A Ticket With Each Purchase.

You are just losing a great big chance if you do not make your purchases of us and get the benefit of all your money will buy, besides getting that which might pay for all your purchases.

There is just no use talking, but if we get much more goods into our store we will just have to begin and put shelves onto the ceiling. The place is now crowded full—no room for anything more.

Pleasant Anticipation.

This is what strikes a person who gets a box of our choice Bon Bons the second time. We keep a complete line of the very finest chocolates, also taffies.

Our Taffy.

This is something out of the usual. It is to your interest, as well as ours, when we know that it is clean and made of pure goods only. This is made at Salem especially for us, and is the very finest made. No cheap ingredients put in to heaven the cost, but all fine taffy made of good goods only, and the price we sell it at is just as cheap as at any other store where cheaper goods are probably sold.

Besides plain taffy we have the finest peanut taffy ever brought to town. It is just simply nothing but peanuts and good sugar. We would be pleased to have you try this, because it is so very fine.

LOWNEY'S CHOCOLATE BON BONS.

We are still the agents for Lowney's goods, which are without doubt the very finest box goods ever put on the market. These goods we keep in a number of different sizes of boxes as follows:
Ribbon Box..... 50c

- Cream Chocolates..... 30c
- Chocolate Almonds..... 15c
- Assorted Nuts..... 15c
- Chocolates, Opera..... 20c
- Pearl Chocolates..... 10c
- Ice Cream Drops..... 10c
- Lily Chocolates..... 10c

Our Peanuts.

Probably you have noticed the quality of the peanuts we use. If you have you see how much larger and finer than those generally used. There is a reason for all things and it is no exception with the peanuts. When peanuts are all about one size, they roast better, come out of the roaster all roasted about the same; not some burned and others raw, but all a beautiful brown color, which just makes you want them as soon as you see them.

Our new Fountain.

This is something very neat and nice, just been added, too. While our room is really too small to attend to this trade in the proper shape, this does not in any way take from the good quality of our soda, which we claim is as good as the best—at least that's what those who use it say. We can also furnish you a nice ice cream soda, with fruit flavoring, just the same as you get in the very best appointed places in Portland. There is no discount on our ice cream. It's made of pure cream, and all you have to do is to try it to be convinced. Ice cream served separate.

The Fruit Season.

It is now getting rather late for oranges and bananas, but still we shall have them as long as they can be secured. Lemons are now very fine and we can serve you at all times. We expect bananas and orange this week, also some very fine peaches and Bartlett pears. They are still a little high, but we are promised very nice goods by our jobbers.

Your Winter Reading Matter.

You may think that it is a little early to be talking about winter, but nevertheless you will be surprised how very short a time it is until the winter rains will compel you to stay at home of an evening, and then you will be interested in our magazine assortment. There is a number of reasons why it is to your interest to buy reading matter of us. In the first place when you pay us for a magazine you get it all trimmed up nice, which you do not when you get it by mail or from some other dealer. Too, if you order your subscription to come by mail through us and there is a mistake we are right here to make it good. If you order of a traveling agent and it doesn't come, how about it? Well, you are sure of one thing—he has your money. It will pay you to see us every-time before subscribing for any magazine whatsoever.

Secret of Schwab's Rise.

A story is told here about President Schwab, of the United States Steel corporation, which will show a good many persons who may not know why President Schwab became what he is. The tale was told by an engineer for whom Mr. Schwab, as a boy, carried the chain. Every body down here knows how Mr. Schwab began life as a grocery clerk at Braddock. Next he carried a chain at Homestead and later was a draftsman in the Carnegie works. While holding that place Young Schwab came under the notice of Captain William R. Jones, who was general manager of the Carnegie plant, and whose name is synonymous here with everything good and manly. Captain Jones was killed at Homestead by accident a few years ago.

The story is that Captain Jones at that time needed the services of an expert draftsman. He applied to the head of the drafting department for a man, asking for the best man in the place.

"I have no best man," said the chief. "They are all good."

Captain Jones went away. The next day an order was issued that to complete a certain piece of work all of the draftsmen should work two hours overtime each day for several weeks without pay. All of the draftsmen grumbled except one man. Captain Jones came along the next day and said to the chief of the drafting department: "How do the men like that order?"

"They don't like it, and are all grumbling except one man," was the reply.

"Who is that man?" asked Captain Jones.

"Schwab."

"Give me Schwab," said Captain Jones.

From that day the young draftsman's success began. The man who told this story was asked what he thought of President Schwab. He said: "Charlie Schwab has no equal as an executive in the steel world today."

John Wanamaker on Business Methods.

In a letter to the Buyer and Dry Goods Chronicle John Wanamaker says: "The word that I am glad to say is that there is better promise of business in the twentieth century because mercantile methods are no longer head-over-heels tricks mixed with pink and yellow sensationalism. Business men are learning that there is no short-cut to prosperity and that steadiness and straightforwardness harness up the only team that wins in the race. Good business is not going to be done with bad faults in morals or methods. There is no every-day market for dishonesty in mercantile practice no matter how meritorious the goods, or for dishonest merchandise no matter how meritorious the practices.
