Richard Simpson, a pioneer of 1850, and an Indian war veteran, was found dead in his bed Sunday morning at Amity. He was vice-president of the State Pharmaceutical Association and for a number of years postmaster at Amity. He was 65 years of age and unmarried.
The Independence Soap Factory has again started up under the name and style of the Oregon Soap Company. Mr. J. N. Fox is proprietor. The factory put out about four tons of soap last week. This soap is giving good satisfaction as far as it has been tested. The output so far has been confined to laundry soaps, but it is their intention to manufacture the best grades of toilet soaps. Mr. Fox is back East settling up his business, but is expected home soon.

The news reached here yesterday that the notorious Jordan brothers, Al and Willis, held up some Chinamen near Eola Tuesday evening. They knocked down one Chinaman and robbed him of $22. One of the Chinamen went to Dallas and notified Sheriff Plummer, who at once telegraphed to Salem, notifying the authorities of the alleged robbery. Late in the evening the Jordan boys made their appearance in Salem and were placed under arrest. The Jordans are notorious characters, and one them, if not both, have served a term in the penitentiary.

Mr. D. J. Whiteaker had quite a breezy runaway in this city Saturday. He was driving a high spirited team and stopped in front of A. J. Whiteaker's grocery to do some trading, when a couple of our local sprinters came flying down the street in a 60 yard dash, just for the fun of the thing, as they expressed it. Mr. Whiteaker, who was seated in the hack, had temporarily dropped the lines for the purpose of arranging some purchases Mrs. Whiteaker had made, when the team started at breakneck speed down the street and across the big bridge. Uncle Davy hastily gathered the lines, at the same time dropping his money-purse into the street, and finally brought the team to a standstill after a wild ride of nearly a-half mile. Very fortunately no damage was done, although there were two teams on the bridge at the time of the runaway. We believe all of Mr. Whiteaker's money was found, excepting about twenty-five cents.

Lard in bulk cheaper than ever at Sperling Bros.
Constable C. L. Hubbard, of Dallas, was in the city Saturday.
Try the "Robert Burns," 10c cigar, at Griffith & Patterson's.
Dr. Epley, the dentist, Monmouth, does crown and bridge work.

General John H. Dickinson, associate counsel for the defense in the Durrant case, is visiting in Portland. He is described by the Oregonian as "a well-built man of middle age. He has a fine, strong face and a military presence." Mr. Dickinson gives it as his personal conviction that Durrant is an innocent man.
The 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Tartar, of Peedee, was examined in this city Saturday before County Judge Burch and committed to the asylum. The unfortunate lad has been afflicted with hydrocephalus, or dropsy of the head, since his birth and has always required the closest care. His parents have had him treated by some of the ablest physicians of the state. The disease is of such a character as to baffle medical skill.
Mr. D. J. Whiteaker had quite a breezy runaway in this city Saturday. He was driving a high spirited team and stopped in front of A. J. Whiteaker's grocery to do some trading, when a couple of our local sprinters came flying down the street in a 60 yard dash, just for the fun of the thing, as they expressed it. Clarence Irvine has been taken into the grocery business of J. P. Irvine, the firm now being J. P. Irvine & Son. Clarence is a bright, hustling, young business man and his many friends congratulate him.—Telephone-Register.
John and Bob Jordan under conviction for cattle-stealing in Harney county, broke jail on Tuesday night of last week at Burns and made their escape. Their are four other Jordan brothers in the Harney county jail charged with cattle-stealing.
Mr. Mart Prather, who has been living in Eastern Oregon for the past 13 years, has returned to his old home farm near Buena Vista. A few days ago he moved his wife and children to this city for the purpose of obtaining good school facilities during the winter.
Hon. Stephen Staats came in from Roseburg last week and is visiting his son and daughter in this city, Mr. Charles Staats and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard. Uncle Steve says that his good right arm, the arm that yields the facile pen, is almost paralyzed from shaking hands with his many friends. He will probably visit here three weeks or more before returning to Roseburg.
Mr. A. M. Waddell, living near Dayton, Yamhill county, was badly bruised and trampled by his team last Saturday. He was delivering wheat when at the Dayton warehouse, and was holding his teams by the bits, the horses became frightened at the boat whistle, and started to run throwing Mr. Waddell beneath their feet and inflicting severe flesh wounds upon his face and body.
Mr. E. A. Vanmeer, who is operating in mines out in Southern Oregon, arrived in this city Saturday. He thinks there will be considerable development in the mining interests of that country soon as the winter rains come on. Mr. Vanmeer expects to return to Southern Oregon in a few days and then begin active operations in developing his mines. He has a placer claim and one or two quartz ledges, but he will give most of his attention to placer mining this winter. He thinks that he has good prospects.

Last Thursday morning, one of the leading features of the chapel exercises at the State Agricultural College was the singing by little Miss Ada Williams, of Polk county. The performer, who was but nine years of age, already exhibits a richness of voice, a grace of manner, and happy interpretation, that bespeak for her a great future, as a charming singer. Interest in the little lady's popularity will be increased when it is remembered that she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams, now of Buena Vista, but formerly of Benton county, and that she is the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Brownson, once residents in this city.—Covallis Times.

Mrs. and Mrs. E. W. Cooper, Mrs. M. Davidson, Miss Essie Robertson, Mrs. Dr. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Connaway attended Naomi Chapter O. E. S. at Dallas last Thursday night. Twelve visitors from Salem were present also. This is the first time in 39 years that Mrs. Davidson has visited Dallas.
The services at the M. E. church will be of more than usual interest next Sabbath. In the morning Dr. Parsons, presiding elder of the Salem district, will preach and administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. We especially invite our friends to be present and enjoy this service with us. In the evening the pastor, D. Hasler Glass, will speak upon the subject, "A Woman's Rights." All are invited who are interested in this question of the day. The quarterly Conference business meeting will be held at 8 p. m. Saturday.

A peculiar accident happened to the 4-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell a week ago last Sunday. Little Erma O'Donnell and Mr. Gilmore's little girl were playing with their dolls, and during the play the foot of one of the dolls was broken off and in some manner lodged in little Erma's nose. The children told their parents of the accident and an examination revealed the fact that the doll's foot was still lodged in the child's nose. A physician was called and in his efforts to take it out, it was pushed into the child's head. She was taken to Salem Monday for treatment, but a careful examination failed to reveal a hurting in the head, and will be taken to Salem again in a few days for further examination.
