Mr. E. T. Smith and Mr. O. B. Wilson, of the Star Grocery, left this morning for a weeks jaunt over in the Cascade mountains. They expect to go as far as Detroit, the eastern terminus of the O. C. & E. railroad, before returning. Mr. Smith has a timber claim over there which he wishes to look after.

A good joke is told on Dr. Paine, superintendent of the asylum. The other day he met Sheriff Cathcart, of Douglas county, en route to the asylum with a patient. The doctor wishing to say something consoling to his new ward, remarked that he belonged to the same institution, but was out on a short furlough. "I knew you were cracked, but hoped you were not so badly off as I," gravely responded the patient.

Mrs. Tillman Shinn and Mrs. N. O. Clodfelter left for the East on Monday afternoon's train. Mrs. Shinn goes to Brookfield, Mo., and perhaps will not return before the holidays. Mrs. Clodfelter goes to Albion, Monroe county, Iowa, and her special visit is for the purpose of being present at the golden wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Scott, on the 16th instant. She will probably be absent a couple of months before returning home.

Hear the Sunday Statesman talk: "David Sears and H. Hirschberg, two of the bright luminaries of Polk county democratic politics, were in the city last night. They were seen in close association with ex-Mayor P. H. D'Arcy, which indicates some political egg was in the process of development." Who ever heard of Dave Sears and Joe Hirschberg incubating a political egg. Why Dave is clean out of politics and Joe never had anything to do with the "filthy pool."

Delays are dangerous. A dollar spent for Hood's Sarsaparilla now may prevent illness which will be expensive and hard to bear. Now is the time to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Rosendorf & Hirschberg have sold more Ladies jackets this fall than all the rest combined. Why? Because they have the best fitting garments and sell them very low.

A good deal of gravel is being hauled from the river bar opposite town to repair the public highway. Good roads are badly needed and the supervisors are doing some very substantial work in the vicinity of Monmouth and Independence.

Mr. Clarence Irvine returned to McMinnville permanently last Monday. He has accepted a position in his fathers grocery store at that place. Clarence proved himself to be a rising collector in settling up Mr. J. P. Irvine's business here. He was only a month in doing the job. If this isn't a good record, we are no judge.

Mr. A. J. Wolcott has shipped a rare exhibit in hops to the Portland exposition. It consists of two hills of hops dried on the vines just as they grew in the field. Mr. Wolcott informs us that he succeeded in getting the exhibit cured in splendid condition. It will certainly be a fine advertisement of what Independence can do in the way of hop culture.

A family reunion was held at Grandma Richardson's in this city on Wednesday of last week. The occasion of the gathering being grandma's 81st birthday. There were twenty guests present including her children, grandchildren and great grand-children. Four generations were represented. A most sumptuous dinner was served and every one present joined in making grandma feel happy and wishing her many returns of the auspicious occasion.
