A Ticket With Each Purchase.

You are just losing a great big chance if you do not make your purchases of us and get the benefit of all your money will buy, besides getting that which might pay for all your purchases.

There is just no use talking, but if we get much more goods into our store we will just have to begin and put shelves onto the ceiling. The place is now crowded full—no room for anything more.

Pleasant Anticipation.

This is what strikes a person who gets a box of our choice Bon Bons the second time. We keep a complete line of the very finest chocolates, also taffies.

Our Taffy.

This is something out of the usual. It is to your interest, as well as ours, when we know that it is clean and made of pure goods only. This is made at Salem especially for us, and is the very finest made. No cheap ingredients put in to cheapen the cost, but all fine taffy made of good goods only, and the price we sell it at is just as cheap as at any other store where cheaper goods are probably sold.

Besides plain taffy we have the finest peanut taffy ever brought to town. It is just simply nothing but peanuts and good sugar. We would be pleased to have you try this, because it is so very fine.

LOWNEY'S CHOCOLATE BON BONS.

We are still the agents for Lowney's goods, which are without doubt the very finest box goods ever put on the market. These goods we keep in a number of different sizes of boxes as follows:
Ribbon Box..... 50c

- Cream Chocolates..... 30c
- Chocolate Almonds..... 15c
- Assorted Nuts..... 15c
- Chocolates, Opera..... 20c
- Pearl Chocolates..... 10c
- Ice Cream Drops..... 10c
- Lily Chocolates..... 10c

Our Peanuts.

Probably you have noticed the quality of the peanuts we use. If you have you see how much larger and finer than those generally used. There is a reason for all things and it is no exception with the peanuts. When peanuts are all about one size, they roast better, come out of the roaster all roasted about the same; not some burned and others raw, but all a beautiful brown color, which just makes you want them as soon as you see them.

Our new Fountain.

This is something very neat and nice, just been added, too. While our room is really too small to attend to this trade in the proper shape, this does not in any way take from the good quality of our soda, which we claim is as good as the best—at least that's what those who use it say. We can also furnish you a nice ice cream soda, with fruit flavoring, just the same as you get in the very best appointed places in Portland. There is no discount on our ice cream. It's made of pure cream, and all you have to do is to try it to be convinced. Ice cream served separate.

The Fruit Season.

It is now getting rather late for oranges and bananas, but still we shall have them as long as they can be secured. Lemons are now very fine and we can serve you at all times. We expect bananas and orange this week, also some very fine peaches and Bartlett pears. They are still a little high, but we are promised very nice goods by our jobbers.

Your Winter Reading Matter.

You may think that it is a little early to be talking about winter, but nevertheless you will be surprised how very short a time it is until the winter rains will compel you to stay at home of an evening, and then you will be interested in our magazine assortment. There is a number of reasons why it is to your interest to buy reading matter of us. In the first place when you pay us for a magazine you get it all trimmed up nice, which you do not when you get it by mail or from some other dealer. Too, if you order your subscription to come by mail through us and there is a mistake we are right here to make it good. If you order of a traveling agent and it doesn't come, how about it? Well, you are sure of one thing—he has your money. It will pay you to see us every-time before subscribing for any magazine whatsoever.

HARRY E. WAGONER, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

C STREET,

Minister Wu's Ethics.

The Chinese minister increases his reputation as a public speaker at every appearance on the platform. He is at his best when he comes to the subject of religion, and his invitation to address the Jewish Chautauqua at Atlantic City gave him an opportunity to make a great number of shrewd remarks that may not soon be forgotten. We have said all along that Mr. Wu is the best missionary China ever sent abroad, and it is open to demonstration whether he has not made more opinion favorable to Confucianism in the United States than thousands of missionaries have made in favor of Christianity in China. Those who call Minister Wu a "heathen" are usually made to suffer for it before he gets through with them. He knows his Confucius and he goes back to that sage for moral principles that put those who reproach him to public shame.

While on Sunday he was among Jews it was an opportunity of a lifetime to put himself in a class with them and say what he had to say about persecution. He said: "Jews and Chinese alike were the despised and persecuted on the earth, and not for their vices, but for their virtues." He had often tried to find out why there was prejudice against the Jews. It is because "you are too cute for them," said the speaker, and then proceeded to show that the Chinese were in the same situation. The two nations could be thankful together because it was proof that they possessed "superior qualities."

But the minister did not confine himself to generalities. He had something direct to say to the Philadelphia clergyman who had abused him by saying that while he wore a good face, in his inner heart he was using his influence against the Christians in China—in short, that he was a "heathen" and a "hypocrite." No one, he said, in a burst of cutting sarcasm, could know his "inner heart." To say that a man was not sincere was "malice." It was "slander." "Is that the act of a good Christian?" he asked. "Would a good Jew do that? No, of course not. No, not a good heathen would do that." But he concluded that the "best man in the world has some enemies, and how can you expect a poor heathen to have no enemies?" All this is delicious, and after this tourney we venture to think that Mr. Wu has scored enough points to put him well ahead in his contest with the clergymen. He has done very well for a "poor heathen," who wants, he says, to be an "equally good Jew and good Christian." A man who is so liberal of mind that he aspires to have these religions is a representative of whom the Chinese Empire may feel extremely proud.

Don't be satisfied with temporary relief from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure permanently and completely removes this complaint. It relieves permanently because it allows the tired stomach perfect rest. Dieting won't rest the stomach. Nature relieves supplies from the food we eat. The sensible way to help the stomach is to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digest what you eat and cannot help but do you good. A. S. Locke.
