Mr. John Kurze writes from Phoenix, Arizona, to a friend in this city that he has gained five pounds in flesh, and is feeling much better. He thinks the climate quite warm and scorpions and tarantulas thicker than frogs in an Oregon duck pond.

A man by the name of Russell is under arrest at Long Creek, charged with the murder of J. M. Brown near Oregon City on or about January 1, 1906. Sheriff Maddock, of Clackamas county, has left for Long Creek, where he will get the prisoner and return with him to Oregon City.

Mr. George Brunk, of lower Rieckrell, was in the city the other day. He has recently returned from an extended trip through Eastern Oregon, Idaho and Western Montana. There is practically no grass on the vast stock ranges of Eastern Oregon and Idaho, and stockmen will have to largely depend upon feeding to get their stock through the winter. In Montana, however, the grass is excellent and stock generally is in good condition.

SASH and DOORS!—We carry a full stock of Sash Doors, Mouldings, Glass, Etc. Furnishing a specialty, at Mitchell & Bohannon's, Main street.
