

Dr Price's CREAM BAKING POWDER

Improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of the food.

Superlative in Strength and Purity.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO.

PicKerl
Defies competition. He guarantees his pictures the best that money can buy. Prices down to bed rock. Everybody invited. Monmouth st. Independence.

Social and Personal.

McCaleb has a change of add this week. Read it.

Ice cream in pint packers at Wagoner's only 20 cents.

Cal Hutton, the horse-shoer, at Fennell's.

Mrs. J. E. Kirkland and Mrs. O.
D. Butler were in Salem Wednesday on business.

Wool! Wool! 500,000 pounds of wool wanted at highest market price by S. M. Daniel, Monmouth.

Ten per cent is added to your city taxes after June 16. Call at the Recorder's office and settle at once.

Mrs. M. L. Dorris, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hedges, for a number of weeks, returned to Eugene Tuesday.

G. W. Stapleton received several complimentary votes for United States Senator, a compliment which all of his many personal friends here greatly appreciate.

Miss Ella Robinson left Tuesday for Portland, on her way to Arlington, where she will remain.
Miss Eva Robinson, her sister, who is now in Arlington will return.

It is being arranged to have through trains run to Newport through Independence, from Portland on Sundays this summer, says the Evening Telegram.

Prof. W. W. Allingham returned to his home at Coburg Tuesday, but before leaving he announced his intention to permanently retire from the field of the pedagogue to that of stock raising and kindred industries, in which he has been engaged several years.

The professor had many friends when he came here, and leaves with many more, whose earnest wishes go with him for his success in his new business ventures.

S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, pays highest price for wool.

Ice cream soda at Wagoner's.
Open Sundays.

If a horse is not properly shod it cannot travel. Fennell & Hutton know how to properly shoe a horse.
Try them. Work guaranteed.

Pay your city taxes before June 16. The time has been extended so that everybody will have plenty of time to avoid the 10 per cent penalty.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk, or applied if desired.

Dixon Dehoner is guaranteed to remove horns from calves up to one year old. Its work is clean, smooth and reliable. Campbell Bros.

When in town try Huntley's Restaurant for a first class meal.
Special rates by the week.

Mrs. A. J. Goodman leaves today for Portland. She will visit until next week, when she will attend a meeting of the Grand Lodge of Degree of Honor to which she is a delegate.

Mrs. DeLashmutt, of Dallas is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. W.
Percival.

Frank Fisher takes the cars to LaComas, Wash., Wednesday.
He is now a solicitor on the Equitable & Loan Association, and is working the territory east of the mountains.

Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell, of this city is visiting friends and relatives in Roseburg—Portland Telegram.

A good stock of kodaks and supplies at Frazier & Rice's.

On election day a scrap took place late Monday afternoon between a man by the name of Phillips and Ivan Wood. A slight altercation led to blows, and just at that time all roads led to the recorder's office, where both enriched the city treasury by $3 each.

R. M. Wade & Co have just received another invoice of buggies and carriages.

Rey. J. Wagoner informs us that he has been elected to the pastorate the Dayton Oregon, Christian church and that he will move his family there week after next. He further informs us that the State Board will take charge of the church here and supply it with ministerial timber.

Second hand buggy for sale by Frazier & Rice.

E. T Henkle has moved his barber shop to the room two doors south of J. W. Kirkland's office. The building vacated by Mr. Henkle will be thrown into one with the building vacated some time ago by Miss Canna Robinson, and then the new furniture store will move in.

The Buckeye Washer is the best washing machine ever put on the market. Every machine guaranteed. For sale cheap by R. M. Wade & Co.

Editor Scott Leavitt, of the Falls City Leader, was in town Wednesday on business. He reports being highly pleased with the manner in which the people of that live burg take up with his newspaper. They should be proud of the paper he is giving them.

The annual conductors excursion to Salem will be held Sunday.

Geo. Henkle, of Corvallis, was in the city one Sunday on business.

Gus Sperling returned Sunday from a trip east of the mountains.

Louie Wiprut visited his parents in Salem, several days the past week.

Prof. A. J. Shipley, the successful teacher, has moved to Monmouth.

The Knox grocery front has been repainted and otherwise improved in appearance.

R. H. Knox and family have moved to the Masterson house near the Christian church.

The annual reunion of Polk county pioneers will be held in Dallas on Saturday, June 21st.

Take your wool to S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, and get the highest market price in cash.

Mrs. W. C. Kanter, of Dallas visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
B. F. Whiteaker, here last week.

Miss Bertha Bohannon has her arm in a sling at present, the result of a slight operation on it.

Prof. W. J. Hooker, who has been visiting relatives in this county, returned to Brownville Saturday.

We see from a press dispatch that another free delivery route is to be established, Monmouth being the central office.

Hon. G. W. Stapleton returned Sunday afternoon to Portland, after speaking at Ridder's Grove and here Saturday.

The time for paying your city taxes has been extended to June 16. After that date a 10 per cent penalty will be added.

Mrs. M. Hendricks and infant child came up from McMinnville Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs.
W. G. Hefley, near Monmouth.

Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell and little daughter returned to Portland Sunday afternoon after having visited several days with relatives at Monmouth and Independence.

Mrs. Clyde Williams after a brief visit with relatives near Airlie returned last week to her home in Sheridan. Mr. Williams is employed in a drug store at that place.

Prof. E. M. Smith and wife came up from McCoy last Thursday, thence going over to Monmouth.
Prof. Smith has just completed a most successful school year at Mc-Coy.

Marion Smith, of Lewisville, returned Friday from Salem, where he had been as a delegate to the State Grange. He reported a very profitable and interesting session this year.

A rally of the republican forces was held Saturday evening in the auditorium. Previous to assembling in their hall, the Independence band discoursed lively music, and the G. A. R. drum and fife corps did their part toward attracting a crowd to the scene where oratory was to flow. G. W.
Stapleton was the principal orator, and his efforts have been so frequently reviewed that there is no occasion at this late hour to rehearse them.

The No 2 Brownie kodak, only $2 at Frazer & Rice's.

Ice Cream and Ice Cream Soda..

We are now prepared to serve you at any time during the day with the very best Ice Cream made from pure cream. We serve both the Ice Cream and Ice Cream Soda, with crushed fruit for 10 cents. We now have a supply of good paper packers, which will take good care of your cream while packing it home. Take a package home with you; only 20c per pint.

Harry E. Wagoner,

Confectioner,

NEW LOCATION ON

Main Street, Independence, Ore.

R. M. Wade & Co. have received their second car of wire fencing.
This fence is as cheap as lumber and will last a life time.

Mrs. Rose McGrath and child, of Portland, came up Saturday, to attend the high school graduating exercises and to visit for a brief spell her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.
W. Richardson Sr.

First-class horseshoing at Fennell & Hutton's.

George Atkins, who is working with a drug house in Portland came home Sunday to be able to vote. He will soon resume his position as a timber ranger.

At Monmouth last Saturday Prof. G. A. Forbes, as the head of physical culture in the Normal, gave a most interesting light gymnastic program. It consisted of pyramids, wrestling, boxing and many other athletic features.

S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, pays highest price for poultry, eggs and butter.

O. R. Ball, late manager of the Type Co.'s branch house at Seattle, was in the city Saturday evening.
Sunday he visited with the family of R. T. Boothby, of Monmouth, old acquaintances of his. He returned to Portland Sunday afternoon.

Donation Land Claim for Sale

Taken in 1842. Notification 5075.
Three-quarters of mile west of Lewis-ville, 150 acres in cultivation; 2 barns house and orchard; all under fence, and crop fenced. Inquire on the premises.
5-29-2m A. WING.

Auctioneers!

When in need of the services of good auctioneers address J. D. or J. F. Good, auctioneers, Salem, Oregon.

Terms Reasonable.

H. H. Jaspersen,

UNDERTAKER,

Independence, Oregon.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.

...Dentist...

Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,

Physician & Surgeon.

Office in Opera House building, Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9.

E. T. HENKLE,

Bath and Barber Shop.

MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

The Arcade,
Davidson & Hedges, Props.

Cigars, Cigarettes, Tobaccos and Confectionery.

FIRST CLASS SODA FOUNTAIN IN CONNECTION.

...THE...

Monmouth Laundry

H. D. WHITMAN, Prop.

Should have your Work.

Washing called for and delivered, both in Dallas and Independence. Washing called for on Tuesday and delivered on Saturday.....

Work Guaranteed.

Monmouth, Oregon.