

During the remainder of the season Ice Cream will be kept on hand continually at the....

Wagoner Store,
ON C STREET,

Nothing but the very best cream handled. Ice Cream Soda, with crushed fruit served.

Social and Personal.

Dr. W. R. Allin, dentist, Cooper bldg. Cal Hutton visited Albany Sunday. Ice cream at all times at Wagoner's. Al Whiteaker, of Albany, is visiting here.

Don't overlook R. M. Wade & Co.'s stove ad.

Miss Effie Richardson returned from Portland Friday.

A splendid line of spring wagons at R. M. Wade & Co.'s.

Wall paper at prices that cannot be beaten, Campbell Bros.

Wm. Metzler, of near Monmouth, was in the city Saturday.

L. C. Gilmore and family intend reaching home tomorrow.

Try a nice ice cream soda with pure crushed fruits at Wagoner's.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. O. Martin died on August 19th.

Mrs. W. w. Percival and daughter were passengers to Dallas Tuesday.

A state certificate has been granted to George A. Serfling, of Monmouth.

Julien Hurley returned Monday from a several days' visit at Lafayette.

B. Wilson and wife returned last Thursday evening from their vacation.

Laxative Bromo Quinine will cure your cold in one day. For sale by A. S. Locke.

The Misses Florence and Edna Burnett drove over to Salem Saturday afternoon.

At the meeting of the Masonic lodge on Saturday evening a new candidate was started.

R. M. Wade & Co. is the place to buy your shot gun. A large shipment just received.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herplende, the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk, or applied if desired.

Try Huntley's Restaurant for a first-class meal. Only 20 cents. Special rates by the week.

Quart and half-gallon tin fruit cans. We give wax strings with each can. F. E. Chambers.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine and stop sneezing, hawking and spitting. For sale by A. S. Locke.

Eight-ball professional croquet sets, $3.50, regular price $5.50. Four-ball sets, $1.00. F. E. Chambers.

Miss Dorothy Cooper, who has spent the summer on the Sound, returned home Sunday morning.

Mrs. John Ward and Mrs. William Ward, of Pacific county, Wash., are visiting their father, I. Connett.

Mrs. Retta Powell and children, of Monmouth, who have been visiting in Portland, returned home Monday.

An exchange says that F. S. Younger, formerly of Cottage Grove, has purchased a grocery store at Pendleton.

Mrs. Graham, of Salem, came up on the morning train Monday from Portland, going over to Dallas by motor.

Carpets at cost. Campbell Bros. Mr. Blankenship, father of Mrs. J. M. Stark, came up from Portland on Tuesday.

Miss May Kennedy returned this week from a several days' visit at Perrydale.

Hon. W. E. Richardson, superior judge of Spokane county, Wash., is visiting his father, Claib Richardson.

Miss Edith Owen will attend the Sacred Heart Academy at Salem this winter, leaving the last of September.

Cards are out announcing the Harvest Home Carnival ball, given by the Woodmen at Albany on September 4th.

Mrs. Maud Ireland has improved so rapidly at the hospital in Portland as to make it possible to be brought home soon.

D. B. Taylor's family is expected soon from the coast and W. G. Sharman's family will follow in the near future.

Glenn Butler, of Monmouth, who has spent several months in Eastern Oregon, returned home last Saturday evening.

Jess Irvine, of McMinnville, who has been spending several weeks at Newport, returned to his home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Emmett Staats, of Airlie, left Monday afternoon for Port Townsend, where she will visit relatives for a short time.

Mrs. T. P. Baker, who has been visiting A. Nelson's family, left Monday morning by way of Salem for her Iowa home.

Charley Bacon, of Southern Oregon, a former resident of this place, came up from Portland Friday on a visit to relatives here.

Mrs. W. Babbitt and Miss Bowden have returned from the coast and are prepared to resume their teaching in music at once.

Mrs. E. L. DeLashmutt, was an incoming passenger from Seattle, Wash., Monday morning, going over to Dallas on the motor.

Mrs. C. L. Fitchard, of Independence, passed through Salem last evening returning home from Eugene.—Salem Statesman.

Charley Bacon was a passenger Saturday morning to Newport to spend a few days. He is now an S. P. brakeman at Grants Pass.

See our new line of pocket cutlery made by the Cattaraugus Cutlery Co. We have good knives at very low prices. F. E. Chambers.

Dee Taylor was quite ill on Sunday. Attorney Fenton, of McMinnville, was in the city last Sunday, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Myrtle Lee, formerly of this city, now of Olympia, Wash., will soon enter the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland as a nurse.

If the action of your bowels is not easy and regular, serious complications must be the final result. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will remove this danger. Safe, pleasant and effective. A. S. Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Zurcher left on Saturday for their new home at Enterprise, Eastern Oregon. Mrs. Zurcher was Miss Best, of Monmouth.

F. S. Younger and son, E. Younger, arrived Sunday from Monmouth, Or., and are guests of friends.—Pendleton correspondent to the Telegram.

Mrs. Frank O'Brien and children left yesterday for Cleveland, O., on a visit. Mr. O'Brien accompanied them to Portland.—Albany Democrat.

Frank Lord, who worked in C. D. Calbreath's grocery store, is now following the race circuit as a jockey, being at present in Everett, Wash.

Luna Yeater, of the Luckiamute, got hit in the ribs by a pitchfork handle that was kicked by a horse, on Tuesday, which fractured one rib.

Miss Veda Torbett was a passenger to Albany Saturday morning, where she will spend several weeks with her parents before returning for the winter.

Elder J. R. G. Russell, of Dallas, will preach in the Baptist church Saturday at 2 P. M. and Sunday morning at 11 A. M. and in the evening at 8 P. M.

J. E. Hubbard and L. Damon were over at Grande Ronde on Tuesday looking at a large stock ranch belonging to N. L. Butler, with a view of renting it.

Henry Wilkes, a former Independence boy, surprised people Monday by coming in on the morning train. He has been at Fossil, Eastern Oregon, of late years.

Miss Olive Williams, daughter of Mrs. Sanford Williams, returned home from Salem this week, where she has been spending the past two months with friends.

The Airlie freight train engine broke down at Airlie Monday evening, necessitating its laying over there until a new engine could be brought up from Portland.

Jasper R. Miller, who has been in Alaska for some time, returned last week. He reports having been at the Stump camp recently and that they were getting along fine.

Rev. and Mrs. Claud LeMasters and infant child passed through town Monday morning. Rev. LeMasters was formerly pastor of the Christian church here, but is now located in California.

Rev. James Waggoner, of Ukiah, California, preached in the Independence Christian church both Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Waggoner will probably be called to this field of labor, so we are informed.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwarz have taken up their residence in Vancouver, Wash., says the Vancouver correspondent to the Oregonian. Mrs. Schwarz was formerly Miss Alta Estes, of this city, later of Walla Walla, Wash.

We notice by the marriage column of the Portland Telegram that Miss Frances Holden, a well known young lady of Monmouth three or four years ago, was married to a Mr. Brink on August 21. Among those assisting in the ceremonies were Miss Opal Hall and Miss Maud Stockton, both well-known in Monmouth.

Eastman Kodaks

AND FULL LINE OF

Photographic Supplies.

Eastman's W. D. Platinum paper develops in hot water. We carry the following sizes 3 1/2 x 3 1/2, 3 1/4 x 4 1/4, and 4 x 5.

Brownie Kodaks, $1.

F. E. Chambers, Independence, Oregon.

An ice cream soda. Wagoner's. Mrs. C. E. Staats, of Airlie, was in the city on Wednesday.

Owing to the rush of work in this office, several correspondence had to be left over for next week.

Mrs. W. Babbitt and Miss Florence Bowden, also Master Dick Babbitt and Mrs. Bowden returned from the coast last week. They have been spending several weeks, near Minnie, and report the weather as having been delightful. They report the weather at Newport, however, as being cold and disagreeable.

Rev. Albyn Esson returned from Portland Monday to complete moving from Monmouth to that city. Rev. Esson is pastor of the Rodney Avenue Christian church, of Portland. The Monmouth church, of which he was pastor until recently, is one of the strongest churches of that denomination in the state, but is without a pastor for the present.

Hon. W. R. Ellis, ex-representative in congress from the second congressional district of Oregon, visited Monday and Tuesday with friends in this city. Judge Ellis informs us that he has recently moved from Heppner to Pendleton. The judge is a pleasant, affable gentleman, and bore the unique distinction while in Washington City, of being one of the handsomest members of congress.

Huntley's Restaurant,

Mrs. W. Huntley, Prop.

.....Meals from 20 cents and up. Special rates by the week.....

C STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

Go to

H. M. LINES,

For wall paper, window shades, picture frames, etc. Furniture of all kinds repaired.

At Telephone Office, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

J. D. IRVINE,

Notary Public and Justice of the Peace.

Collections a specialty. Agent for a number of standard old line insurance companies.

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

If you want to buy a watch of any kind it will pay you to look at our stock before buying. Our prices are right.

O. H. Kramer & Co.
Jewelers & Opticians.

There may be others as good but there are none better. ...THE RAKET STOR... Has them and sells them at the lowest price that a cash business will allow. Kindly look at them. Yours truly, J. A. MILLS.

An investment of time and money in a business education is not a venture. The benefits to be derived from such a course last for life and pay substantial dividends every day. These facts are amply shown by the uniform success of the graduates of the CAPITAL BUSINESS COLLEGE. Our students are offered the advantages of a school well known for its thorough work, pleasant rooms, skillful teachers and modern methods. Class and individual instruction. Living expenses cheap. Send for catalogue. W. I. STALEY, Principal, Salem, Oregon.