. H. Teale, who has a small fruit farm one mile west of this city, last Friday presented this office with some fine peaches of his raising as we have seen this year, the product of Southern Oregon and mighty old Yamhill not excepted. One of these peaches measured 8 inches in circumference and its rich flavor would satisfy the fastidious taste of an epicure. They were of the Early Charlotte variety.

Shot gun shells at F. E. Chambers'. New shot guns to rent, at F. E. Chambers.

Hop picking is said to be two-thirds over around Aurora, Marion county, and the crop is claimed to be larger than last year. Only a few yards will be left unpicked and they belong to renters who could not obtain picking money.

Prof. W. I. Reynolds, of Dallas, was transacting business in the city Friday. He has been engaged during the summer in furnishing school furniture to the districts of Polk county, and was here filling an order for a number of seats and desks for our public school.

Salem had quite a jail break Sunday night. Five prisoners out of six confined in the county jail made their escape by sawing a wooden door from its hinges and then digging a hole through the brick wall of the jail. The names of the escaped prisoners are: Willis Tharp, G. H. Mordeau, George Jackson, G. A. James and John Hunter.

THE ENTERPRISE, has gained an enviable reputation for its fine job work, and it proposes to sustain that reputation in spite of competition from any source whatsoever. This office is prepared to do the latest styles of job work, in a neat, artistic and workmanlike manner, and at living prices. Give us a call, sample our work, and get our prices.

Deputy Sheriff A. T. Maul, of Marion county, came over Monday with the necessary papers to convey Indian Billy Tom to the Salem jail for an assault upon Indian Frank Isaacs with a deadly weapon last Sunday afternoon. The preliminary trial was held yesterday. We have not learned the result, but it is evident the Indian will be bound over.

The Oregon State Fair begins September 25 and continues to October 4, inclusive. The committee on arrangements have added many new features to the programme this year. There will be special premiums for fruit exhibits, many counties have already arranged to make exhibits. Some of the fastest horses on the coast will be at the fair. Congressman Bryan and Ex-Senator Ingalls will deliver addresses.

The new law firm of Butler, Townsend & Potter, whose card appears in another column, is a very strong combination. Hon. N. L. Butler is easily the first advocate in Polk county and among the ablest jury lawyers in the state. Mr. M. O. Potter is new in the legal business but has had large experience in collections; he is reliable, energetic, possesses the enthusiasm of youth and a laudable ambition to succeed in his profession. We understand that Mr. Butler will give part of his office time to Independence. Mr. Townsend will have charge of the Dallas office.

Mr. Blair Miller, of Keatsville, Mo., writes to our associate editor as follows: "I anxiously watch for the ENTERPRISE which reaches me each Tuesday, and enjoy reading it very much. How I long for Oregon again. Such days as these when the thermometer stands from 100 to 105 degrees in the shade. We have the largest corn crop this year ever raised in Charlton county, which makes everybody feel unusually good." The people of Independence will remember Mr. Miller as a very pleasant young gentleman who was in the employ of Mr. W. H. Wheeler for a year or more, and subsequently engaged in the boot and shoe business with Mr. W. H. Patterson. We expect to see Blair with us again before many years, and we are sure that his old friends will give him a royal greeting.

Mr. W. P. Conaway, cashier of the Independence National Bank, attended the funeral of Cashier W. T. Peet, at Corvallis today.

H. W. Amans, freight agent of the O. R. & N. Ry. Co., visited the ENTERPRISE office Friday in company with Rev. J. R. Baldwin.

Quite favorable reports come from the hop fields of North Yamhill. Some of the growers have lost only a day's picking by the rains.

Do not forget that all binding (twine bought of R. M. Wade & Co. will be due October 1st and must be paid on or before that time.

School books will be sold at exchange and introductory prices at Clodfelter Bros'. They expect their stock to arrive the last of this week.

Wm. Ball and George Fisher, former Independences, but now living near the Nestucca, were in the city today with a fine lot of chinook salmon.

We learn that Mrs. Jas. Tetherow's mental condition is unchanged since commitment to the asylum, but her general health is somewhat improved.

Reports from Harrisburg state that the hop crop of that section, under the most favorable circumstances, will not be more than 75 per cent of the original estimates.

Charles Paul, from the vicinity of Eola, was arraigned before Justice Irvine on last Friday for assaulting Robert Carson, a youth about 16 years old, and fined $5 and cost, making a total of $14.25.

We call special attention to the grand opening at the G. A. R. Auditorium next Thursday evening. A full programme is given in another column. A large attendance is expected. Post Commander Stockton says that a number of visitors are expected from different points of the valley.

A well organized band of counterfeiters have infested Umatilla county for the past year to the inconvenience of trade and a pecuniary loss to a number of individuals who have been victimized with the bogus coin. The officers of the law are now hard after the band and already have several of the leaders under arrest.

The closing days of the Exposition at Portland will be devoted to a chrysanthemum show, for which liberal premiums are offered. The show will be under the management of the Oregon Flower Association, which held such a successful rose show last June. There are prizes for both amateurs and professionals, and entries are invited from growers of flowers everywhere.

Attorney Harry Ballinger, of McMinnville, is preparing to open a law office in this city. He has received the appointment as deputy prosecuting attorney for this county.

"I suffered with neuralgia so that I was almost crazy. Last summer my husband got me some of Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and I began taking them, and now I have a good appetite and am very much better."—Mrs. Tom Mole, Wagner, Or.

"Jerry, the Outcast." Last night a good audience was in attendance at the opera house to witness the second night's performance of the Carlton dramatic company. "Jerry," the outcast, is a character well adapted to Mr. Frank Readick, and he carried the sympathy of his audience from the first bell to the drop of the curtain in the last act. Stanley J. Ross, as James Blackburn, was an ideal villain, and Leon Henry characterized the Jack Worthington in an acceptable manner.

Miss Florence Earl as France was a favorite of the pit and balcony alike, while Miss Millie Freeman, by her catchy style, won all. Miss Emma Morris, as Mrs. Lee, sustained her part well and is one of the conscientious artists of the troupe. The company characterizes itself by its clean, open playing and bids fair to have a good house tonight when they play "Monte Cristo."—Eugene Register.

"There are dictionaries and dictionaries but the noblest Roman of them all is Webster's." This was said of the latest "Unabridged" by a prominent writer. As it was true of that work, how much more applicable the statement is to its successor, the "International," which after a vast outlay has been brought to completion and placed upon the market.

This new Webster, by natural right, has taken a warm place in the regard of the English-speaking people. It is recognized as the standard authority. While compact, it is sufficiently comprehensive, and while strikingly attractive typographically, and rich and substantial in binding, it is still within reach of almost all who wish to possess a work of this kind.

In these days of sensational publishing and advertising it is refreshing to observe with what conscientious scholarship this new Webster has been produced and the conservative methods by which it is being presented by the well-known Merriam publishing house of Springfield, Mass.

A Cutting Affray.

A drunken row took place over the river opposite here Sunday afternoon among the Indian hop-pickers. A couple of Indians became engaged in a fight. Frank Isaacs, a Grand Ronde Indian, stepped in to separate the combatants, when Billy Tom turned and stabbed him in the left side about two inches above the heart with a knife. The wound is about three inches deep and penetrates to the plural cavity. The wounded Indian was brought to town and received surgical treatment. There is some probability that he will recover. Billy Tom, the Indian who did the stabbing, was lodged in the city jail, and a Marion county deputy sheriff came over Monday and took him to Salem for preliminary trial.

DIED.

LINES.—In Independence, Or., September 16, 1895, at 7:30 p. m., Mrs. Mattie E. Lines, of cancer of the breast, aged 35 years, 3 months and 9 days.

Mattie E. Lines was born June 7, 1860, and was the daughter of Rev. E. G. and Mrs. M. A. Michael, of Lane county, Or. Miss Michael was married to W. W. Lines on June 7, 1888, and there have been five children born to them of whom three are dead. The deceased has been afflicted with cancer of the breast for about three years. An operation was performed some ten months ago, removing the entire left breast, and for a few months the patient appeared to get stronger and hopes were entertained of her recovery, but the disease was only checked, not removed. The deceased bore up under affliction with rare patience and welcomed the dread messenger without fear or misgiving. Mrs. Lines became a member of the M. E. church, South, in 1878, and was a devout and consistent christian woman. She left a husband, two little daughters and a host of friends to mourn her untimely passing away. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Turner at the M. E. church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the remains were interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery a few miles south of town. The relatives have the sympathy of the community.

Fail Opening of Millinery.
 The ladies of Independence and vicinity are cordially invited to call and inspect the new line of fall and winter millinery just received at Mrs. M. Kinney's milliner store, formerly Cathin & Kinney. A fine line of new fancy goods just received.

The McMinnville Transcript says: "Wells Cooper came down from the Independence hop yards Saturday. He reports the hops badly moulded and growers considerably discouraged at the outlook."

Transcript's informant is mistaken in saying the hop yards are badly moulded in this vicinity. It is only the yards located on the low bottom lands where the air cannot circulate freely, and the dews are heavy that the mould has done any material damage. The greater majority of the yards are still in prime condition.
